THE WAYFARER

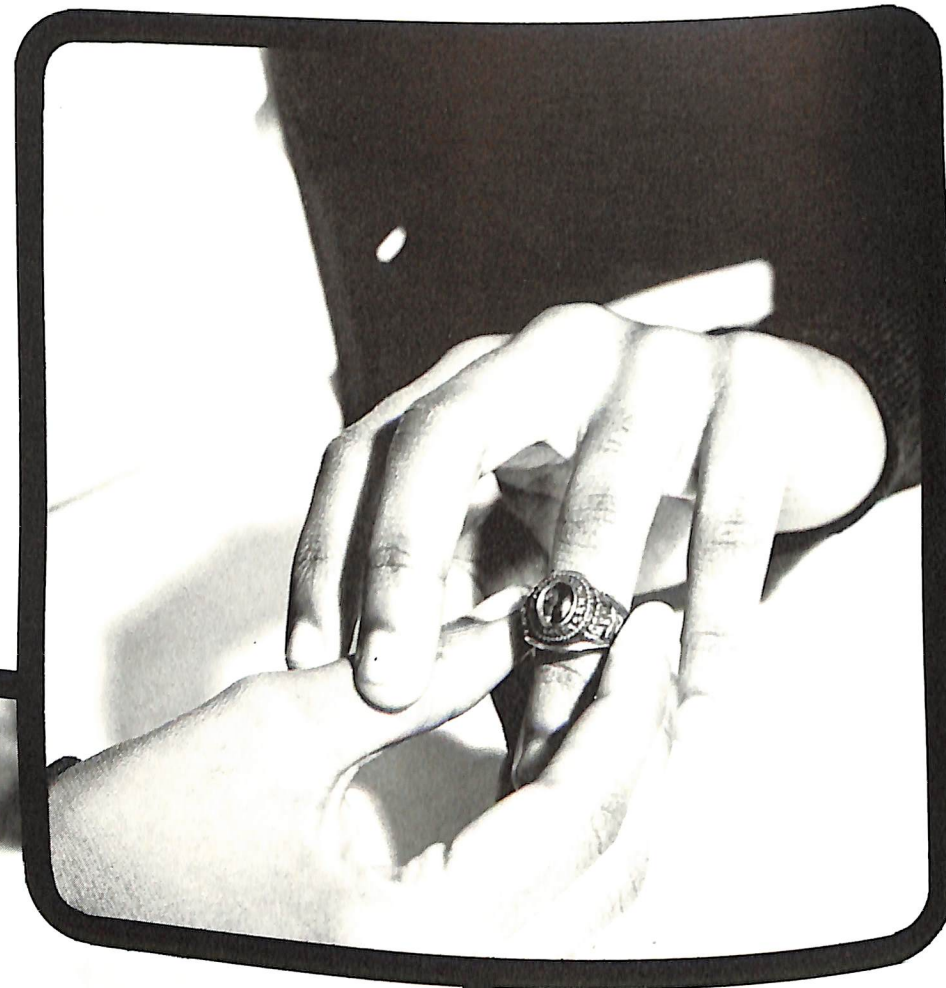

The wayfarer,
Perceiving the pathway to truth,
Was struck with astonishment.
It was thickly grown with weeds.
"Ha," he said,
"I see that no one has passed here
In a long time."
Later he saw that each weed
Was a singular knife.
"Well," he mumbled at last,
"Doubtless there are other roads."

DEDICATION

The 1973 Washingtonian is dedicated to a person who has worked to become an individual; a person who has challenged this society and said, "Let me be a part"; a person who has demanded the best; a person who is going to change this world, to make it a better place for all. This person is the future leader of the world. The Washingtonian is dedicated to You.

I do my thing
And you do you your thing.
I am not in this world
To live up to your expectations
And you are not in this world
To live up to mine.
And if by chance
We find each other
It's beautiful.

The Class of "73" To You, Our Washington

(Class Poem) (Class Song)

This is dedicated to the Class of "73",
To a group of brothers and sisters united,
Who compose a class of pride, dignity, and self-respect.
This is the Class of "73".

When looking through the windows,
The windows of your mind,
It is most difficult for me
To express the things that I find.
There's smog and fog,
Pollution, revolution, and resolution,
And the explosion of a time bomb.

Today the world is in a desperate situation.
Stealing, dealing, fighting—
It's nothing but corruption,
We are all aware of things as they stand,
And today our life is in the hands
of the "pusherman".

But we the "Class of '73",
With all our pride and dignity,
With outstanding leadership and courage,
We can endure the problems of a disturbed nation.
With a willingness and determination to overcome
We can open the eyes of America and let them know just where we're coming from.

Written by: Karen M. Toliver

Mr. R. L. Robertson,
Senior Class Advisor

In a mist of dreams we found a place where there was good in a world, a world for us.
You have brought us through those gloomy days when we had lost our way, we'd given up.
And all our praises we give to you . . .
To you, Our Washington.

You have shown the light to what is right through all the love you give, oh yes you have.
You have shown us how to make our world a better place to live, a better place.
And all our praises we give to you . . .
To You, Our Washington.

