Foreword

All those who ever visited Washington High School but sing her praises! From her great past, prolific in memorable events, she has kept imposing significance. The Class of '56 no less will bask in the sunshine of this mighty fortress. No matter what we become or how varied the paths of life will lead us, we shall ever be part of this historical monument which would be hard to find elsewhere. Let us turn now to our part in this inspiration of days.

Dedication

Television has made popular a familiar program entitled, "I Remember Mama." Eventually, no doubt, someone will create a sequel called, "I Remember Mama and Papa." So often in the rush of things, we have lost sight of those who burden in the heat of the day that we may survive. In other words, it is our parents who were our first teachers. It is they who have given us warmth and encouragement, have shown us our reason for being, have comforted us when we have had trials, and have chastised us when we needed it.

Tomorrow's world will be brighter because of them. And in the work of building tomorrow's world, if we make occasional errors or stumble over some of our problems, there will be the shadow of those guiding hands bidding us to get up again to try anew. So to our parents we pay tribute by dedicating this Year Book as a memorial to them.

QUOTATIONS FOR SUCCESSFUL LIVING

"The only thing worth living for is the lifting up of our fellow men."

"Lay hold of something that helps you, and then use it to help somebody else."

"There are too many people in the world who give their whole lives grasping at the shadow instead of the substance."

"Every one's life is measured by the power that that individual has to make the world better—that is all life is."

"It is the wise individual who makes up his mind that life is not going to be all sunshine, that all is not going to be perpetual pleasure."

"A man is free just in proportion as he learns to live within God's laws, and he makes grievous mistakes and serious blunders the moment he departs from these laws."

"Books with all their contents, are not an end, but a means to an end, a means to help us get the highest, the best, the purest and the most beautiful things out of life."

"He who goes into the battle of life giving a smile for every frown, a cheery word for every cross one, and lending a helping hand to the unfortunate, is after all the best of missionaries."

"There is no state, there is no municipality, there is no power on earth, that can neutralize the influence of high, pure, simple and useful life. Every individual who learns to live such a life will find an opportunity to make his influence felt."

"Opportunities never come a second time, nor do they abide our leisure. (The years come to us but once, and swiftly pass on, bearing the ineffaceable record we put upon them). If we make them beautiful years, we must do it moment by moment as they glide before us."

"Success in life is founded upon attention to the small things nearest us rather than the things that are remote and uncommon."

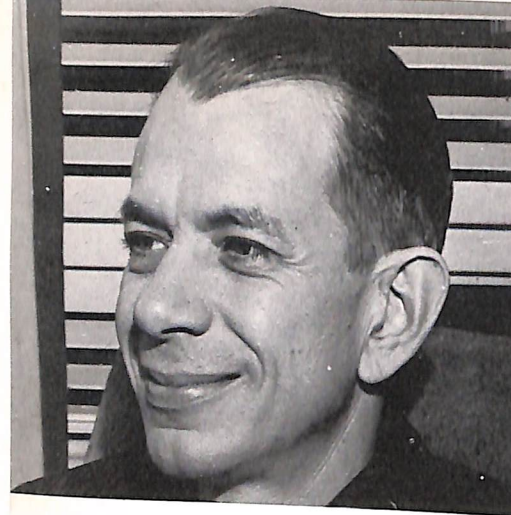

"We shall make our greatest progress by keeping our feet on the earth, and by remembering that an inch of progress is worth a yard of complaint."

CLASS HISTORY

by
RUTH COLEMAN
and
JOYCE NELSON

The morning of September 9, 1951 was a very exciting, momentous day for several hundred, courageous, yet reluctant little students, who entered the portals of the great Space Ship, Booker T. Washington. These little adventurers were little aware of the many surprises that would lie ahead in the five years to come on their journey to the moon (twelfth grade).

Fasten your safety belts. We are now ready for the take off. Away we go! Time has flown by and we have had a tiresome journey, but after many trials and tribulations, at last we approached the planet Mars (ninth grade). On Mars we became acquainted with teachers, classes, new friends and rules and regulations of the Ship. We also began assuming responsibilities for ourselves as well as others—inevitable yet enjoyable. Here we saw many strange and weird creatures, and boy, did we have a battle! These monsters had very odd names, Algebra, General Science, and Industrial Arts. We again boarded our Space Ship, and took off to another planet.

As three months passed we sailed through space, resting and recovering from our terrific ordeal with Mars. As we glanced into space we saw an oncoming planet, Jupiter (tenth grade). In our minds we wondered what it had in store for us. As we reluctantly left the Space Ship we were surrounded by many little creatures that we soon came to love and added to our class roster. Every thing seemed more of a reality now; many participated in extra-curricular activities—the band, the orchestra, the Boys Chorus, the Glee Club—while others went into various organizations of the ship. The sports proved popular this year more than ever before. The students displayed an increasing interest in the system, both in participation and in attendance. Although just a little fellow, John D. Lovejoy, won the mathematics contest. John had learned to master one of those monsters, and he did it exceedingly well. Under the guidance of our teachers, we began to learn the importance of acquiring skillful information for a successful and smooth journey ahead. We began striving toward our ideals and objectives. We realized our many opportunities and started working toward them.

