See you there!

COMMITTEE UPDATES

Garden & Wellness

Morning yoga has returned! On Wednesday mornings from 7:30-7:45 am in the gym, all students can participate in free lessons led by certified child yoga instructor Lucy Curtis. Yoga encourages focused breathing, self-calming and mindfulness. The Wylde Center also returns to Parkside this month, providing engaging garden-based education for 3rd through 5th graders. The last official garden workday of 2018 is Sunday, October 21, 9:30-11:30am. All volunteers are welcome! We'll be finishing work on the garden room, filling the new raised beds with soil, and more. We provide tools, gloves and activities for the kids. Come on out and get involved! Thank you to our volunteers who created fall decorations using mini native corn cobs harvested from plants the 5th graders planted in our garden last year. They look great!

Fundraising

If you love the idea of turning your child's art into a keepsake, then our Square 1 Art fundraiser is for you. Choose from dozens of items, from coffee mugs to garden flags to jewelry, to customize with your child's artwork. They make a perfect keepsake and gift for family members. Items will arrive in time for the holidays — and help raise funds for our school! Look for order forms in the Green Folders on Thursday, October 25.

GO TEAM UPDATE

The Go Team met on Thursday, September 20. They voted to elect three new members: parent representative Katie Howard, staff representative Jennifer Fassinger, and community representative Barath Parthasarathy. Officers were elected as well, and the team voted to alter the meeting schedule to make it easier for more parents to attend meetings. New meeting times will alternate between 3:15pm and 5:00pm. Principal Foster gave a “State of the School” report and the members discussed their individual motivations for joining the Go Team and their goals for this year. The Go Team’s next meeting will take place TODAY at 5:00pm, and everyone from our school community is always welcome to attend.
