Result: Ranking of strategic plan priorities as follows:

- 1) Academic Excellence
- 2) Empowering Leaders and Staff
- 3) Student Support
- 4) School support

IV. Discussion Items

- a. Discussion Item 1: Strategic Plan Update: Ms. Tanner provided an update on the Strategic Plan, which also has been reviewed for the past three meetings. She reviewed the attached presentation and performance indicators, noting we are on track with the Continuous Improvement Plan.
- b. Discussion Item 2: Fall to Winter MAP Data: Midtown has opted out of the winter MAP assessment. The North Atlanta Cluster also opted out.

V. Information Items

- a. Principal's Report Dr. Bockman discussed classes that are being added: full-time ASL at Level III, a physical science course and advanced financial algebra. Every student must take a physical science course, which might have been satisfied with the 8th grade physical science course. Physics is math-based and some students aren't prepared. Midtown has two CARES-funded position, which are attendance specialist and instructional paraprofessional. Current student enrollment is 1,663. There has been no drop-off in enrollment. There will be a Principal's Coffee on November 29 at 9:00am on zoom.
- b. Cluster Advisory Team Update: There has been no Cluster Advisory meeting since the last GO Team meeting.
- c. STEAM Report: Ms. Tanner gave the STEAM update and reviewed the attached presentation.

VI. Announcements: Giving Tuesday will take place on November 28.