As we traveled through

As we traveled through space many meteors and shooting stars made it a difficult journey, but we were determined to go on. Then came the planet Saturn (eleventh grade), the last step before reaching the moon. By this time we were not afraid of the oncoming adventures, for now we were a little older and wiser. Our scholarship, leadership, character, our self-seeking and seemingly insignificant ideas were being weighed, recorded and tabulated by our teachers, so as to provide adequate training for desired vocations. As juniors we felt more like accomplishing things, and entered into activities more wholeheartedly to gain the prestige we desired for the leadership we should take as seniors. It was about here that several new Space Ships came into existence and took away a number of our friends narrowing down the roster. Although many left, a number of new ones came.

All during our journey many students proved by their scholarship that they should be given special recognition and so they were organized into The C. N. Cornell Chapter of The National Honor Society. Barbara Lockhart made us very proud of her when she won the Elks Oratorical Contest. Barbara went from the state to the regional where she won a thousand dollar scholarship and then to the national. Although she did not win the latter, she had proved to be good at the job. Vernon Smith, reached out for a star and almost came back with one. He was elected president of the Student Body. Vernon gained another honor while reaching for the star—he became president of the Student Government Association of Georgia. We were very happy for him, for he achieved many outstanding things during our trip to Saturn.

After days of traveling, at last we approached the beautiful but difficult moon. Although our spirits were high, we had a difficult time. This was our last battle which would determine how much strength we had gained from our experiences on other planets. The basic training we had received had really paid off. We had much strength. After a normal summer we slid right into the groove of seniority, as if it had always been ours. Although we had come to the end of our journey, there were still some creatures that we had to fight off, Physics, Trigonometry, Human Biology and many others, but we fought on bravely and steadfast.

After reaching our destination, we elected as our queen the lovely Joyce Rankin. Vivian Welch was able to escape for a while and attend the Y-Teen Conference on the star Washington, D. C. As we wondered about the moon, we saw that Myrna Ellis had won the Betty Crocker award for the best homemaker on the B.T.W. During this year for the first time, we became a truly united group. In the month of March we elected for president and vice president respectively, Charles Adams and John Lovejoy; secretary, Winfred Jones; and Marcia Henderson, treasurer.

Victorious at last, we suddenly realized that the things we thought were enemies were friends all the time, friends who were preparing us for battle on the greatest planet of them all—the world.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of '56, being in good physical condition and sound mind, leave our most wordly possessions to the following persons, to wit:

I, Earlene White, will my Democratic Problems seat to Eleanor Knox and Peggy Drake.

I, Betty Cornelius, will my place in the Sextette to Francis Bebee.

I, Peggy Young, will my ability to get Trig to Huel Young.

I, Annie Lois Crouch, will my ability to Angler Johnson and Ruby Silvers to make good marks.

I, Evelyn King, will my ability to get Bookkeeping to Barbara Bailey and Loretta.

I, Edward Kemp, will to Bobby Wilson and all the boys with bad habits to reform and graduate from B. T. W.

I, Forrest Townsend, will all of the good things in life to Miss Rosa Smith.

I, Joel H. Robinson, will all of my abilities to any young man who is capable of them.

I, Lovie Morton, will to Sidney Daniels the best of everything in life, and to Loretta Gilbert the ability to become a sweet senior.

I, Mary Hunt, will my seat in Mr. Cleveland's Human Biology class to my brother Henry.

I, Julia Strozier, will to my nieces and nephews the ability to play all the girls and boys.

I, Verona Harper, being in sound mind and body, will to Barbara Warrior the ability to get the ethyl off her chest. To Mary Watts my most voluptuous shape, and to the Mignonetlos and Billy Boyd my 10 cents in the school bank.

I, Octavia Jones, being a peanut in every way, will to my sister Willene Jones the ability to get Geometry and Patricia Ann Sims the ability to tend to her business.

I, Carrie Washington, being of sound mind and sound body, will to Cora Ware my study hour in Miss Cunningham's class.

I, Listerine Harris, will my seat in Geometry to Howard Harris, my brother, if he is able to hold it.

I, Shirley Stroud, will to Vera Pope my seat in Mr. Gaines' Physics class and the ability to pass on his tests and to Rochele Myrick my nerve to take Miss Cunningham's ice cream as she dishes it out and then spit it back up.

I, Audrey Harris, will my seat in Miss Cunningham's class to Barbara Warrior and the ability to all the juniors to graduate.

I, Norma Ellington, will to Jean Miller my ability to graduate.

I, James Wilborn, will my band uniform to anyone who is capable.

I, Mildred Harp, will this to my sister in the ninth grade and eighth grade: Keep your mouth closed sometimes and you will be a big success, and to all of my girl friends the ability to get a boy friend like Joe Louis Jordan.

I, Joyce Rankin, do hereby will to Barbara Ann Winfrey my Crown as being "Miss Washington." To Judy Rogers and Jean Walker my ability to be friendly at all times, and to Marcia Beavers the ability to become a member of the "Royal Canadianette Club 25."

