The Washingtonian

Foreword

The Class of 1964 was born into an age that has constantly sought peace—yet there has hovered over us the struggle against the “common enemies of mankind: tyranny, poverty, disease, and war itself.” This is not unique, for history records similar privations. Each age seeks the wise words and actions of constructive leaders. The following truisms give us food for thought.

“The spirit of man is immortal,
Its deeds die not,
And they condition its being.”

—M. Gandhi: Songs From Prison

“In the long history of the world, only a few generations have been granted the role of defending freedom in its hour of maximum danger. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation. The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world.”

—J. F. Kennedy: Inaugural Address

“When we let freedom ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all God’s children will be able to join hands and sing, in the words of the old Negro Spiritual,

Free at last,
Free at last
Thank God Almighty,
We are free at last.

—M. L. King: I Have a Dream

An important and memorable segment of our lives is presented in this 1964 Year-book. We hope that we will prove worthy of all that Washington High School has meant to us in helping us to develop a philosophy of life which includes noble ideals and wise actions.

Words of Wisdom

Dreams

"The visions of a busy brain."
Joanna Baillie

"The fickle pensioners of Morpheus' Train."
Milton

"Our waking dreams are fatal."
Young

"A change came o'er the spirit of my dream."
Byron

"A dream itself is but a shadow."
Shakespeare

"Yet eat in dreams, the custard of the day."
Pope

"Sleep brings dreams; and dreams are after most vivid and fantastical before we have yet been wholly lost in slumber."
Robert M. Bird

"Dreams are excursions into the limbo of things,
a semi-deliverance from the human prison."
Amiel

"Our dreams drench us in sense, and sense steepens us again in dreams."
A. Bronson Alcott

"But dreams full off are found of real events the form and shadows."
JoAnna Baillie

"In waking whispers and repeated dreams, to hint pure thoughts and warn the favored soul."
Thomson

"Dreams are like portraits; and we find they please because they are confessed resemblances."
Crabbe

"Every-one turns his dreams into realities as far as he can;
man is cold as ice to the truth,
hot as fire to falsehood."
LaFontaine

"We are such stuff as dreams are made on, and our little life is rounded with a sleep."
Shakespeare

Dedication

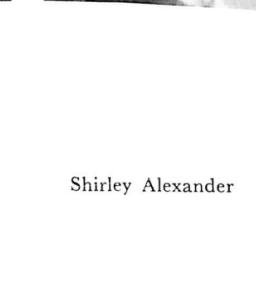

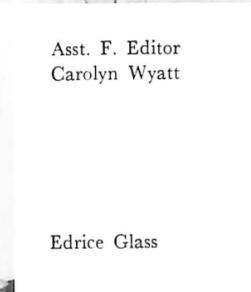

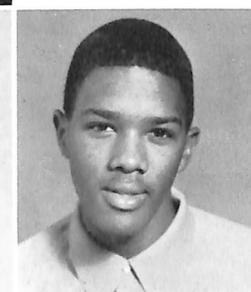

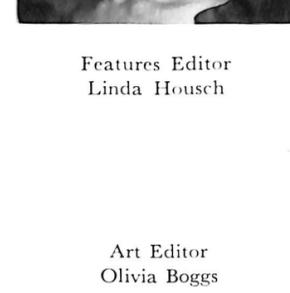

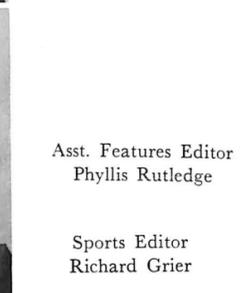

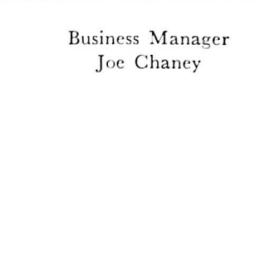

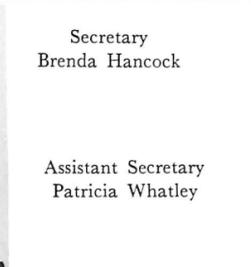

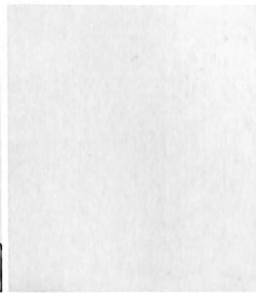

There have been causes and crises throughout the history of America. These conditions have resulted from the "American dream." At crucial moments in our history, leaders have come forth and have given the proper push that has made the country move again. This truism has been aptly put in a recent commentary: "From our fallen leaders the mantle of leadership is quickly retrieved and placed upon the shoulder of another in the vanguard of the dedicated."

America has always been a growing nation, carved out of a wilderness, ever pioneering. Even in the formative, critical years of our young nation, America showed growth, acquired reputation for excellence, and dependability. This is our nation's heritage.

