SABRE DAY

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL JUNIOR ROTC DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

SABRE DAY

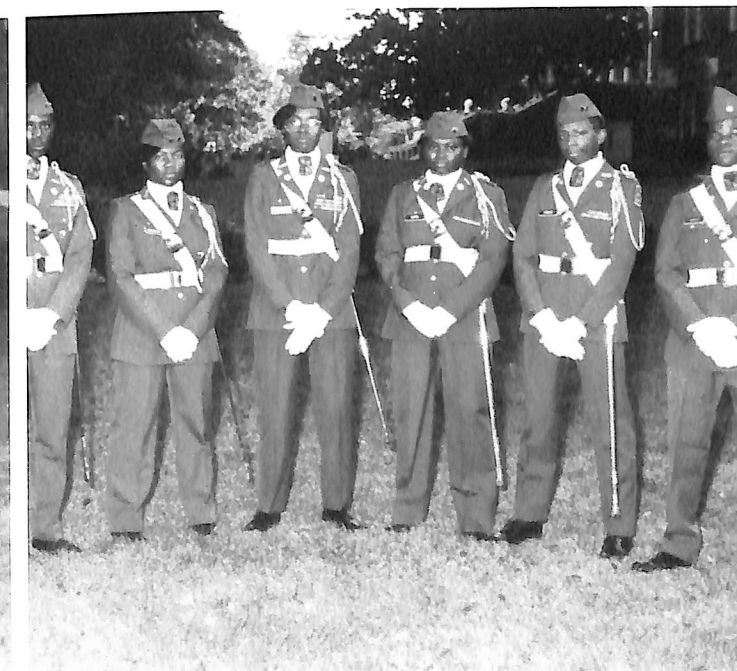

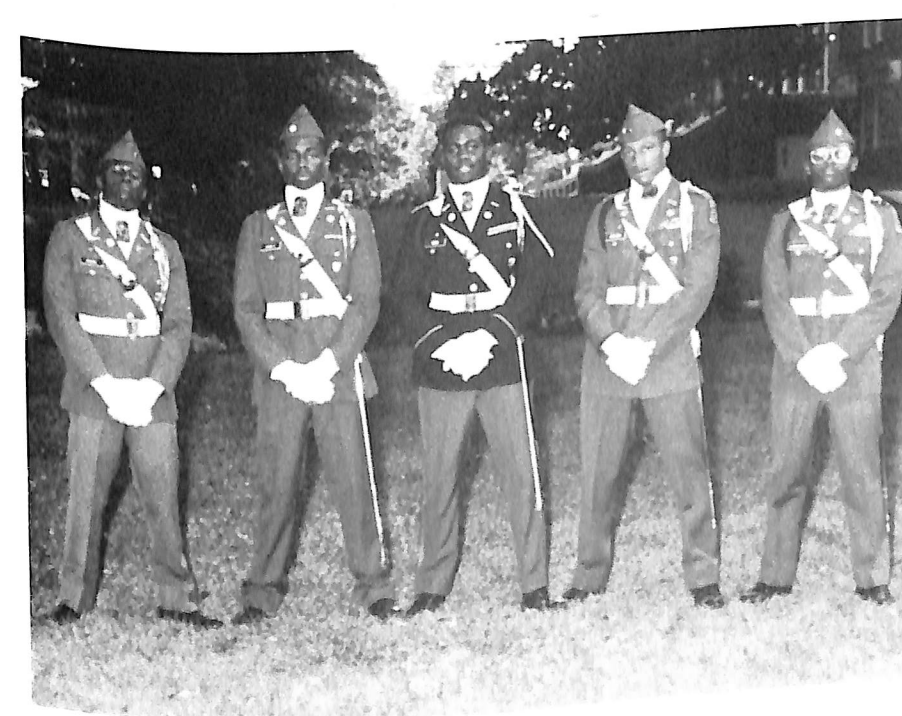

PRINCIPAL

DR. ROBERT LOWE

BATTALION COMMANDER
C/MAJ SHAKIRA ROBINSON

23 OCTOBER 1990

1:30 PM

PURPOSE OF SABRE DAY

Sabre Day, is by tradition, the day on which the cadet Officers of Atlanta Public High Schools in the Junior ROTC units are commissioned and received their sabres from their parents or guardians. Although the exact origin of Sabre Day is not known, it is believed to have begun in the days of ancient Sparta years before Christ. This event marked the entry into military service of each young spartan and with it the responsibility of Adulthood. To meet this requirement, they were presented a sword and shield by their mothers. In keeping with this ancient tradition, the Officers' sponsors assisted in the presentation. The swords symbolize the leadership responsibility each officer accepts.

Miss Washington and Attendants

Ocqla enters the Royal Palace.

Dr. R.L. Collins crowns Ocqla.

Ocqla Shanice Mapp, Miss Washington

Ocqla is a supreme delight and a charismatic addition to Booker T. Washington High School. Her poise and sunshiny personality are an asset to many clubs and activities that she is engaged in at school. As a member of Homeroom 12-7, she participates on the Varsity Basketball Team and Yearbook Staff. She was homeroom queen in her 9th and 10th grade years. Ocqla is the devoted daughter of Ms. Laverne Mapp and Mr. McKinley Ball.

She spends her leisure hours reading, attending movies, concerts and sports events. Ocqla plans to continue her education at Tuskegee University where she will matriculate in the field of Forensic Medicine. She loves people and she loves learning new ways of doing things.

First and Second Attendants assist with robe.