I, Constance Shepherd, will my seat in Mrs. Taylor's homeroom to Mirion Knox and also the ability to Louise McGlee to come to school every day.

I, Juanita Griffin, will to Richard Byrd my seat in Mr. W. H. Cleveland's class in Human Biology.

I, Bernice Gilstrap, will my beautiful red jacket to Altonia Wright.

I, Earline Jones, will my seat in Algebra V to Robert Jones.

I, Henrietta Reid, will to Barbara Chapell, James and Lester Reid the ability to get along with fellow students and teachers.

I, LaRue Wyatt, will my seat in Mr. Gaines' room to Lois Johnson.

I, Joyce Wilson, will my knowledge to Walter Wilson Jr. and my Physics seat to Frankie Chewing.

I, Gloria Jean Johnson, will to Mildred Lane the ability to take office practice so as to avoid making F's in physical education.

I, Gloria Skinner, being of sound mind and body, will to Shirlene Black my baton and hope she uses it to the best of her ability.

T. W. will bring him as much happiness as mine have brought me.

I, Ruth Coleman, will to my brother, Jennings Coleman, the ability to get along with my teachers, and my many troublesome hours in Trigonometry and Physics to anyone who desires them.

I, Charles Trammell, will to my brother George my ability to become Editor in Chief of the Washingtonian and the presidency of The C. C. "25." To Suzzon Grimes and Delores Davis my ability to make A in Social and Dem. Prob. and dear George the title of The Prez.

A CREED

There is A DESTINY that makes us brothers;

None goes his way alone:

All that we send into the lives of others

Comes back into our own.

I care not what his temples or his creeds,

One thing holds firm and fast—

That into his fateful heap of days and deeds

The soul of man is cast.

CLASS SONG

We're leaving you, Dear Washington
Our school we love so true;
Although we'll wander far away,
We'll always think of you.

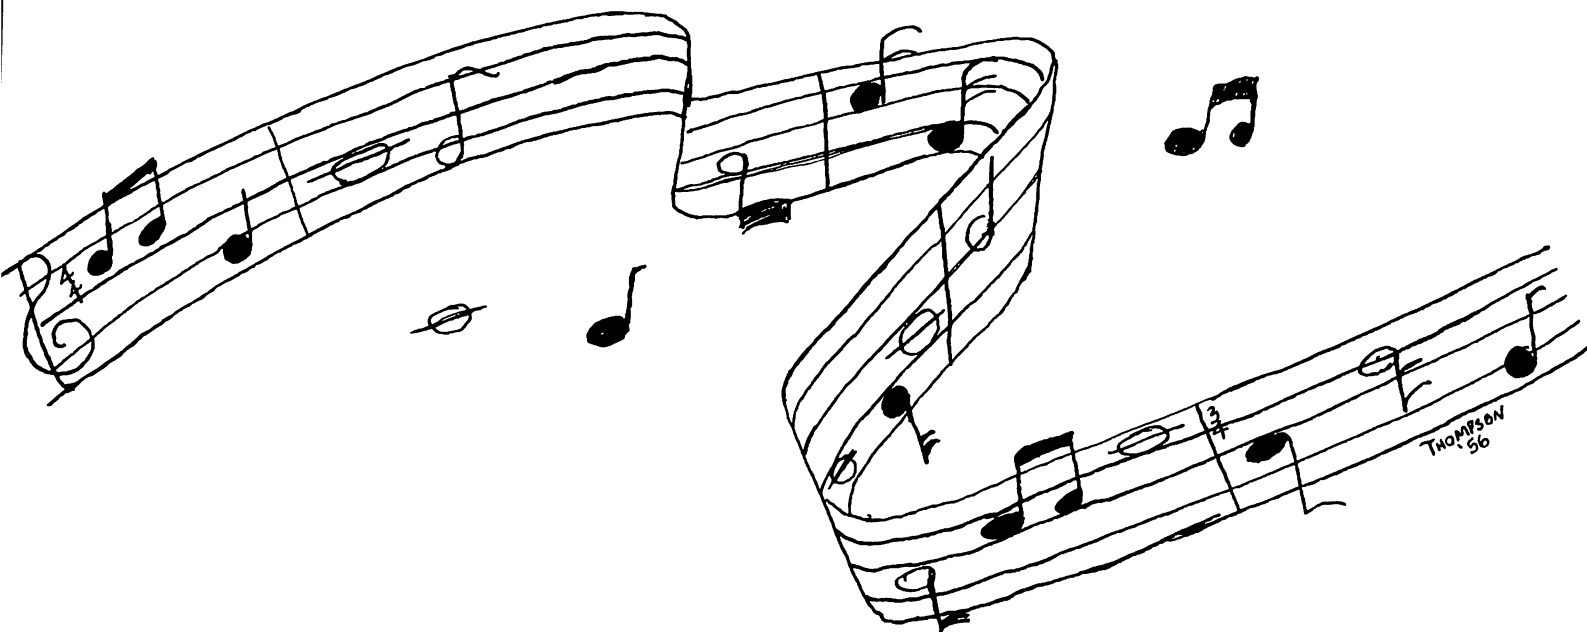

And now the time is drawing nigh,
When we shall say farewell;
The days and hours go swiftly by—
Soon here no more we'll dwell.

