Discussion Items*PUBLIC COMMENT

Arle Wilson-Dixon moved that the GO Team keep the same public comment format as was used during the 2016-17 school year. Each stake-holder must sign in prior to the beginning of the meeting and gets 2 minutes to speak. The public comment period will last 20 minutes and be included in the 1 hour meeting time period. It was seconded by Hershel Robinson. The vote was unanimous.

NORMS

The GO Team decided to keep the norms established during the 2016-17 term with the following additions. It was moved by Garnetta Penn and seconded by Christy Muckle to accept the changes.

1. A 15 minute time limit for waiting for a quorum to begin a meeting.
2. A group text message will be sent before 12 noon on the day of the meeting to the GO Team if a member has an emergency and cannot make a scheduled meeting.
3. Christy Muckle will be the parliamentarian for the 2017-18.

At 6:55 p.m. Garnetta Penn moved to extend the meeting 15minutes to hear the principal's report. Marcia Jackson, Garnetta Penn, Christy Muckle and Gina Rogers voted yes. Hershel Robinson and Alexis Morris voted no. The motion passed.

Principal's Report

Mays has 1503 students out of a projected 1540. Mr. Fowler referred the GO team to the CNA report, sections 2.1.3 and 2.2.3 and requested they be reviewed and any feedback be sent to him by noon on Tuesday, Aug. 29, 2017. He reminded the GO Team that the school doesn't get any points for students scoring at the Beginners level. Gains were made in American Literature and Physical Science. Work is needed in Algebra and Geometry. The plan is to give students the support classes during 1st semester and the actual classes 2nd semester.

The school has started using the HERO System which rewards students with points. The system has gotten off to a good start.

At 7:11 p.m. Marcia Jackson moved and Christy Muckle seconded the meeting be adjourned. The vote was unanimous.
