

Morningside Elementary School

Presents

The Harlem Renaissance Exhibition

We welcome any and every student, parent, faculty member here at Morningside to take part in our MES Renaissance Exhibition. This is not a contest, but simply an OPTIONAL display of the wonderful talent we have here at Morningside Elementary School through a celebration of Black History and the Harlem Renaissance Era.

You can show your talent through Harlem Renaissance themed artwork, poetry, posters, sculptures, books, photography, etc. Anything that can be displayed in the auditorium for others to see is welcome.

When: MES Renaissance Day –
Wednesday, February 26, 2020 Bring your display items to the auditorium on Wednesday morning.

Time: The exhibit will be displayed in the auditorium all day. Classes will have a schedule to visit the displays.
Parents and Community members can view the exhibit during the Family Engagement Meeting at 3:00 p.m.

Students, Faculty, and Staff can also celebrate Renaissance Day (2/26) by coming to school in Harlem Renaissance or Roaring 20's style attire if they would like!