We've worked and tried to reach our goal,
And now our work is done;
We know as we start on life's road,
There are many battles to come.

'Though we may stray and wander far,
We'll ne'er forget this rule,
If we should live or should we die,
We'll ne'er forget our school.

"Hail, Washington High."

By HUGH ROBINSON

CLASS POEM

I

A thought has somehow entered our minds,
That we tried to put away
But, no matter how hard we tried,
The thought continued to stay.

II

This thought that we were thinking
Touched us so deeply inside
For we are leaving our beloved school,
And our feelings we could not hide.

III

But, as we began to stop awhile,
And see the brighter side of our thoughts
We realized that the love we have Captured here could somewhere else be caught.

IV

So B. T. W., we are ever grateful
For the way our thoughts came true.
We know that we must travel on,
But our hearts are still with you.

CLASS PROPHECY

By MARCIA HENDERSON AND WINFRED JONES

Good evening ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience. Tonight, June, 1966 is an unforgettable occasion in the lives of many of us. It is the opening night of the Atlanta Metropolitan Opera Company's popular opera, "Aida." Special guests for the evening are the members of the 1956 graduating class of the Booker T. Washington High School.

Guests are beginning to arrive and it will soon be getting crowded. As I look around I see many familiar faces. Coming in the door now, I see Marvin (Lump Plump) Williams, the great pro football player and he is with Jean Hammond, the exotic ballerina. They'll be getting married soon. Jean is wearing a lovely creation of Bernice Webb, noted Paris fashion designer. Incidentally, Bernice has her own dress shop in New York now.

As I look around in the audience, I see Prince Martin. You know he is the Principal of Washington High. He is talking with the two counselors, Bertha Middlebrooks and Annie Lois Crouch who are both working on their doctorates at Michigan University. Look who just walked in! It's Benjamin Cummings, President of Morehouse College, and his charming wife, the former Barbara Lockhart, who is Dean of Women at Spelman College. She also won the Journalism Award for '66. But look behind them! Do my eyes deceive me? Why it's Mr. and Mrs. George Holt with their three lovely little daughters. Yolanda was named "Mother of the Year" at E. A. Ware last month.

Here comes Ivan Willis. How are you Ivan? You know he is the owner of the fabulous "Hotel Atlantan" and the "Flamingo", Atlanta's newest night spot. Gloria Skinner, Myrna Ellis, and Norma Stovall are the featured dancers there. I hear that George Cofer, he is an occasional visitor there. Speaking of Cofer, he is now the owner of the Citizen's Trust Company on Hunter Street. What is this coming? It appears to be the U. S. Women's Air Corp. There's Loretta Abbott, Pearlina Barksdale, Mary Sue Melson, Mary Smith, and Charlotte King. Lucille Watson and Octavia Jones are now lieutenants and have received several gold medals for bravery.

They tell me that Martha Wolfe has her own gossip column in the Chicago Tribune. That's good. I guess everyone knows that Billy Browner was appointed the new Chief of Police yesterday.

There are quite a few dignitaries at a table on the extreme right. There's Hugh Robinson, the noted brain surgeon; and that's Marcia Henderson, the famous creative dancer he's with. I've been told that Marcia is to appear in the new Broadway musical, "Tinkle-bell." Also at this table I see Leroy Swift, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Dr. Vernon Smith and the great scientist, John Lovejoy, are here too. Vernon has established hospitals in three states and is completing plans for another. Lovejoy has just finished his latest invention and is waiting on a patent. On the end, there is Barbara Wright, the first woman governor of Georgia.

Guess who just walked in the door! Charles Trammell. Charles is the owner of a chain of publishing houses. He is with Barbara Jones, Home Economics instructor at Spelman College. With them are Wilmer Walker, the famous artist, and his wife, the former Winfred Jones, who is Counselor at the Juvenile Court and an outstanding columnist. Charles and Wilmer are also owners of the "Canadian Club," another of Atlanta's popular clubs. I see that Nathaniel Gholston, U. S. Senator is with us tonight.

Did you know that Casper Robinson is the new manager of Beaudry's new ultra-modern ten-floor parking lot? I have spotted Floyd Garfield, who is a TV technician for R.C.A. Victor. And there's Dorothy Jean Clemmons, Professor of Sociology at U.C.L.A. I see that Barbara Neal and Gloria Watts are here. They are keen Competitors for the Nobel Prize Award for '66.

There's Narissa Riley, Zoie Reynolds, Eddie Mae Poole, and Lovie Morton, who now hold government jobs at the United Nations Headquarters. I see Jeanette Allen, who is head of the dietetics department at Howard University, and Mary (Lula) Harris, who has just returned from Norway where the Olympics were held. Speaking of sports, Katie Pearl Young came in a few minutes ago. She has gotten back from Ohio where she won the All-American Tennis Award.

