

April is Occupational Therapy Month

Alone we can dO so little, Together we can do so much

Helen Keller

April is Occupational Therapy Month, and it's the perfect time to promote our profession. With our society's increased use of social media, digital communications, and the Internet, promoting occupational therapy has never been easier.

