Background

Through a process developed and facilitated by the Chief Engagement Officer and the Office of Strategy & Change, the Atlanta Board of Education approved the 2020-2025 Strategic Plan on March 2, 2020.

The 2020-2025 Strategic Plan includes a revised mission, new goals and priorities focused on improving educational outcomes for all students. In alignment with the Board's April 2019 adoption of Policy BBBB, Equity, this plan places equity at the front and center of the district's work over the next five years.

APS MISSION

Through a caring culture of equity, trust, and collaboration, every student will graduate ready for college, career, and life.

APS VISION

A high-performing school district where students love to learn, educators inspire, families engage and the community trust the system.

Review Your School's Current Mission

The mission is a high level statement that describes who the organization is, what they are about, or their purpose; it is what you do every day.

Guiding Questions for an Effective Mission:

Does your mission clearly outline what you provide to whom for what benefit?

- What is the purpose of your school, and what does it hope to accomplish?
- How does it go about accomplishing its purpose for being?
- Who or what cause do you focus on?
- What values or beliefs guide the school?

Score	4. Exemplary Mission	3. Fully Articulated Mission	2. Developing Mission	1. Undeveloped Mission
	The mission statement is clear, informative, concise and articulates what you provide to whom for what benefit. The mission statement is verifiable and is feasible.	The mission statement articulates your core purpose. The mission statement is verifiable and is feasible.	The mission statement partially describes your core purpose. The mission statement is not verifiable and/or feasible.	The mission statement is unclear, wordy and does not articulate your core purpose. The mission statement is not verifiable and is not feasible.

Example Mission Breakdown

How?

Who? Through a caring culture of equity, trust, and collaboration, every student will graduate ready for college, career, and life. What?

How? Provide a secure and nurturing environment that fosters
Who? students' success,

to develop interpersonal skills through real-world experiences, to promote the exchange of ideas through multiple mediums, and to engage communities near and afar.

What?

Tips

- Time pressure generates focus
- Discussions get the group involved (keep to 4 to 6 people, then come back together)

1. Storytelling

- What does it look like when we're doing our best work? Describe a time where you were proud of your work.
- Square parts of the story with names or places (Our Cause)
- Circle parts of the story where you are making a difference and taking action (Our Actions)
- Underline parts of the story that describe changes for the better or results from your work (Our Impact)

2. Fill in the Blank

- Our mission is to provide (whom) with (what) for (what benefit)...

Review Your School's Current Vision

The vision is a high level statement that describes what the organization wants to accomplish in the future (typically several years); it is a picture of the future. The vision is inspirational. It's also what you stand for.

Guiding Questions for an Effective Vision:

- Does your vision clearly outline where you will be in three to five years?*
- Is your vision inspirational for stakeholders?*
- What would the world look like if the mission of the school were achieved?*

Score	4. Exemplary Vision	3. Fully Articulated Vision	2. Developing Vision	1. Undeveloped Vision
	The vision statement is clear, concise and articulates what success will look like in the future. The vision statement is verifiable and is feasible. The vision statement is inspirational to stakeholders.	The vision statement articulates what success will look like in the future. The vision statement is verifiable and is feasible.	The vision statement partially describes what success will look like in the future for the organization. The vision statement is not verifiable and/or feasible.	The vision statement is unclear, wordy and does not articulate what success will look like in the future. The vision statement is not verifiable and is not feasible.

Tips

- Encourage imagination through structure
- No “buts”
- Visit your vision, literally and figuratively

1. Visioning Our Feature

- Individually, imagine the year 2025. Imagine your school has become everything you’ve hoped for. Allow an image to come to mind.
- Now imagine a reporter from AJC is going to do a story on your school and its legacy.
- What would you show or tell the reporter?

2. Write the School’s “Obituary”

- What would you want written about your school if it ceased to exist or was merged....many, many years from now?
- Write whatever comes to mind. Don’t over-think. Some guiding questions:
 - What did your school impact or change? Why?
 - What did your school value?
 - What were the major accomplishments?
 - What was the school’s legacy?