Attention is again turned to the door where Atlanta's playboys are. Michael Watson, Charles Bussie, Gartrell Walton, Robert Lee, Godfrey Gresham, and Elijah Ray are trying to spot some eligible girls. It seems that they have spotted Lynne Thompson and are they turning on the charm! Lynne has opened a ballet studio and is giving lessons to little girls. By the way, she's engaged. Eleanor Saunders is here too. She is the Physical Education instructor at Texas University.

They tell me that Eugene Maner is Conductor of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and that Harris Bostic, Rachel Burruss, David Collier, Barbara Fields, and the Ulysses Grant are all outstanding members of the Orchestra. Eugene is engaged in a conversation with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Days. Kenneth is one of Atlanta's leading attorneys, and his cute little wife, Juanita, is teaching kindergarten.

I hear that Metro-Goldwyn-Meyer is trying to make a difficult decision as to who is the Academy Award winner for '66, Suzan Haywood or Amesic Fears. Amesic recently signed a contract for her next picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Redd just came in. Melvin, I understand has been doing a great deal of traveling. I don't know what his occupation is, but evidently, he's doing well. His wife, the former Annette Harris, is presently teaching music at Atlanta Academy of Fine Arts. There's Vivian Welch who is the children's librarian at E. R. Carter School; and there's William Jackson, prominent businessman who is the owner of Sacs Fifth Avenue in New York.

We have many outstanding professional football players here and quite a few of them have been chosen on the "Outstanding Team of the Year." There's Rob Frank Holloway, Alphonso Camp, Lilton Griffin, Robert Jackson, and Charles Tatum. Marion Bailey, a former member of the team, is now Coach at Yale University.

Darwin Strickland is in the audience. He's the owner of almost every photography shop in the city. Mary Hunt, Betty Bolton, and Josephine Cosby are in New York on a business trip and they send their warmest regards to everyone.

It seems that the entire Atlanta Constitution staff is here tonight. The editor, Carlton Howell, the sports editor, Charles Warrior, society editor, Sylvia Adams, and the managing editor Weldon Barnard. Listerine Harris has just come in and is telling everyone of her latest adventures on her last trip to Italy. She travels quite frequently these days you know. Look who is coming this way! Katherine (Foxy) Daniel, who is one of Macy's buyers. I notice that Marcus Hudson, owner and manager of the new Springview Housing Projects is sitting next to Herman Smarr, Atlanta's newest dentist.

There is Gwendolyn Strong, Dean of Women at Clark College, Marjorie McClendon, President of the Gate City Teacher's Association, and Alice Freeland, Secretary of the Atlanta Urban League. I think I saw Edward Knox and Wallace Lowe a few minutes ago but they seem to have disappeared. Anyway, Edward is the Public Relations Director at the Atlanta Coca-Cola Bottling Company, and Wallace Lowe is editor of the Johnson Publications.

There are the fabulous cover girls—Barbara Collins, Fannie Curry, Annie Sue Martin, and Jerrie Davis. They are getting the eye of some of Atlanta's eligible bachelors—Phillip Rice, Joel Robinson, Herbert Scott, and John Thrasher. Forrest Townsend, is owner of every edition of the Pittsburg Courier in the U. S. Forrest is staring out into space at the moment. No, he isn't staring into space, he's staring at the fabulous Thelma Smoot. Gee whiz! If only you people in the radio audience could see that dress she's wearing. It's a knockout! Thelma is Conover's best model.

There are quite a few members of the Rocketts here who include Mary Willis, Eva Sherrell, Vera Bowen, Johnnie Alice Smith, and Verona Harper. Frances Craft, Dorothy Ann Reese, and Loretta Landers, instructors at Central State College are seen discussing the new project they are about to undertake. What project? Marriage! Kenneth Murray, the noted architectural engineer is talking with Annette McFarland, noted columnist for the Atlanta Journal. Gloria Johnson and June Dennis have arrived. Gloria is the popular dress designer at the new and ritzy dress salon owned by Angelo and Alva Bailey. June has been modeling them but has decided that she wants an exciting life full of adventure and is planning a trip to Cuba.

I hear music in the air! Sure, it's the "Tune Twisters"—Geraldine Harris, Ruth McAfee, Delores Walker, and Ladine Houston. I see Mary Armstrong in the audience. She has been chosen Atlanta's "Teacher of the Year." She is talking with two of her old friends Mary Barnett who is head of the English Department at Ohio State, and Barbara Harris, who is Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P.

Well as I observe the door again, I see Virginia Clark—and isn't she chic? Look whom she's with! Walter Glover, the new owner of the "Waluhaji." Maybe it's no surprise to some of you who have seen them cruising in Walter's new '66 yellow convertible. Hold it kids! Here comes Charles (Red) Kenner, who is now playing baseball with the Brooklyn Dodgers. And I see Joe Hudson, Vincent Gomillion, Roosevelt Simmons, Benny Mitchell, and Clarence Jeffries are also here. They are scheduled to appear at the Cabanna Club in the near future. Vincent is also doing a few TV shows.

