DEAR SENIOR CLASS OF 1989:

FORGETFULLY, THIS IS MY FINAL WRITTEN MESSAGE TO YOU. WRITING THIS LETTER IS NOT EASY FOR IT CAUSES ME TO REALIZE--THIS IS IT.

I FIRST WANT TO THANK YOU FOR BEING A LOYAL, COOPERATIVE AND IN MANY WAYS A SPECIAL CLASS. I AM GOING TO MISS SEEING YOU, SITTING IN YOUR FAVORITE PLACE--THE SATELLITE DINING ROOM. I AM GOING TO MISS YOU STANDING ON THE FRONT STEPS OF THE MIGHTY "W".

ALTHOUGH I AM GOING TO MISS YOU, I WILL HAVE PLEASANT THOUGHTS ABOUT WHAT YOU ARE DOING. BECAUSE YOU HAVE DEMONSTRATED TO ME THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED AND SENT A LETTER JUST AS LANGSTON HUGHES' "PERSONAL" STATES.

IN AN ENVELOPE MARKED:
PERSONAL
GOD ADDRESSED ME A LETTER.
IN AN ENVELOPE MARKED:
PERSONAL
I HAVE GIVEN MY ANSWER.

YOUR ACTIONS AND YOUR YEARS AT BOOKER T. WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL REVEAL TO ME THAT YOU WILL PLAY A SIGNIFICANT ROLE IN MAKING THINGS HAPPEN. RATHER THAN BEING A VISIBLE PART OF THOSE THAT WATCH THINGS HAPPEN. YOU HAVE DEMONSTRATED THE FACT THAT YOU HAVE DETERMINATION, DESIRE, AND DISCIPLINE. WITH THE THREE D'S YOU TOO CAN HELP THE WORDS OF LANGSTON HUGHES "I DREAM A WORLD", BECOME A REALITY.

I DREAM A WORLD WHERE MAN
NO OTHER WILL SCORN
WHERE LOVE WILL BLESS THE EARTH
AND PEACE ITS PATHS ADORN.
I DREAM A WORLD WHERE ALL
WILL KNOW SWEET FREEDOM'S WAY.
WHERE GREEN NO LONGER SIPS THE SOUL
AND VARIETY BRIGHTS OUR DAY.
A WORLD I DREAM WHERE BLACK OR WHITE,
WHATEVER RACE YOU BE,
WILL SHARE THE BOUNTIES OF THE EARTH
AND EVERY MAN IS FREE.
WHERE WRETCHEDNESS WILL HANG ITS HEAD,
AND JOY, LIKE A PEARL,
ATTEND THE HEIRS OF ALL HUMANITY.
OH SURE I DREAM
OUR WORLD!

SO LONG, AND GOD'S SPEED.

Sincerely,
R. L. COLLINS, JR.

Mr. A. Ward
B.T.W.'s Teacher of the Year in Music

Mrs. M. Wilkins
Georgia Vocational Association
Teacher of the Year

How do you feel you have influenced the students at Washington High School?

I feel that I have laid a foundation for the students to believe in themselves. One day during a class discussion on career goals, the entertainment field seemed to have captured the interest of most of the students. Later during the day when I was evaluating my instruction and the students' participation and interaction, I saw an opportunity to use the students' interest in the entertainment field to help them see the field as a viable career choice. I had selected entertainment as their choice of a livelihood into a formation of a drama activity. I shared this idea with the students and the beginning of a new era of commitment developed.

These students organized a drama group and began putting their talents to good use. They performed during our 1988 Black History observance. A spectator in the audience was impressed with the performance and aptly preached about the possibility of these students participating in a salute to our heritage at the M. L. King Center for Social Change. The performance was superb and this led to an invitation from Channel 12 and Channel 30 to film our presentation. This was a very positive experience and the enthusiasm was contagious. This group even did a filming on the harmful effects of drugs. A local eating establishment furnished individual trays of food for the participants and the entire event took place at the school. The support from teachers, parents and administrators was overwhelming.

I was not selective according to Who's Who at Washington High School. Genuine interest, a good attitude and commitment was all that was required. When the other students observed what these students had achieved, seemingly, they were inspired to strive for personal achievement in other curricular activities.

