IV. Discussion Items

A. Budget Development Presentation-

Request for budget was approved. Mitchell went over positions that will be added and seven positions we will be losing next year. She also discussed how the budget will be distributed such as secretary overtime, web-based subscriptions, instructional employee travel, administration employee travel, district field trips, computer equipment and media supplies. All these changes will impact on the budget and are related to our strategic plan.

Went over the strategic plan and how it will align with the budget and the rationale behind the spending.

Strategic plan breakout plan 2026 was discussed

-Power up recovery: setting up an after-school program, buses will be included for after school programs and adding a counselor. Raising students graduation rate, and increase supplies.
