FOREWORD

This book will serve as a succinct but practical souvenir to remind you of memorable high school days. Turn the pages and you will find numerous photographs of teachers, classmates and schoolmates who will call to mind some familiar incident which will fade with time. In the future, many of these same people shown here will be widely known for their contribution to the enrichment of Life. Much better than photographs, this Annual of 1953 has captured in a direct and lively way the magic spell of Washington High School which, ever young in spirit because it is concerned with Youth, is observing its twenty-seventh commencement. In years to come the landmarks and other features of the whole fabric of your Alma Mater will bring nostalgic memories. Herein lies the reward, if the reader is touched by the moving experiences or if he recalls glimpses of the great moments in a great period of Life. The reading material gives flavor to the life of the school, reflects the main features of contemporary time. In short, dear reader, you are placed in the special atmosphere of Washington High School, in order that you may enjoy "the old times" once again.

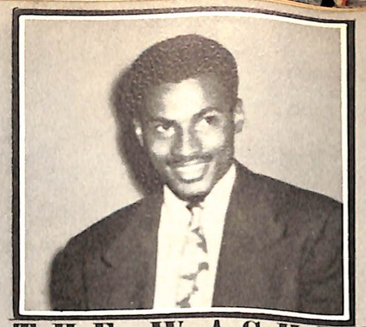

DEDICATION

THE SCHOOL IS MORE THAN BRICK AND MORTAR. IT IS A PLACE WHERE YOUNG PEOPLE COME YEAR IN AND YEAR OUT IN SEARCH OF KNOWLEDGE. IT IS HERE THAT TEACHERS MINISTER TO THE NEEDS OF YOUTH. MATURE MEN AND WOMEN, SERVING AS ADVISERS, PLAY A LEADING ROLE IN HELPING STUDENTS GIVE ORDER, LOGIC AND CLEARNESS TO THEIR THINKING. IT IS HERE THAT YOUTH LEARN TO TAKE THEIR PLACE IN SOCIETY, THEREBY MAKING THIS A BETTER WORLD IN WHICH TO LIVE. IT IS HERE THAT YOUTH ARE CONTINUALLY ASKING QUESTIONS AND FINDING ANSWERS TO PROBLEMS - GIVING EXPRESSION TO THE NATURAL URGE TO CREATE--LISTENING, READING, WRITING AND SPEAKING WITH A PURPOSE. IT IS TO THE ETERNAL MASS OF YOUTH WHO TURN THEIR CLEAR EYES TOWARD THE SCHOOL IN THEIR QUEST TO LEARN THAT THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED.

CLASS POEM

Farewell, dear school we love so well,
Farewell, kind teachers true,
We'll treasure memories untold
Of years we spent with you.
Of rooms filled with study,
Of halls bustling with joy,
The lawns, the statue, and all that's yours,
Will be our pride and joy.

We leave your portals with aching hearts,
But there's no need to sigh,
For never in our coming years,
They will not die! They cannot die!
For they will hold steadfast
In minds of all who love you dearly;
Fond memories gained in the past.

So now we lift our faces high
To an infinite future unknown,
But we know we'll find success there,
From the seeds you have sown
We'll always love you, Washington,
Whether we be far or near,
For what the future holds, we owe to
Our Alma Mater dear!

CLASS HISTORY

By Ernestine Miles

The time has come for us to look back into the past and note the course of the voyage we've taken in order to arrive at this port of embarkation---graduation from high school. As it is with all things, many incidents have taken place from time to time, and we have been responsible for these occurrences. To relive these experiences fills us with memories which will remain dear to us as long as we live.

Come with me on a real journey while allowing me to flash back over time and space to an imaginary ship - The U. S. S. B. T. W. - 53, anchored at space pier 45 Whitehouse Drive, and ready for the grand launching. On board were about 1, 000 bright eyed youngsters, nervously anticipating the voyage to be.

All the members of the crew were eager to enter immediately into the many organizations aboard ship. Mable Williams, Joe Tucker, Barbara Simpson, Harold Dawson and many others joined the band, while Wendolyn Pearson, Bettye Bush, and Cecil Bray joined the Glee Club.

Our second cruise aboard the U.S.S. B.T.W., proved to be quite exciting as we worked steadily to obtain high grades for our first unit credits. Some of our crew members stepped into the "limelight"; Bettye Adams was chosen queen attendant and William Odum was quest artist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Dorothy Raiford joined the varsity basketball team and Leon Jamison tried his luck at football.

On our third voyage, Emma Amos was given an art award, Vivian Stodghill won a journalism award for the best essay on the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra's Concert. The annual Calvacade made its comeback. From this Calvacade of talent came the Tune Twisters.