Let's look around in the balcony and see who's there. I have spotted Lela Allen, Lorine Penn, Stella Lowe, and Gwendolyn Holmes, who are instructors at Washington High School. I also see the famous B.T.W. Coach, George (Duke) Guilford, who has led his boys to many victories. There is Marian Buford, the Girls' Basketball Coach at Tuskegee.

Attention has been turned to the door again. Frederick Barker, owner of the Power's Model Agency in New York, is entering with two of his top models—

Joyce Nelson and Delores Bailey. Delores designs many of their clothes. In comes Joyce Rankin. She has just returned from the West Coast where she was crowned "Miss America." She is also a pediatrician at Mayo.

I'd like to stop here and make a few announcements about some of the members of the class who will not be present tonight. We received a telegram from Frank Lowrie who couldn't be here tonight because of his job. He is a civil defense engineer in the nation's capital. Clarence Robinson is unable to attend because of his European Concert Tour. Carolyn Jenkins couldn't be with us tonight because she had to speak at the Yale University graduation. We're so sorry that these members of the class could not be with us tonight, but we are happy and proud to know that they are doing well in their chosen professions.

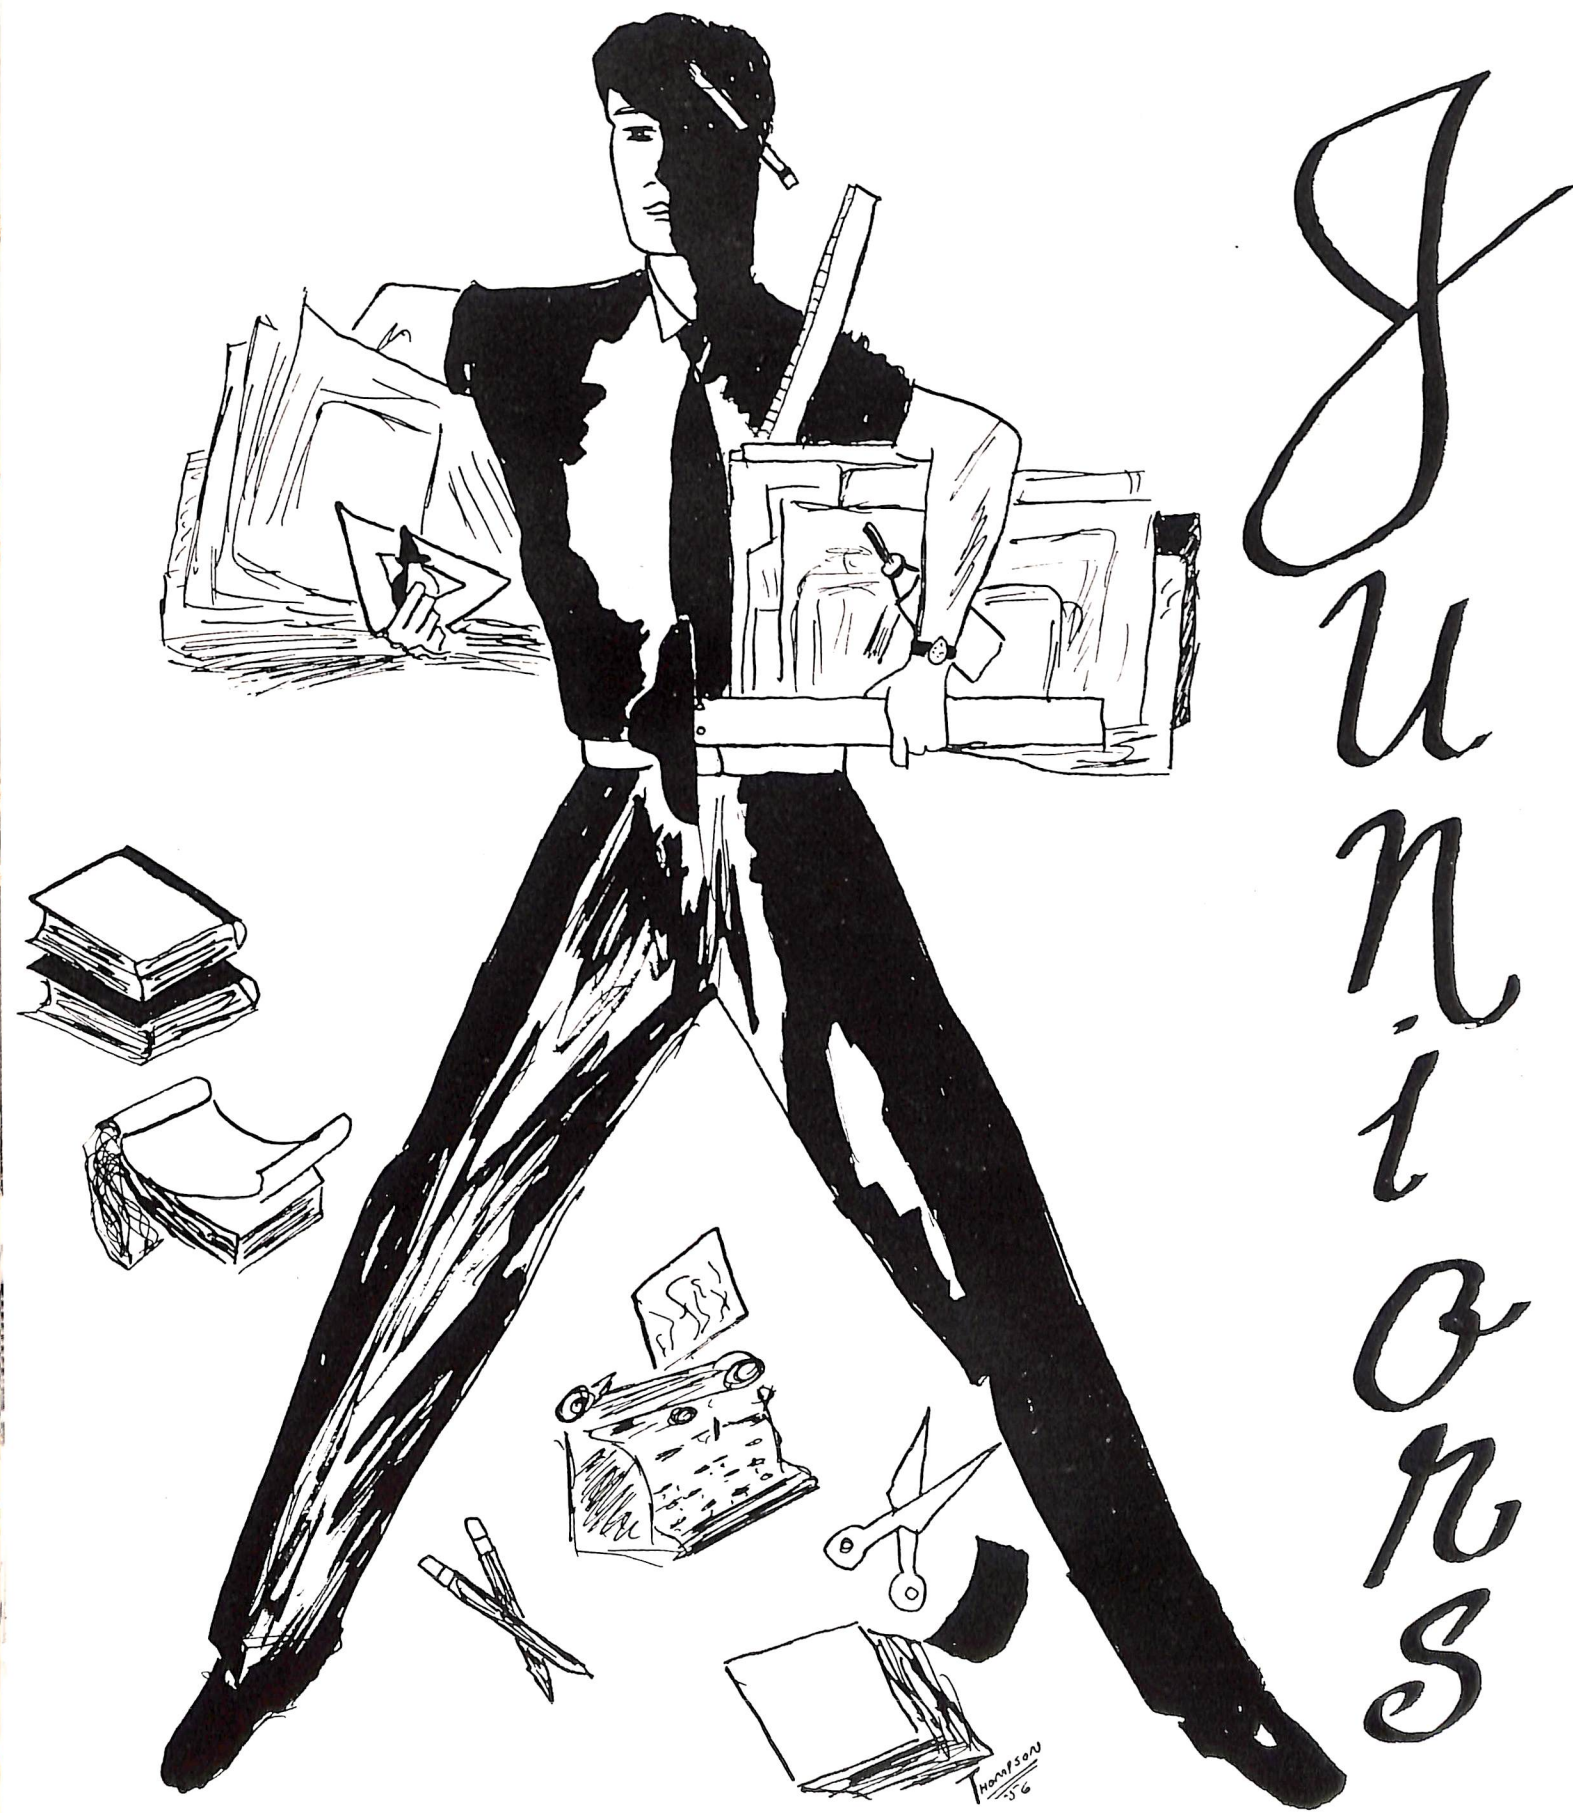

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kemp just came in. Kemp has been in California where he is the club emcee at the Moulin Rouge. His wife, the former Norma Ellington, just returned from Paris where she filmed her current release "Go Back Little Reba." They are seen talking with Carolyn Tidwell, a famous Professor at Radcliffe College. She has also made an outstanding contribution to the Atomic Molecular Theory.

