Information Item 1: Leveling/Project Enrollment

c. Principal's Report: Dr. Earls discussed this year's leveling which was a result of the enrollment exceeding the projection of 153 students. The additional students earned the school 135,000 to use to support the instructional Program via additional personnel and/or resources.

d. Information Item 2: Strategic Plan and GMAS Spring 2022

She also reviewed the Strategic Plan and GMAS Spring 2022 Data. A question was asked around the standards of service allocation for Reading/ELA and whether more time could be dedicated to reading.

The response was that the school's cluster adopted Ready GEN Curriculum for Reading. Ready GEN is implemented by teachers K-5th during the 120 Minute Literacy Instructional Block which includes Close Reading and Writing.

Additionally, teachers were afforded two 90-minute planning sessions for Reading/ELA and Math via alternating weeks. Specifically, the 1st and 3rd (Literacy) and the 2nd and 4th (Math).

The planning sessions are for two-week UNIT Lesson Internalization/Teach-back sessions.

- V. Announcements Judy Limor announced Camp Jenny's upcoming theme (Monsters INC.) release which will focus on friendship, the power of joy, and laughter. Camp Jenny will visit FLS to unveil the theme with students Monday, October 3, 2022, during the school-wide Morning Meditation segment.