As a PECE teacher, I have monitored the social and academic growth of my enrollees. Some of these students score very well in the Bell Laboratories competition for the Science Summer Program. Several have indicated an interest in science; provide an exposure to environments that might otherwise be inaccessible; offer learning opportunities in numerous areas for postgraduate study. The glow on the students' faces when they were informed that they had been selected was so rewarding. They realized that many good things can happen if they believe in themselves and strive for the best.

How did you feel when you were chosen as Teacher of the Year?

When the Vocational Guidance section of the Georgia Vocational Association announced that I was their choice for the 1988 Educator of the Year, I was elated that someone had noticed my efforts to promote self-improvement and self-confidence among my students. I felt that all of my students shared in the honor because they had responded to my teaching goals and objectives in a very positive manner.

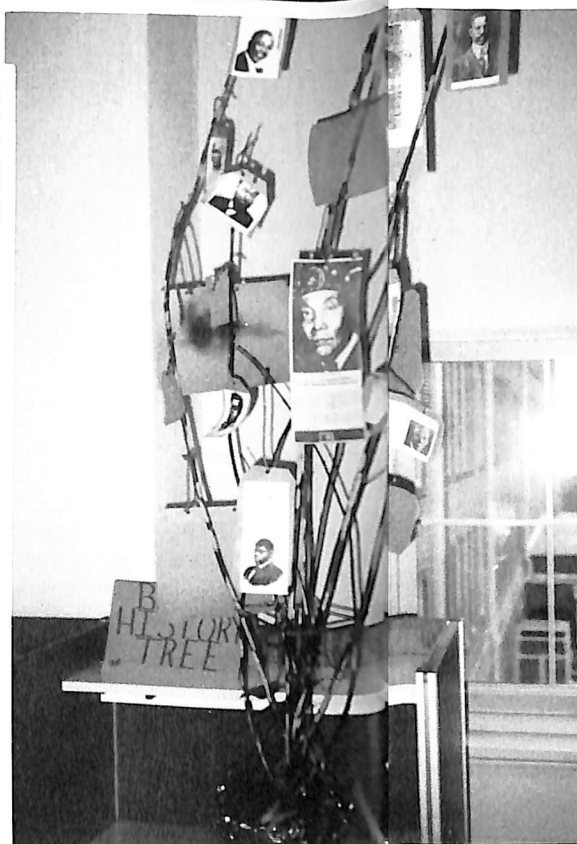