We have strengthened at your mass desire.
Strong, great qualities we have acquired.
Vast potentials we have now attained.
All in our hearts remain.

Oh but now the time has come when we must say our last farewell, we say goodbye.
We must put an end to what has been a vital part of our lives, we wonder why.

But all our love we give to you . . .
To You, Our Washington.
But all our love we give to you . . .
To You, Our Washington.

by Janice Lee Arnold

The class of 1973 would like to thank
Mr. R. L. Robertson for the many hours of service given to our class. He has worked diligently with us through our junior and senior years to guide us in the right paths. He has helped us to obtain those things that were essential,
and the things we've merely desired.
We deeply appreciate your every effort to make this the best class ever.

I've been scarred and battered.
My hopes the wind done scattered.
Snow has friz me, sun has baked me.
Looks like between 'em
They done tried to make me
Stop laughin', stop lovin', stop livin'
But I don't care
I'm still here!

But need not be spoken.

LEARN TODAY - TO LEAD TOMORROW

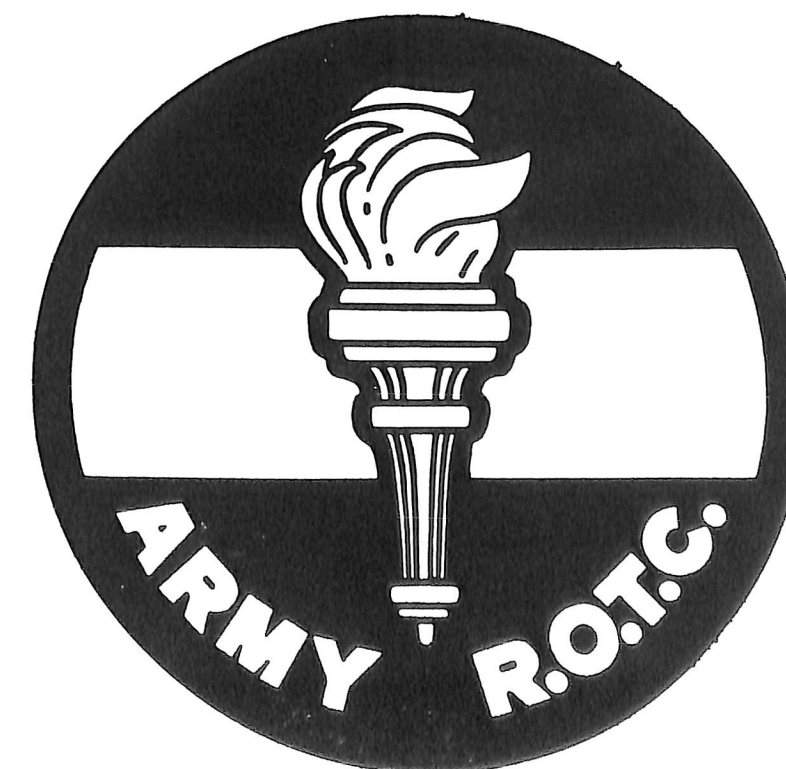

SET YOUR GOALS HIGH, SENIORS; WALK NOT IN THE SHADOWS OF OTHERS.

BUT IN THE DIRECTION OF THE FUTURE, NOT IN THE PAST.

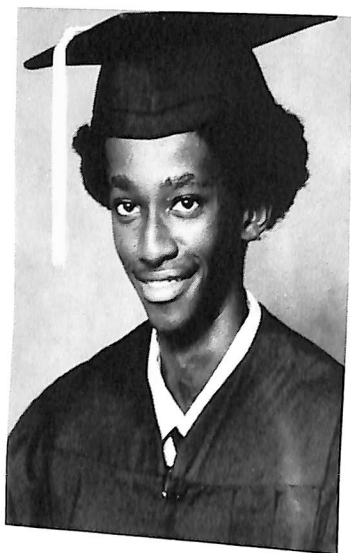

LEADERS - LOOK TO THE FUTURE - SENIORS, NOT TO THE PAST.

KEEP THE TORCH OF KNOWLEDGE BURNING, SENIORS,

SO THAT OTHERS MAY BE GUIDED BY YOUR LIGHT.

I was wanting someone to talk to
Needing to let myself out
Knowing beyond a doubt the past is behind me.

There was nowhere but to walk to Letting the time go by
Trying to see if I could ever find me.

It didn't seem to make much sense
Thinking about the dent I'd made
In this world to date
Was I too late, you say
Should I create today
Or let it be.

Now needing a hand cling to
Lucky I was to find
Someone of similar mind to stand behind me
Not letting dazzlement blind me

Showing me where to find me
Willing to just be kind and stand behind me.

The year 1973 has been a very important one to us. We have tried to give you a sense of remembering this year. We have worked hard to make this yearbook a unique one. We could not have compiled this book without our staff members and our advisor Mrs. A. G. Williams. Special recognition is given to our school photographers, Mr. Charles Ross, Mr. Robert Spaulding, our faculty photographer, Sgt. W. L. Allen, and the newspaper staff. Many thanks also belong to the teachers and students who made the yearbook a success. As our presence here at Washington fades and our memories begin, we thank those people who helped us develop our senses.
