FULTON COUNTY

BOARD OF HEALTH GIVES BACK

The Fulton County Board of Health (FCBOH) provides a variety of services that help protect residents from health threats, increase access to health services to improve health outcomes, and provide information that assists Fulton County citizens in living healthier lives.

On Tuesday, January 31st, the FCBOH partnered with neighboring high school, Frederick Douglass HS to assist 10 ASTROnomical students with their membership dues.

These scholars are apart of the schools National Honor Society. An organization that Principal Foresttella Taylor calls, "Elite" for their commitment to scholarship, leadership, citizenship and service!

The organization is comprised of 41 10th-12th grade students with a cummalative GPA of 3.67 and averages 20-30 hours of community service monthly.
