BOOKER T. WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

43 WHITEHORN DRIVE, S.W.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30314
TELEPHONE: 752-0728

April 9, 1990

Dear Seniors:

During the past years I have observed your growth and development. I am proud of your maturity, the respect you've shown for what is desired of you and your willingness to "Do the right thing".

You came to Washington as small, calm, insecure caterpillars. Today, I see you as strong, determined, confident, and secure strong-winged butterflies.

Be assured your educational, social, aesthetic, and athletic experiences of the past years have prepared you for the events of the future.

I ask you to continue to dare to dream to be different from the masses... to be cooperative, respectful and untiring as you face the tomorrow. There will be good days and bad days. However, your efforts, drive and determination will determine the quantity of each day.

Remember, the race is not necessarily won by the swift, but the one that endures to the end—GOOD LUCK.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Principal

Dr. J. Clarke, Assistant Principal

"Few men are born leaders. Leadership is achieved by ability, alertness, experience and keeping posted; by willingness to accept responsibility; a knack for getting along with people; an open mind and a head that stays clear under stress."

We are extremely proud of our Assistant Principals and we appreciate all that they do.

Mr. W. Saulsbury, Assistant Principal

It is much better to give hope and strength and courage, than money. The help is not much to bear the troubles of others for them, but to inspire them with courage and energy to bear their own burdens for themselves, and meet with the difficulties of life bravely. To help others is no easy matter but requires a clear head and wise judgement, as well as a warm heart.

SENIOR RECOGNITION DAY

1921

1989

Sunday Morning the Eighth of October
Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

Nine o'clock
Gymnasium

OUR PLEDGE

On this day of recognition, we the members of the graduating class would like to make to you and to God the following pledge:

In this excitement we pledge long enough to remain grateful to the many forces that have entered into our training and to pay a tribute of thanks to them.

TO OUR PARENTS:

We have made it possible for us to attend

TO OUR TEACHERS:

Whose wise instructions and preliminary patience have made this day a reality.

TO OUR PRINCIPAL:

Whose faith in us has served as a stimulus in all our efforts, and most of all

TO GOD:

Who has been the main strength of us all.

We as seniors pledge ourselves to a dedication of our hearts, minds, and souls throughout our remaining days here at Booker T. Washington High School.

In all these things, we promise to face the future with God—AMEN.

WE DO

Wasn't it just yesterday, the very first time we walked straight through the door?
We saw the light in your eyes
and we knew deep inside
We'd be so much more than friends,
forever, its Booker T., eternally, everything that we're meant to be.

CHORUS

So we dedicate ourselves and loyalty forever,
for always, we do.
And this promise that we made today
we make with all our hearts,
we'll never part, its true.
So then here's to us
We give our all to you,
We pledge this we do.

History:

Booker T. Washington High School, named for the famous educator, began operation in 1925 under the sponsorship of The Atlanta Board of Education, with the late C. L. Harper as principal. It was the first public school for blacks in Atlanta.

Several additions have been made to the original building which is situated on a 21.4 acre tract of land. In 1925, the only exact replica of Booker T. Washington monument in Tuskegee, Alabama was erected at the school's entrance. In 1942, north and south wings were added to the building; several years later a cafeteria and gymnasium were added. A technical building and a teaching theatre designed for many innovative teaching methods were completed in 1968.

In recognition of Washington's historical significance and its contributions to the community, and the nation, in 1985, it was placed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Five principals have served during the history of the school: Mr. C. L. Harper (1924-42); Mr. C. N. Cornell (1942-1961); Mr. J. Y. Moreland (1961-1968); Dr. A. A. Dawson (1968-1971); and the current principal, Dr. R. L. Collins, Jr., who assumed the office in 1972.

ATLANTA CHAPTER METH EMPLOYMENT ASSOCIATION "OUTLINE"

The Atlanta Chapter of MEA is a 23-year-old organization made up of approximately 58 of the Metropolitan Atlanta's leading business firms. From its beginning in 1966, the organization has addressed itself to bringing equal opportunity in employment and upward mobility regardless of race, color, religion, age, sex, or national origin. Youth Motivation Day is just one of its many community service activities.

