It is usually during difficult moments that great movements are birthed. You no longer have to see your unemployed status as a stumbling block but now as a stepping stone! In exchange for Volunteer Service, you will be able to obtain a Child Development Associate (CDA) - a National Credential that will allow you to work in the classroom with young children.

Minimum Requirements

- Have a clean background check
- Be at least 18 years old
- Be willing to complete 120 hours of training
- Be willing to complete volunteer service
- No previous childcare experience required
