II. Return + Learn Update and Principal's Report

Ms. Powell shared with the group that on October 19th, teachers would be reporting back into the building and, based on the results of the staff surveys, a determination will be made as to what internal measures will look like when students return to school.

Ms. Powell talked about the staggered approach for students returning to school and parent choice. How this will be rolled out will be in response to what parents want according to the Parent Questionnaires. She added that whatever that looks like, APS will take all measures necessary to protect students and staff.

Ms. Powell was asked by Ms. Thompson, how Ms. Powell personally felt about us returning to school. Ms. Powell responded by saying that she is confident that Dr. Herring will make the best decision for returning that will make schools safe for everyone