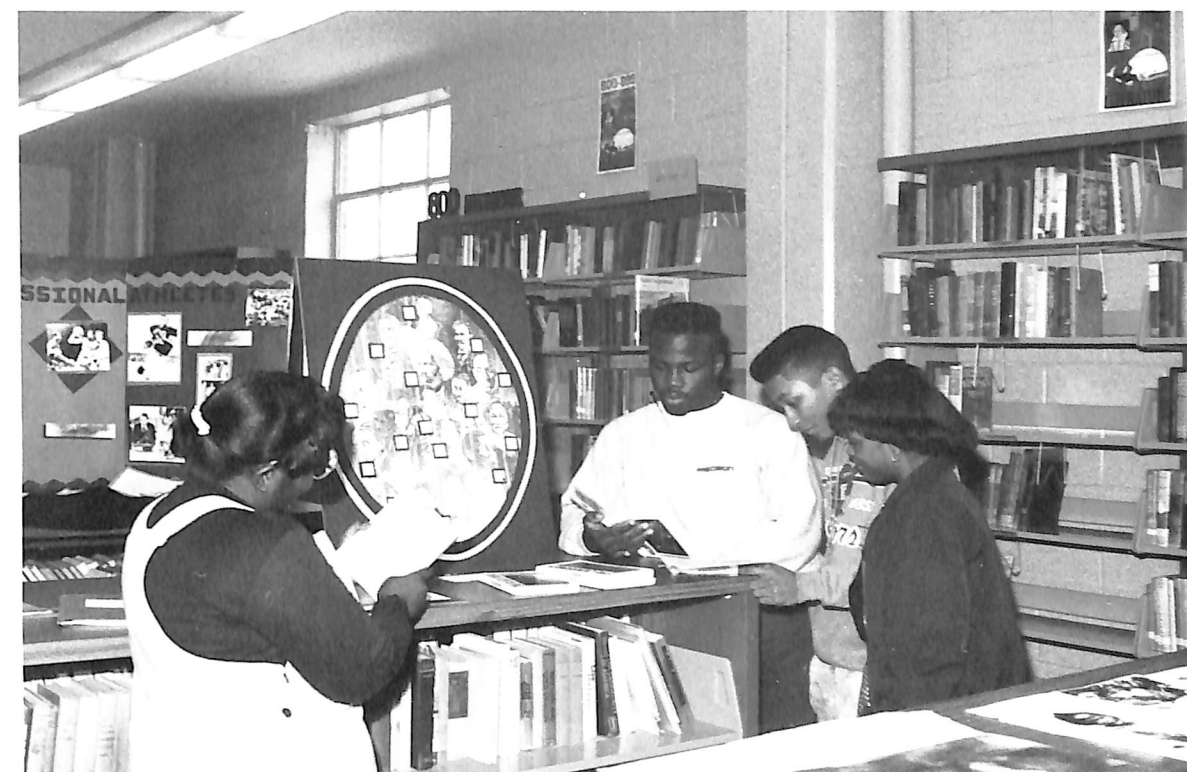

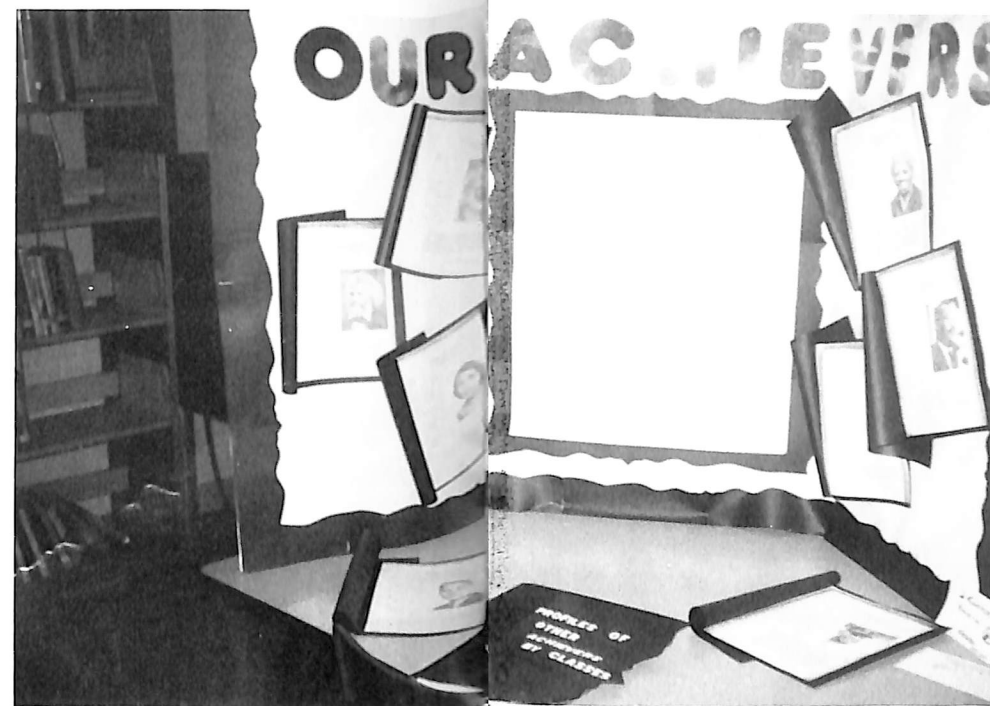

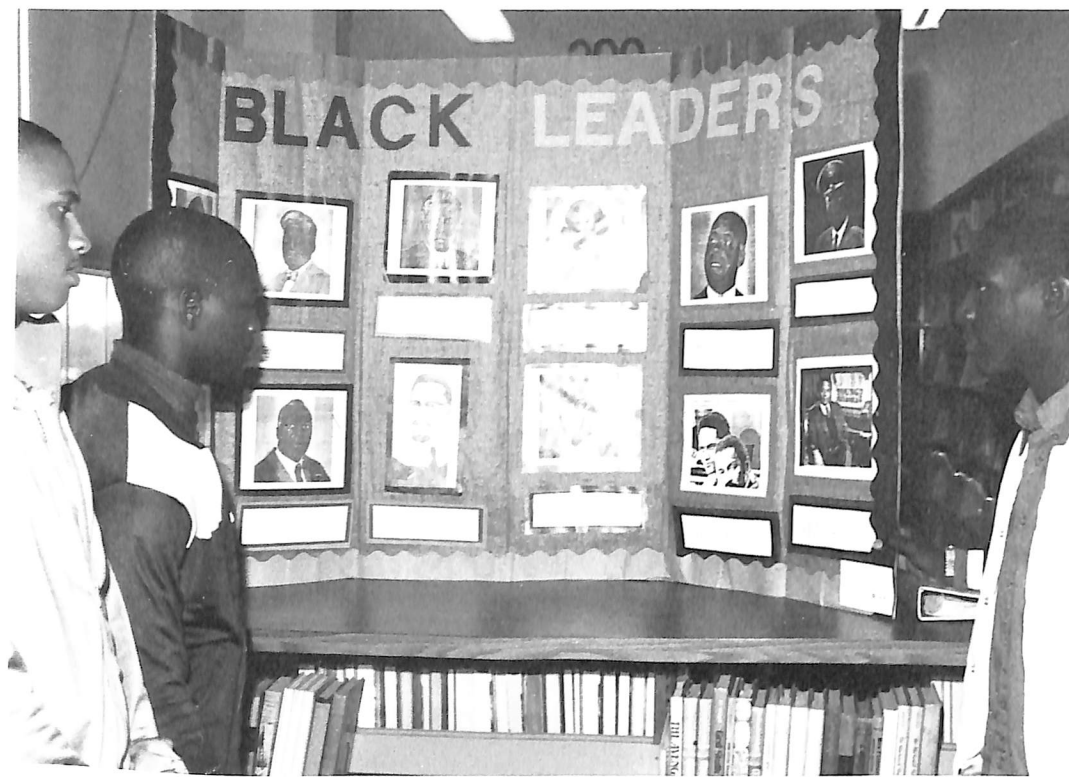

How has being Teacher of the Year affected you?

My heart skips a beat every now and then when I look at the beautiful plague that was presented to me and I remember some of the events that have taken place over the years. I recount some my peaks and valleys and I become more determined to make a difference in someone's life.

Please give any additional information that you feel will be beneficial to the youth of today?