What a fascinating journey the fourth cruise was. This was our first experience of participating in the ship's government. Lloyd Terry was elected captain of the U.S.S. B.T.W., The Ford Foundation examination was given to the members of our crew and three of them won scholarships to Fisk University.

The last cruise aboard the U.S.S. B.T.W. was quite different from the previous ones. New and exciting activities were offered. A modern and well equiped cafeteria was added to the ship. Helen Wright was elected Queen of the U.S.S. B.T.W., Maxine Bradley was chosen Queen of the Senior Crew. During this voyage, a Winter Carnival was held. The senior crew football team defeated the junior crew twenty to zero. Henrietta Phillips was elected Queen of the Winter Carnival. Vivian Stodghill brought fame to the U.S.S. B.T.W., when she played with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Bettye Bush was elected Glee Club Queen. Dorothy Raiford was elected captain of the basketball team and Leon Jamison was elected captain of the football team.

Now on the heels of our latest cruise, we are again at the port of embarkation. Today we launch. Where shall we anchor?

Let us hope that our cruises, regardless to the direction, will prove profitable, and equally, as successful. May the history that the crew of the U.S.S. B.T.W. - 53 makes in the years to come prove a credit to the institution that has nourished us for the past five years. Sail on and on into a safer port, Old Ship of State!

CLASS PROPHECY

by

Betty Parham and Barbara Simpson

Today, January 20, 1973, is a great day of historical interest. It is the inauguration of the President of the United States, Lewis Watson. Many of his former classmates who graduated with him from Booker T. Washington High on June 5, 1953 are witnessing this event. Among those here we see Usher Ward, Governor of California, and his wife, Lucille Ball, who is the first lady of the State; McClellan Smith, President of Morehouse College and his wife the former Alyce Rabb. Some of Morehouse faculty members are here. They are: Melba Bostic, Willie Ruffin, Melvin Carmichael, Virginia Harris, Charles Peterson, William Henderson, Elaine Smith, Barbara Mitchell, and Robert Jefferies. Gwinn Dansby who is now principal at B. T. W. is here with his secretary, Barbara McPherson. Marvin Phillips, Director of the school band is here. Annie Clements and Marian Spearman, the driver training instructors, are here also. Jimmie Pippins and Anna Belle Burns, the physical education instructors, are here. Betty Bush and Marian Anderson, the English instructors at Spelman, are here. Harvenia Hill and Oliver Middlebrooks, the Trigonometry instructors at Clark, are here for this historical event. Ernestine Miles, Joan Panion and Charlestine Jackson, typing instructors are here. Dr. Helen Wright and Dr. Harold Dawson, those famous physicians at Mayo Clinic could not leave the hospital at this time. Dr. Bettye Parham and Dr. Marylyn Wilkes, the head psychologists at the New York Medical Center, are here. Barbara Simpson, the nation's top sociologist flew here from Australia. Vivian Stodghill and William Odum could not be present because of their European Concert tour. Annette Powell, Yvonne Jackson, Jacquelyn Griffin, Jacquelyn Blackburn, Ernestine Justice, and Jeroline Dorsey, the top Power's Models are here. Incidentally, they are wearing some elaborate creations designed by those famous Paris designers, Martha Jones. and Ray Frances Chatman.

Also sharing honors here with the president is Rebecca Gorden, who has just won the Nobel Peace Prize. Joan Hollis, now Mrs. Sylvester Mitchell, Secretary of Commerce could not be here because of her job--business before pleasure!! Joyce McLendon, Maxine Bradley, and Marva Hemphill, librarians at the Library of Congress, are here. Incidentally, all the festivities of this event will be televised with the compliments of Johnny Bates, Marion Armstrong, Alfred Hill and Homer Swann who are T. V. Technicans. William Lyles, Leroy Henderson, Lloyd Terry, Walter Reid, Robert Hood and Joe Tucker, those outstanding U. S. Senators, are here, of course, Bettye Adams, secretary of the U. S. Mint, is here--Money has more value now.