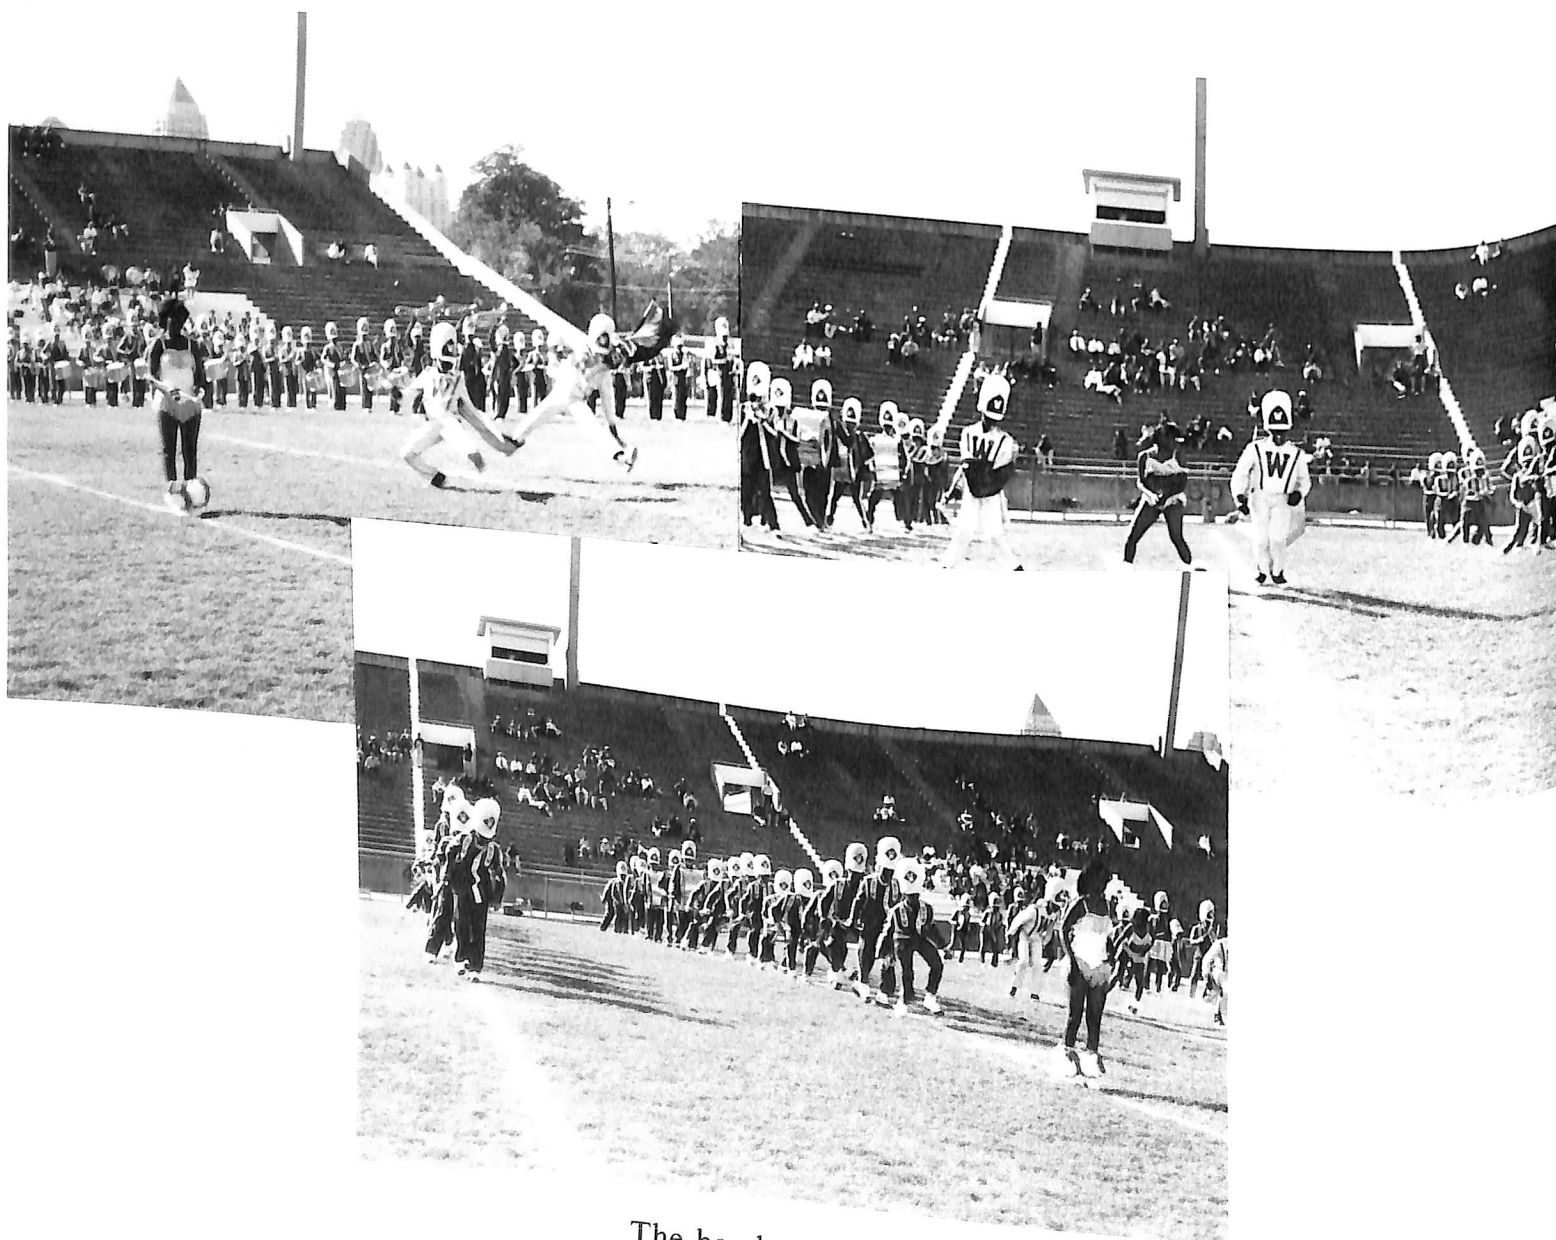

Ocqla takes her initial walk as queen.

