NOTE: Due to concerns regarding COVID-19 (Coronavirus), and the related public health emergency declared at both the state and federal levels, in-person access to this meeting and meeting room capacity shall be limited to allow for appropriate social distancing. All stakeholders attending the meeting in-person will be temperature screened upon entry into the building and required to wear a mask. A mask is required for all attendees. Seats are available on a first-come-first serve basis. Should the meeting room be at capacity with attendees, individuals signed up for in-person public comment may be required to wait outside the meeting room. They will be escorted into the meeting room in order to offer public comment and will then be escorted out, in order to maintain meeting room capacity.

During this meeting, the Committee may enter into an executive session to discuss any appropriate items if there is a need.