There are two prominent ministers in the audience too. Robert Sullivan and William Price. I see Don Lovingood took enough time out from his work to come tonight. You see, he is the new owner of Birdland. He brought his wife, formerly Ethelene Hall who is the owner of a fabulous dress shop in New York. Speaking of New York, Irene Satterwhite is now John D. Rockefeller's private secretary. Keep up the good work kid. Henrietta Reid is now arriving. She recently won the Betty Crocker "Homemaker of the Year Award." Speaking of homemakers, there are a number of housewives in the audience. There's Mary Taylor, Jacquelyn Anderson, Bernice Gilstrap, Evelyn King, Claudette Jackson, Mildred Harp, and Caressa Martin.

The guests of honor are now arriving. I thought it was about time. Charles (Mickey) Adams, the President of the United States and Ruth Coleman, Vice President. They were running on the Republican ticket. Some of the members of the Cabinet include Melvyn Spence, Secretary of State, Phillip Rice, Secretary of the Treasury, and Thomas Brown, Secretary of Agriculture. All of these special guests are being seated at a special table near the stage.

The great TV personalities, Pleamon Maddox and Nancy Lucas are here. They have their own show which is packed with laughs and drama. Recently on one of their programs, their guest star was No, not Perry Como, but Walter Pitts. There are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mims tonight? They are late as usual because Blanche had to put the children to bed. Otis is a TV technician now. Doris Pope and Willena Berry are Atlanta University's librarians and haven't come yet. Robert Lyons is the new owner of Amos Drug Store.

In the audience, I also see Lamar Goggins, the new owner of Rich's in Atlanta, Macy's in New York, and Field's in Chicago. That fellow went to work, didn't he? Some of his very efficient salesmen are Roston Robinson, Melvin Tiller, Preston Parks, and James Wilborn. Oh yes, Brenda Cox is here too. She is a dress designer and owns a little shop on Peachtree Street.

I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU

Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say—
"I know something good about you!"
And treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy
If each handclasp fond and true,
Carried with it this assurance—
"I know something good about you!"

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
That folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If we praised the good we see?
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me!

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking too?
You know something good about me,
I know something good about you?

A SMILE

Let others cheer the winning man,
There's one I hold worth while;
'Tis he who does the best he can,
Then loses with a smile.

Beaten he is, but not to stay
Down with the rank and file;
That man will win some other day,
Who loses with a smile.

OPTIMISM

Talk Happiness. The world is sad enough Without your woes. No path is wholly rough;
Look for the places that are smooth and clear,
And speak of those, to rest the weary ear
Of Earth, so hurt by one continuous strain
Of human discontent and grief and pain.

Talk faith. The world is better off without
Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt.
If you have faith in God, or man, or self,
Say so. If not, push back upon the shelf
Of silence all your thoughts, till faith shall come;
No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

Talk health. The dreary, never-changing tale
Of mortal maladies is worn and stale.
You cannot charm, or interest, or please
By harping on that minor chord, disease.
Say you are well, or all is well with you,
And God shall hear your words and make them true.

The Washington Bulldogs, fighting all the way, wound up the season with 3 wins, 3 ties and 2 losses. The team came back this year with a new spirit that really contributed to its success. Although the boys were "green" this year, the determination and fight paid off in full value when the odds were against them.

We have high hopes for the "Varsity Team" of next season. The school is sorry that we will lose twenty players due to graduation. The Senior Class wishes the best of luck to both players and coaches for next year.

THE "B" TEAM

An Education Offers Greater Opportunities

DID YOU EVER HEAR A 16-YEAR-OLD GIRL CRY HERSELF
TO SLEEP BECAUSE SHE COULDN'T GO ON TO COLLEGE
WITH HER HIGH SCHOOL CLASSMATES?

When your daughter is ready for college, will you be ready—financially? A perplexing question, isn't it?

She is making ready for college NOW! Each lesson and each yearly upward move from grade to grade is part of her preparation—so it is likely you have asked yourself: What am I doing to make ready?

In anticipating increasing costs of a college education, the Atlanta Life has devised a "make-ready" plan which can end your worry over the college fund problem—in addition to bringing joy to the heart of your daughter or son.

Ask one of our representatives to come and talk over the plan with you. He will doubtless be able to save you many dollars, and do a more effective job of assuring you and your loved ones of future financial security.

DON'T DELAY — DO IT TODAY!