The "Stylish Gents" are now the owners of an exclusive men's shop on 14th Street. They are Baymon Bently, Eddie Harris, Robert Weems, Eugene Williott and Arthur Butts. Also on 14th Street, there is the famous "House of Styles" featuring hair styles by Cleopatra Johnson, Ruby Gholston, Annie Pullins, and Bernice Wilkes. Ann David and Helen Pippins, majors in the U. S. Waves are also here. They certainly look chic in their uniforms. Annie Florence Weaver, Coach at Tuskegee Institute could not be here because of the Tuskegee-Fisk game. Others able to attend are Leon Jamison, who is coach to the All American Team, Olin Winfrey his assistant, and his charming wife, the former Dorothy Raiford who is the top olympic star. While here in Washington, many of us will visit the Museum of Fine Arts where many of Emma Amos' works are on exhibit. Tonight, many of us will go to the Club Cabana, an exclusive night spot owned by James Bloodworth. Featured on the program will be the Tune Twisters who are Malinda Domineck, Cecille Rowland, Harriet Owens, Ceola Davis, and Eloise Cooper. An added attraction will be Jeanette Barnes who will sing her original ballad, "The Tip Tops of The Trees". Incidentally, her song is on the hit parade. Margaurite Goodrum, Mable Williams, and Mary Cochran, the world's most talented interpretive dancers will be featured tonight. Joseph Woodward is the Club's emcee.

The nation's top comedian, Charles Smith, is also here; he is funny as ever. We see the number one tennis star of the day, Samuel Bacote and his charming wife, Roslyn McGhee. Mary Evans is secretary of the N. A. A. C. P. She is here with the President of the same organization, Robert Anderson. Incidentally, Delores Sturdivant is the "Mother of the Year", she and the kids are here, they really look well. Fannie Terrell, the principal of E. R. Carter School, is here with her handsome husband Alton Cherry. Rosetta Tillman is unable to attend because of important business at her Business College. Patricia King and Louise Sims are instructors of Physics at Spelman and Clark Colleges respectively. Evelyn Wilborn is not here, she is to deliver an address to the Georgia Teachers Association which is meeting in Atlanta. Frances Ellison is owner of a pet shop here, she is not able to witness the inauguration. Gwendolyn Greene is in business in California, she has a dance studio. Everyone that comes her way is guaranteed to learn to Samba. Barbara Green and Henrietta Phillips are here competing for the Marian Anderson award. Christine Colbert is owner of a bridal shop in Michigan. I heard one of her recent customer's was Alice Watkins. Alice Huston is instructor of Social Science at Bennett College, Edward Lawson is president of the same institution, they are here with Lessie Simmons, president of A. & T. College.

Well!! the inauguration is over and we have not heard a word. It really is swell to see, hear and think about former classmates.

CLASS WILLS

We, the seniors of B. T. W., will to the class of "54" the best that life can afford. With perfect intelligence, and a sound body, we hereby bequeath the following:

TEACHERS' QUOTES

BY HARVENIA HILL

Mr. L. H. Martin (To solid geometry class)--"We got three things to do today and we're going to do them all!"
Miss S. M. Cunningham (Trying to catch boy)--"Come here young man and close that door. Young man, do you hear me?"
Mr. L. R. Johnson (After all questions concerning the lesson have been answered)--"Tomorrow, we'll have a short intellectual inventory."
Mrs. R. C. Modiste (To radio English class)--"You should be in one of our radio plays down at "WERD."
Mr. C. C. Gaines--"You shouldn't go around with a covered wagon mind in the Atomic Age."
Mr. Dodson (To French class)--"Silence, Silence."
Miss E. S. Reed (To office helper)--"Come here honey, go find Mr. Bradley."
Mr. H. S. Powell (To careless girl at the wheel of the car about to hit something)--"You're going to stop the car aren't you?"
Mr. Golightly (Speaking to class disgustingly)--"Children, don't be so trifling, because I got mine and you got yours to get."
Mrs. I. G. Johnson (To homeroom class after reporting back)--"Count off children, who's missing?"
Mrs. G. M. Chaires (Trying to sell snacks to the pushing line of kids)--"Get in line and have your money ready. Who's next?"
Mr. W. H. Scruggs (Discussing the high cost of living with History class)--"Now take my television set for instance--Why it cost."
Mrs. L. P. Briscoe (To late student)--"Where're you coming from, friend?"
Mrs. E. M. Austell (To English class)--"We'll continue writing our short stories for a while."
Principal Cornell--"Fellow students of the Booker T. Washington High School..."
Mrs. Griggs--"Hello there."
Mr. Waples--"Now little girl be quiet!"
Mrs. Pullins--"Now that does make good sense."
Miss Love--"Don't you know?"
Mr. Rance--"Young lady, get out of that locker."
Mr. D. S. Thorpe--"Up where I come from...."
Mrs. Green--"Rip it out"
Mrs. Coggins--"Let me see it before you stitch it."
Mr. Wimby--"I'm through with it."
Mrs. Groves--"You are the worst group I have ever had."
Mrs. Barnett--"Refined people just don't act like that."
Mr. Rice--"Have you paid for your locker?"
Mr. Nelson--"Where is my book?"