1988 STUDENT TEACHER ACHIEVEMENT RECOGNITION

This year Zanetta Gaul is Washington High School's Star Student. A STAR STUDENT must be among the upper 10 percent or top 10 percent of students scholastically in his or her class at the end of the first semester of the senior year. Zanetta was named STAR STUDENT because she received the highest SAT scores at Washington High School. Zanetta has chosen Mrs. Pryor as her STAR TEACHER.

Miss Wanda Hunley
175 Holderness Street, S.W.
Atlanta, Georgia 30314

Dear Wanda:

It is my pleasure to inform you of your selection as one of the 660 Georgia students invited to participate in the 1991 Governor's Honors Program. To be chosen as a finalist is a great honor for you, your family and your school. We hope nothing will interfere with your participation in the program.

Enclosed is the student handbook and other important information that should be reviewed carefully by you and your parents before you accept this invitation. We must receive your acceptance by April 22, 1991. In the event that you are unable to participate, an alternate will be chosen.

The forms accompanying this letter should be mailed to Mr. Lonnie Love, Administrator, Governor's Honors Program, 1954 Twin Towers East, Atlanta, Georgia 30334-5040.

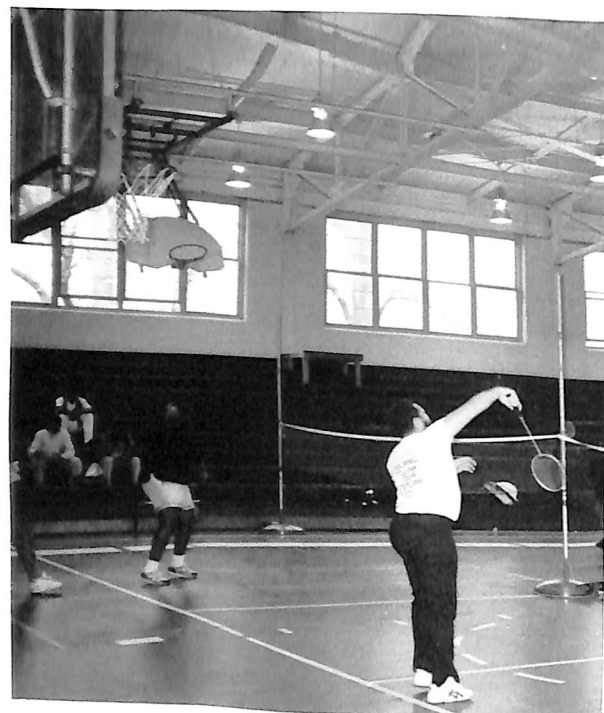

Again, I congratulate you for this achievement. I look forward to meeting you when I visit the program this summer.

