Ms. Russell (GO Team Chairperson) began the meeting by introducing the leadership of Raising Expectations. The invited guests provided a summary of the services offered by their organization to Washington and answered any relative questions. Raising Expectations was thanked by members of the Go Team for their service to Booker T. Washington High School Students.

I. Action Items

- A. Review the Strategic Plan- The Go Team reviewed the school improvement plan and asked clarifying questions relative to the school focus. The team determined it unnecessary to alter or update mission and vision adopted last year. A draft GO

Team strategic plan would be offered for review at the December GO Team meeting.

II. Discussion Items

Identify Key Areas of the Strategic Plan- The Team reviewed the school strategic plan and opted to align the focus areas with the school plan.

III. Information Items

- A. Principal's Report – Dr. Young reviewed the graduation rate for the school and noted the rate as: 80.5%. This was the highest rate the school had achieved in over a decade. Dr. Young also reviewed the TSI status the school is currently monitored under. A review of the status and the indicators of the status was offered along with a plan of action for exiting the status.
