VI. Announcements

1. NAIC acknowledged Bunche for how well we have implemented our programs
2. Happy to announce that the District Quarterly Review showed that Bunche's suspension rate has decreased and our literacy rate has increased
3. Our Girl's Basketball Team is headed to the Championship and will play against Howard Middle School - GO CHARGERS!!!!
4. Ms. Ferguson is leading the staff on a Wellness Challenge - Biggest Loser
5. Beta Club will induct new members on February 15, 2024
6. Madame Nakou is one out of three IB Specialist to have participated in 3+ Learning Walks
7. Four Teaches have resigned this school year, two since Christmas; we hired a Certified Math teacher last semester; we have a his spirited long-term substitute teacher for ELA vacancy; have interviewed several Science teachers but are still looking for a teacher with the right fit - we do have a substitute teacher with Science background
8. Mr. Gordon will be taking his 8th Grade AVA Science class to I-Fly where they will engage in activities that will help supplement course content they are currently learning
9. UPS sponsored a trip to Microsoft for some of our students; a representative from Microsoft stated that they have an online course the students can take that will make them very marketable - if the students complete the course and receive a certificate, they will get a Pizza Party