Sincerely,

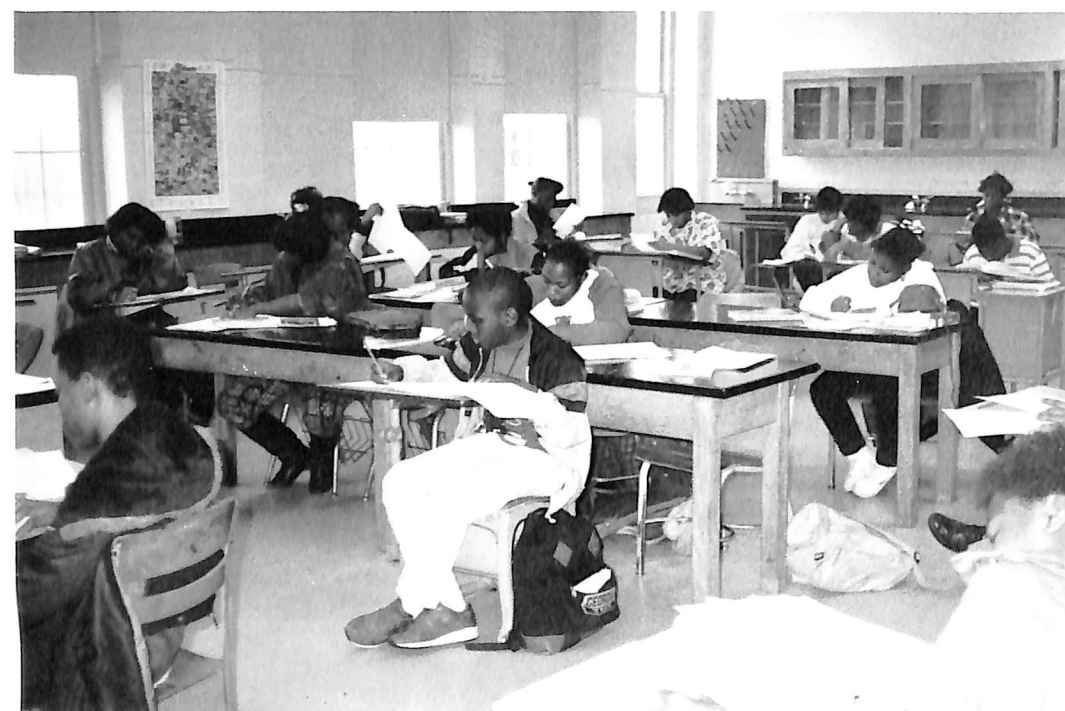

Werner Rogers

Teachers of the Year Honored

Left to right Mrs. M. Stephens, Mr. A. Ward, Mrs. A. Wright
During a November faculty meeting the teachers of the year for the past three years were honored.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR

