SEL BOOK OF THE MONTH THE PROUDEST BLUE

THE PROUDEST BLUE BY IBTIHAJ MUHAMMAD...SOCIAL AWARENESS

THE PROUDEST BLUE demonstrates Social awareness which allows individuals to take others' perspectives into account and to empathize with others. Socially aware students are more likely to recognize and appreciate the similarities and differences of others. Social awareness is particularly important for students as they participate in new instructional shifts. Students need to take the perspectives of their classmates during classroom discussions and attempt to empathize and relate with characters during analysis of texts. The illustrations and the colors are just as powerful as words in conveying the passionate message of how to be proud of one's culture, individuality, and religion and how to stay strong and keep one's faith. This is an empowering book for young readers who can see themselves in Asiya or know someone like her. This book is also a great tool to learn about the beauty that comes from other's culture, religion and life experiences.
