Dr. Ford ensures that teachers have access to educational strategies that support effective learning to meet the diverse needs of all students at Michael R. Hollis Innovation Academy. She serves as a facilitator, guide, and supporter of quality instructional practices, and emphasizes the importance of delivering quality instruction in order to improve academic achievement and student growth and progress. Additionally, Dr. Ford ensures access to quality school-based professional development, focusing on curriculum and other relevant topics, in the forms of Professional Learning Communities, Strategy Café, and other engaging learning formats.

Dr. Ford assists, as well as encourages, educators to identify their abilities, skills, and expertise. She provides opportunities for educators to creatively express their abilities and launch leadership initiatives across the school. She offers support in starting these initiatives, as well as feedback to assist in cultivating and improving skills.
