IV. Discussion Items (add items as needed)

- a. Discussion Item 1: 2024 Spring MAP Results -The school had a 2% increase in the area of development in reading. The school had a larger increase in math. Deerwood Academy had a higher percentage of scholars meeting and exceeding their MAP growth goals from fall to spring assessment. 50% of our SWD students exceeded their growth target. 75% of our Hispanic population meet or exceeded their MAP Goal. 49% of scholars met or exceeded their Math Goals.
- b. Discussion Item 2: Needs Assessment- What does this data tell us? We are moving in the right direction and we will continue to work on increasing student growth. What good news is there to celebrate? Our Map data predictions project that we will meet our SIP goals. We exceed our MAP target goal in reading. 50% of our students with disabilities exceeded their growth goals. What are growth opportunities? The gap is closing between Hispanics and students in reading. The gap is closing between SWDs and all student in math. What trends do we see in the data? We will continue to internalize new math skills. Suggestions from the GoTeam-1. We will need reading intervention to support our scholars. 2.Focus on moving scholars from profession to distinguish.
- c. Discussion Item 3: Transportation Discussion- Discussed some safe walking trail suggestions for the scholars from the Path Foundation. The Path Foundation has been hired to provide a city safe walking/ riding trails around the city of Atlanta. To look up and complete a survey about the trails please go to trailsatl.com eric.pathfoundation.org. They will have more in person meetings they are working with the neighborhood planning outreach meeting.