The Senior Class of 1964 dedicated this Yearbook to our great leaders, living and dead, who have contributed their part in keeping America moving toward its dream. We accept the challenge, symbolized by the eternal flame. This is our America—We pledge our part now and in the future in helping in the fulfillment of those democratic principles which have become the warp and woof of the nation.

Washington - Alma Mater

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide,
For learning, fame, renown and gain
Our gratitude abides.
As long as God's eternal love
Shall hold their portals wide
For God and man in every hand
We'll serve for Washington.

CHORUS

Washington! Oh Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide
For God and man in every land
We'll live for Washington.

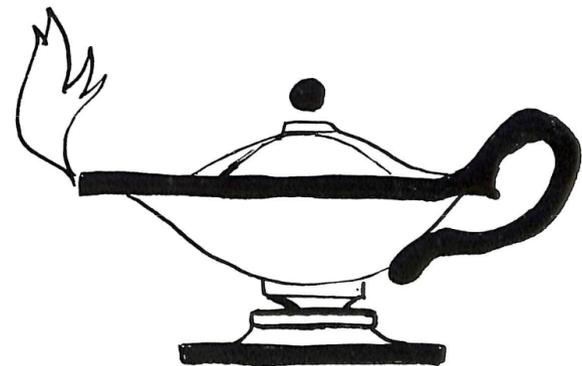

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall never die
Our hearts are thine, thy fame shall shine
O'er earth and sea and sky.
Thy halls shall echo memories,
Thy precepts reign sublime,
Where'er we roam, where'er our home
We'll live for Washington.

Dear Alma Mater, keep our hearts
In dear old Washington
A band of loving schoolmates we
Will live for Washington.
"Vincit qui se vincit"
The lesson thou hast taught
We trust the future may perfect
The work thy hands have wrought.

Washington! O Washington!
March on to victory
For honor bright 'gainst wrong for right
Spread learning everywhere.
"Truth, purity" thy blue and white
With banner held unfurled
Great deeds we'll dare: Do each his share
We'll die for Washington.

THE GRAHAM JACKSON AWARD
As It Appears In Our Trophy Case

This award is donated annually by Mr. Graham W. Jackson, nationally known musician, and is presented to the Washington High School Senior who excels in music. Mr. Jackson's purpose in making this presentation is to encourage students to develop a deeper interest in piano and other musical instruments. To qualify for the award, the student must appear in at least one recital, be active in his church, and play two or more instruments, in addition to being a good school citizen. This is the twenty-second consecutive year Mr. Jackson has given this award to a Booker T. Washington High School Senior.

Class Song

by Arlan Mitchell

Class Song

Washington! O Washington!
Now that all our work is done,
Time has come, new tasks begun,
Yet we'll cherish thee.

Washington! O Washington!
As we leave you, dear,
In our hearts we'll always love you,
And may God above
Protect you with His love.

Washington! O Washington!
How we've loved your halls so true,
Teachers, parents, students, too,
All have helped us through.

Washington! O Washington!
As we leave you, dear,
In our hearts we'll always love you,
And we pledge anew
To serve our nation true,
Love our Brothers,
Live for others,
Thus we'll honor thee.

By
Arlan Mitchell

Class Poem

Some years ago with happy hearts
Within these walls we came;
New experiences we were to find
Fertile soil for the body and mind.
Into its earth we tried our roots
And turned ourselves to its rays
Of abundant knowledge of proven ways
To answer our questions and problems resolve:

What verb to use
What pattern to choose,
How solutes dissolve,
How planets revolve

And thus became the test of our might
At study all day and work all night
To produce fruit from our now barren boughs
By cultivation of our minds and the sweat of our brows;
So went the task from year to year
Sadness there, happiness here,
Moments of elation times of sorrow,
Periods of activity, sometimes rest,
But always "burning midnight oil"
Just before a test.

Successfully we passed those trying years
In modesty, I think we're due three cheers,
For during that time we were called "Unstable"
Yet we have shown that we were able
To produce some fruit from that barren bough
To guide our course from then to now

To amend our ancient goods
To convince ourselves we understood
That within these hallowed walls we find
Teachers of knowledge, not monsters of mind.

From these halls we now ascend
To higher levels we must aspire;
Many different goals we will pursue
Dear Alma Mater, "Adieu!"

"Beauty is truth, truth is beauty."

Charm, poise, dignity—true queens.

"What is lovely, never dies."

"All is beauty."

"There is beauty all around our paths."

"I've got it in the bag."

"She walks in beauty."

"I'm so happy."

The Royal Family.

"Beauty and Virtue shine forever around thee."

Surrounded by the Grade Queens and last year's Miss Washington, Miss Washington of 1963-64 has ascended the throne.

The end of a perfect evening.

Three of the beautiful Homecoming Queens catch their breath before dancing the next round.

"Let's sit this one out, folks!"

Miss Washington and some of the members of her court breathe a silent prayer for a long awaited victory.

The reigning beauties, Miss Washington and the grade queens.

Hold that line, get that ball and don't let them score. "Girl Dogs!!"

The girls at their best.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

"We shall do our best, Bette."
