FOREWORD

The lamp of knowledge burns continuously, symbolizing unending change as the fumes of Education spread before us a world of ideas and understanding. This true enrichment gives us an insight into the awareness of the past, an acceptance of historical continuity, and a concern for the future.

The 1960-1961 Washingtonian mirrors an account of one phase of our lives and reflects our participation in present-day events surrounding our high school days.

IN MEMORIAM

The death on February 28, 1961 of Mr. William "Bill" Bradley, a dear friend, has been lamented by the entire Washington High School Family, but we rejoice in the fact that we were privileged to know him and to share his companionship, instruction, and devotion. Contact with his spirit of friendliness, great sense of humor and breadth of vision have made us all the richer and thus, the memory of him shall abide with us always.

We feel pride in Mr. Bradley's influence upon the lives here at Washington High School, upon the lives in the community, and upon the lives of hundreds of former students and graduates who are now in all parts of the world. We hold in affectionate remembrance his services to our school.

ALTHOUGH THE CURTAIN FALLS

There comes a time for all of us
When we must say good-bye,
But faith and hope and love and trust
Can never, never die.
Although the curtain falls at last,
Is that a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past
If only we believe.
And trust in God's eternal care—
So when the Master calls
Let's say that life is still more fair
Although the curtain falls.

CLASS POEM THE SENIOR CLASS PRAYER

Dear Lord, to Thee we come today
With our school-parting prayer;
We ask that with us Thou will stay,
As we go here and there.
Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee,
For the learning that we have received,
From the wonderful teachers at Washington High
Whom we much regret to leave.
When the last senior of '61' has departed
God will be with us, we know;
But memories will still linger behind us,
As other classes come and go.
Guide us, the Senior Class of '61,
Watch o'er us from day to day,
Keep us loyal, kind and cheerful
Make us more like Thee, we pray.
Amen

Class Prophecy

June 1, 1971.

While sitting in this luxurious suite of the Hilton Inn, I began to think of what had happened the night before. It was hard to believe, but it's true! Last night, Rosebud Dixon, a graduate of the class of '61 and who is now a star of Metropolitan Opera, was presented in concert at the Municipal Auditorium. It was a stellar performance, with "big names" from all over the world in attendance. After the concert, there was a class reunion at the country estate of the former Myra Hart. It was grand!

Claude Smith, you know, has become one of the greatest television announcers of today. He did a splendid job as master of ceremonies. I recall his very words; he said with much flourish, "Mr. and Mrs. America, tonight you will witness one of the most magnificent affairs of the twentieth century. Before your very eyes will pass some of the world's most outstanding individuals. Among these eminent people will be the 1961 class of Booker T. Washington High School."

I had arrived early at the Auditorium and there were very few persons there at the time. But I did see Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilson. Ronald is owner of the Wilson Realty Company, and his wife, the former Wyllina Marsh, is a teacher. While talking with them, Mr. and Mrs. Billy White and the John Pattersons joined us. Billy is an electrical engineer, and his wife, formerly Mary Sims, is a renowned pianist who had just completed a tour of Europe. John is a brain surgeon at the Mayo Clinic, and Mrs. Patterson, formerly Marian Strickland, is a mathematics teacher. They informed me that Louis Smith, Governor of California, and his first lady, Charlotte Ellis, were unable to attend because of a last minute trip to Hawaii.

It still was not curtain time, so I walked around. I talked with Sandra Daniel, Patricia Alford, and Loretta McClendon who are models for Bazaar; I also enjoyed a chat with Lera Webb, Marilyn Davis, and Catherine Williams who told me about their work as models for Charm. We then started gabbing with Jimmy Pearson, President of General Motors; Theodore Pollock, Connoisseur of Italian Wines; Bobby Pittman, architectural engineer; and Ronald Ross, owner of Esquire Magazine.

Major and Mrs. Robert Albritton arrived with Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Jones. Robert is an authority on music in the United States Air Force; Mrs. Albritton, the former Audrey Christler, is studying for her Ph. D. degree in technology. Bishop is a football coach at U. C. L. A. while his wife, who reigned as "Miss Washington" of '61, the former Barbara Holliday, was crowned "Miss Universe" of 1965.

Talking an "unknown language"—to me—were Robert Barber and Sanse Fitzpatrick. They have received the Nobel Prize in science for their work on furthering the discovery of the Cobalt bomb.

Speaking of prizes, Patricia Good, a superb novelist, has won the Pulitzer Prize for her latest novel, Forbidden Dreams, which sold over a million copies in two months. I remember about two years ago, Gwendolyn Tiller, correspondence reporter in Italy, won the same prize for an excellent series of articles done on the displaced children there.

Curtain time was announced, so everyone proceeded to his seat. On the way, I overheard two couples whose voices were very familiar. I discovered them to be President of the United States, Harry McTerry, and his charming wife, Doris Beebee, and Senator and Mrs. Reuben Bussey of Rhode Island. Mrs. Bussey is the former Carolyn Delaney. In five minutes time, I had been briefed on the lives of Quinnie Smith and Veola Momon, who now live in Nevada. I also learned that Annetta Calhoun is living in Chicago, where she is a nurse.