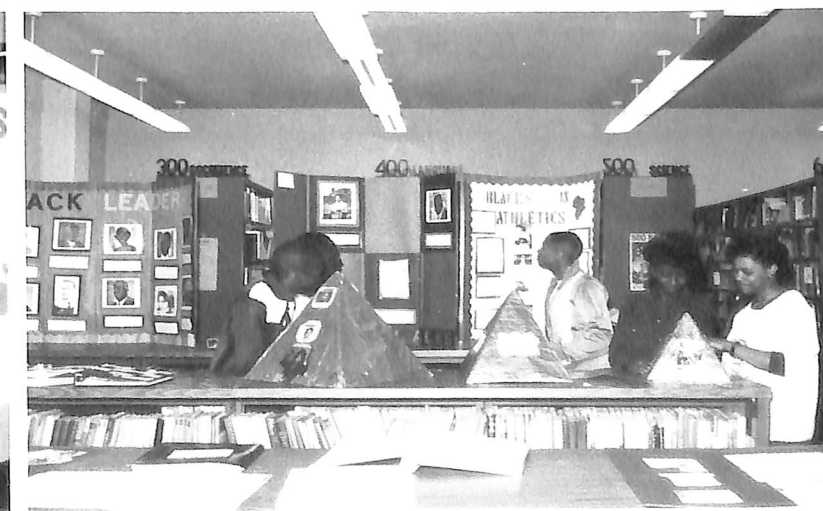

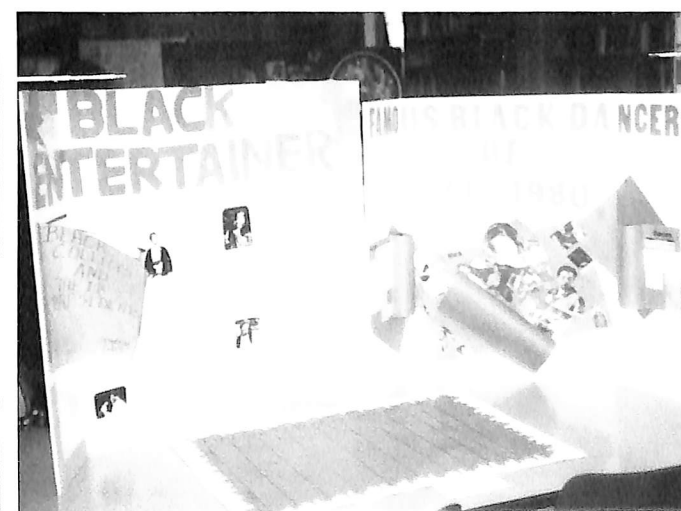

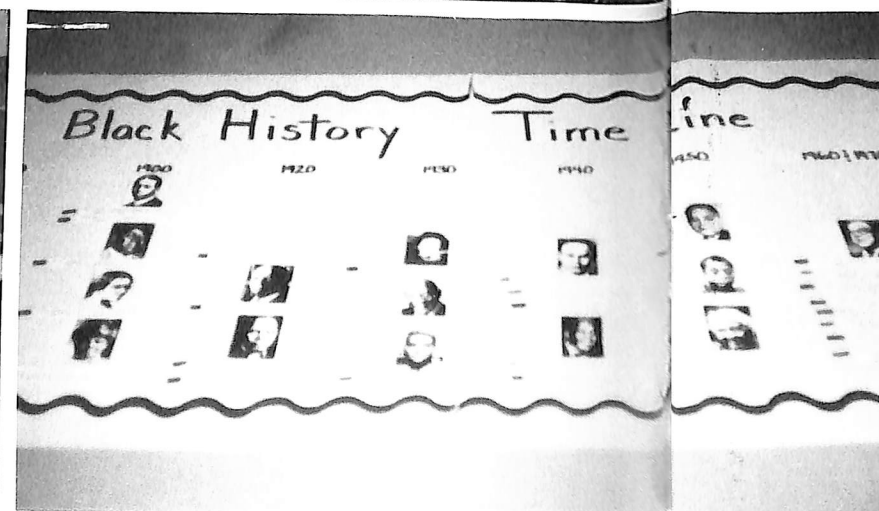

I would advise any youth to make each moment count. Take life serious now and reap the rewards later. Don't be satisfied with just being ordinary, be ready when the opportunity presents itself to "Make A Difference."

1989 DEDICATION

The practical value of any position of responsibility is in its opportunities of service rather than of gain. The truest service you can render is that which you do quietly and silently, and without expectation of gratitude or reward. — Grenville Kleiser

We, the Senior Class of Booker T. Washington High School, dedicate our 1989 Washingtonian to our outstanding home-room teachers and our very supportive counselor. If it had not been for your loyal devotion, kindness, patience, remarkable sense of humor, and informative guidance, we would not be the superb seniors that we are today.

Life's Road

— Shirley Harvey

We learn many lessons as each day goes by. There are songs to sing and a few tears to cry. There are blessings to count, happy memories too. And sometimes disappointment in things we do. There are cups that run over and years that are lean, with bright days and dark days and long nights between. But one choice we can make as we carry life's load. If we look toward the sun how it brightens the road!

To my lovely Sister Miss Tonya La Shun Jenkins. I wish you all the success in the world. As the years went by I watched you blossom into a beautiful and intelligent young lady. To watch you experience life, to accomplish things we thought were too difficult for you. Tonya, when I saw some of the things you over came, I knew then that life wasn't going to be hard for you. Little Sister, always remember, "If you fall always get back up."
