III. Discussion Items (add items as needed)

- a. Discussion Item 1: The Spring 2023 MAP results were presented by grade level and discussed about how said scores are used as a predictor for the Spring GMAS 2023 students' results.
- b. Discussion Item 2: BASC Spring 2023 results were reviewed at a high level to provide context for the need for a strong partnership to support at-risk students.

Duly noted were the current partnership the district has with Hazel Health and the partnership FLS has with Family Ties.

IV. Information Items (add items as needed)

- a. Principal's Report: Principal Earls reviewed partnership highlights, specifically those partners associated with providing instructional resources to FLS. Mozley Park Association, ST. Paul's Episcopal Church, Westside Table, Georgia Tech, and Camp Jenny to name a few.

A select group of students were selected to participate in the annual Camp Jenny Memorial Day Week Exploration/Overnight Field Trip. Mrs. Limor provided an update about this event.

Finally, Mrs. Alma Hall offered to facilitate a Reading/Writing/Listening Professional Learning Session at the close of the year for FLS Faculty and Staff for which the offer was embraced and graciously accepted by the principal.