I looked over and saw Shirley Grier, a concert pianist, but I did not have the opportunity to talk with her, nor with Carol Harper and Macauley Washburn, for the lights were then dimmed and there was no time to chat. A hush came over the audience, and Rosebud appeared on stage. She really sang last night! There was a short intermission, during which I learned that Macauley is a criminal lawyer in Los Angeles and Carol is his secretary.

The lights were again dimmed and so the concert continued. Rosebud was magnificent. The concert ended and as we all passed out to the lobby, I saw Barbara Beasley, Jacqueline Fulton, and Geraldine Banks, all of whom have become famous Italian designers.

Leaving the Auditorium, I remembered hearing Claude announce that this was one of the greatest opening nights in Atlanta. Silently, I agreed with him.

Class Song

By the time I had reached the Conley Estates, almost everyone was there. I immediately saw the hostess, Myra, who is Dean of Spelman College. With her was Sidney Boney, whom I had not seen in some time. He is a financier and Wall Street broker. We talked and he told me that his cousin, Jimmy Strong, and his wife, the former Ardena Jones, are living in New York. Jimmy and Freddie Banks are both professional baseball players, and Ardena is a nurse. Soon the former Delores Turner, Shirley Bolton, and Sandra Jessie joined us. Delores has recently been appointed as ambassador to Spain; Shirley is a psychologist in San Francisco; and Sandra is a laboratory technologist at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

Marilyn Holt was just arriving. She is editor of the New York Daily Times. On her staff is Roberta Berrien, who is sports editor and also basketball coach at Le-Moyne College.

Ruth Davis, Bernice McGhee and Jacqueline Milner are social workers in Kansas. They stood talking to Arnisha Turner and Diane Middlebrooks, who are teachers at Fisk University. Jacqueline Hunter is a biology teacher in Washington, D. C. As I looked around the room, I saw Ollie Lee and Albert Wilson. Ollie has been named "Miss Charm" for this year, and Albert is a millionaire playboy.

Dr. Marcia Johnson, an obstetrician, appeared to have been talking medicine with Dr. Bobby Dickens, a dentist. Patricia Thornton is a translator at the United Nations. She told me Gwendolyn Wright and Willie Hammonds are in France for the spring. Joe Allen, Wilbert Solomon, Calvin Hill and John Holland are professional football players.

I sighted Constance Moore, a television model, who was talking to Rosa Watson, Patricia Albert, and Gwendolyn Ledbetter. Rosa and Patricia are both marriage counselors and Gwen is a research chemist and biologist.

Carolyn Harp, Carrie Dennis, and Gloria James arrived together. They are partners in a chain of department stores throughout America. Carolyn informed me that Mattie Brown is executive secretary to the president of M & M Studios. Delores Griggs, whom I haven't seen in over five years, chatted with me for several minutes. She is professor of biology at Purdue University.

Just returning from Newport is Lawrence Williams, who, with his combo, has just completed an engagement. Musically speaking, Joseph Taylor has joined Count Bassie's band, and Lawrence Vaughn is now director of music for the U. S. Marine Corps.

Jean Wright, JoAnn Calloway and Gwendolyn Marks are elementary school teachers. Ermer Matthews is teaching in Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters are talking with Irby Logan. Thomas is a music instructor at Tennessee A. and I. University, and Mrs. Walters, the former Patricia Johnson, is a teacher in Nashville. Irby is an artist for Post Magazine.

Stewart Carroll and Lewis Calloway are mechanical engineers in Denver. Just before the party ended, I had a chat with the hostess, who told me that her cousin, Sandra Hart, is currently a gymnastic teacher. Myra also told me an incident which was quite surprising to her. While in New York once, she decided to see a play on Broadway. Imagine her surprise when "Hamlet" turned out to be James Elliott, and the leading lady was Juanita Jones. Elliott is a leading Broadway actor and Juanita has had quite a few hits on Broadway and Hollywood.

The next morning I slept until 11:30 A.M. My! I had to rush to make my luncheon date at 1:30. I made it and was seated with Daniel Thorpe. He is the executive vice president at the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. Danny told me that Charles Willis, George Ferrell, and Robert Miller are test pilots for the United States Air Force. How surprising!

I understand Byrdene Stanley has become a vocalist and Gloria Smith is a vocalist and novelist. They are vacationing in South America. The class of 1961 has really progressed! I am very proud of the success of my classmates.

As I boarded the plane for Connecticut and my job as a lawyer, I again thought of the party, concert, and the reunion. Everything was grand, and memories will linger of the class of '61.

DEAR ALMA MATER

O Dear Alma Mater
With praise we honor thee
Our school we love so very dear
Salutes to you from far and near
To you, Dear Alma Mater
We give to thee today
Armed with the truths of learning
We start on life's highway.

O Dear Alma Mater
The years have passed away
Our teachers tried to do their best
To help us find the road, "Success"
Although we hate to leave you
And yet we have to go
We never shall forget thee
Now and forevermore.
