

Priscilla Lovett is the proud School Business Manager at J.W. Dobbs Elementary. Ms. Lovett is a graduate of the University of South Florida, and upon graduating, immediately began teaching in Vero Beach, Florida, at Thompson Elementary School. After teaching for eight years, she attained a Master of Science Degree in Educational Leadership and continued to serve and teach in Atlanta Public Schools. Just a few years later, she attained a Master of Arts Degree in Reading and became an Instructional Coach at J.W. Dobbs Elementary. She recently completed the Tier I Leadership Certification at the University of West Georgia. Ms. Lovett is truly committed to the work of improving student achievement in the city of Atlanta.

Over the years, Ms. Lovett has been sought out to serve in many capacities. During her 16-year tenure, she has served as the district's Literacy Ambassador, Teacher of the Year (2015), Relay Candidate, and Professional Learning Liaison.

Ms. Lovett enjoys spending time with her family, friends, and sorority sisters in her spare time. She enjoys traveling and giving back to the community. She also enjoys shopping. She is a proud Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated member and is extremely active in her church and community. Her favorite quote is, "The best way to predict the future is to create it." Ms. Lovett is a dedicated servant leader who is always ready and willing to create new experiences for everyone to reach their full potential.