MEA OBJECTIVES

1. To achieve a goal of equal opportunity through employer support of nondiscriminatory principles and practices of hiring, training, promotion and compensation of employees on the basis of individual qualifications and merit.
2. To encourage all employees in the Metropolitan Atlanta area to develop a community of fair employment interest and support through membership and participation in the Voluntary Youth Motivation Day.
3. To communicate to the Atlanta black community the willingness and sincerity of Atlanta employers to provide equal employment opportunity for qualified minority members, and to others the need and means for developing adequate training and skills necessary to achieve full equal employment opportunity.
4. To establish broad voluntary employer support and guidance for the development of specific Youth Motivation Day projects to upgrade the training and skills required to achieve equal employment opportunity.
5. To provide a systematic means of voluntarily gathering and disseminating among association members equal employment opportunity data, trends and other pertinent information which will be helpful in achieving association objectives.

JROTC officers and cadets play a key role in making each program a success.

BOOK WEEK

Book Week, Nov. 13-19, 1989 was celebrated at B.T.W. with a series of programs and activities designed to promote and stimulate reading.

"Ready, Set, Read!," this year's theme was carried out through workshops and seminars on literary themes, mini book talks, book reviews, and noontime videotapes.

According to the increase in book circulation, and the overwhelming and tremendous positive responses from students and teachers, the programs were resounding successes.

Dear Dr. Harris:

Recently, I completed a ten week consulting program in Ms. Joann Simpson's P.E.C.E. class at Booker T. Washington High School. It seems as though there are so many negative things written about our public schools, particularly the inner city schools. Consequently, I was unsure as to what type of environment I would find.

Booker T. Washington High School is a beautiful educational facility. The building is reminiscent of the old television series, "Room 222." Ms. Simpson's students were attentive and participated actively. She obviously enjoys a great reputation in Washington's community. The students respond well to her and strive to meet her high expectations.

My experience with Ms. Simpson and her class renewed my faith in the public school system. "Our nation is not at risk" if all of our teachers are as dedicated to their profession as Ms. Simpson.

I am proud to be associated with the Atlanta Public Schools in both a volunteer basis as well as a valued client of Johnson & Higgins. Please let me know if I can ever be of service to you.

Sincerely yours,

The local SECME program is a grassroots effort and typically has direct links with the faculty at an engineering school as well as support from community organizations. It raises cash and in-kind contributions from local sources and is often able to provide summer technical employment for students.

Student participants are identified as early as the sixth grade. Nominations come from teachers or counselors and include both those students who are achieving and those with the potential to achieve. Overall, more than 85% of graduating SECME seniors attend a college or university and almost half of those opt for engineering or other math-based pursuits. On the SAT, SECME students exceed the national average for black students by a 200 point margin.

1990 STUDENT TEACHER ACHIEVEMENT RECOGNITION

This year Ralph Hoyle is Washington High School's STAR STUDENT. He is in the upper 10 percent of his senior class academically and his SAT scores are the highest in his class. He has selected Ms. T. Williams as his STAR TEACHER.

STAR TEACHER

Ms. T. Williams

"I do the very best I know how, the very best I can, and I mean to keep on doing so until the end."

Mrs. Angelene Sampson Wright is our Teacher of the Year for 1989- 90 at Booker T. Washington High School. She has been a member of the Washington High School Faculty since 1979. She teaches Language Arts and Music. She is also the directress of the Male Chorus.

Our teacher of the year is a native of Savannah, Georgia. She attended Savannah State College and graduated with honors. Her major was Music Education with emphasis on piano and organ.

We, the Washington High School family, proudly salute Mrs. Angelene Sampson Wright, our Teacher of the Year.

"LET FREEDOM RING JAN. 1990"

John Feight

"ALL our freedom — personal, social, political — freedom to buy, to work, to hire, to bargain, to save, to vote, to worship, to gather in a convention or to join in mutual association — all these freedoms are a single bundle. Each is an indispensable part of a single whole. Destruction of any inevitably leads to the destruction of all."

Congratulations To My Daughter Kimberly Nicole Hawkins

Part of your journey has come to an end. The road has been rough and times tough, but through trial and error you have made it. I know you will reach your goals in life, and the process in striving for those goals continue to keep you in your life. And whatever your goals are, I know with all my heart that you will successfully reach them, and when you do: "BE THE BEST AT WHAT- EVER YOU ARE"

Love always, your Mother