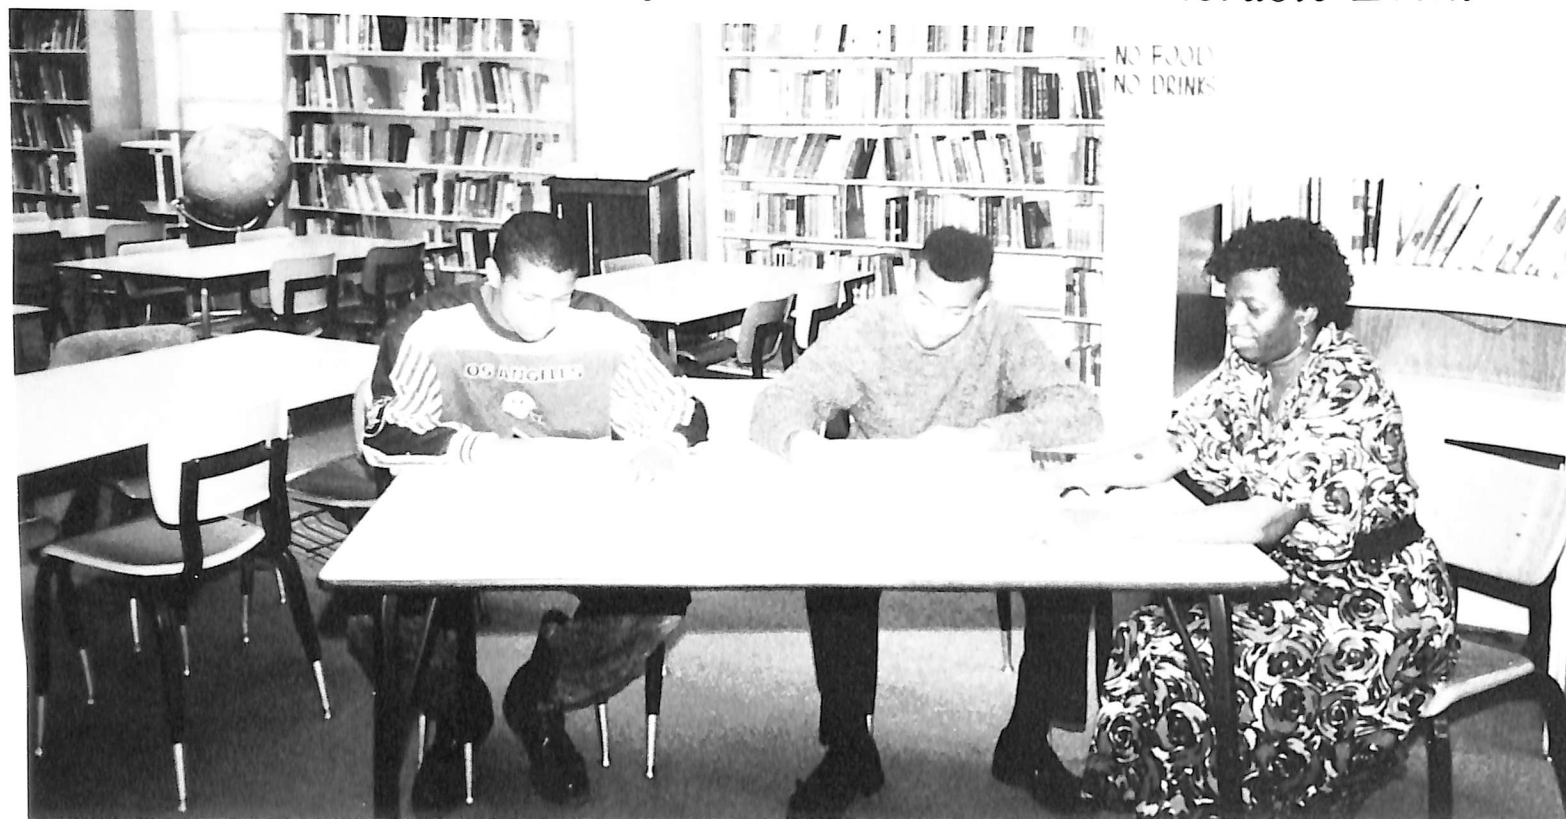

MRS. MARY H. STEPHENS

Mrs. Mary H. Stephens, is our Teacher of the Year for 1990-91 at Booker T. Washington High School. She is the accounting and keyboarding instructor in the Vocational Education Department as well as the chairperson. She started working at Booker T. Washington in 1968 as a secretary in the main office and moved to a teaching position in March 1969. She served as the VOT coordinator for 13 years.

Our teacher of the year is a graduate of Clark-Atlanta University and Georgia State University. She holds the Bachelor of Arts, Masters and Specialist Degrees in Comprehensive Business Education and as Director of Vocational Education. She is the mother of two children — Andrew, a May graduate of Hampton University, and Angelan, a sophomore at Northside High School.

One of Mrs. Stephens' educational goals for the students at Washington High School is to enhance the enrollment in the vocational department.

The Modern Woodsman of America: A Most Memorable Event

Purpose: To promote oratorical skills and enhance student involvement in public schools across America.

Sponsored by: Atlanta Association of Education (AAE) in conjunction with The Modern Woodsman of America for fifth through eighth graders.

As a well-spent day brings happy sleep, so a life well spent brings happy death.
— Leonardo DaVinci

IN APPRECIATION

Dr. Collins, we the class of 1991, would like to show our overwhelming appreciation to you for your dedicated years at Booker T. Washington High School with us. Words cannot express the love and guidance that you have given to us throughout these wonderful years, but there's a time when everyone must move on to better things in life. As you move, we will remember . . .

"THE best things in life are appreciated most after they have been lost."

"THE deepest principle in human nature is the craving to be appreciated."

"WHEN someone does something good, applaud! You'll make two people happy."

"GIVE people flowers when they can smell them."

"DON'T be stingy with words of appreciation when they are justly due."
"Everyone likes to be told that he is admired, respected, appreciated and liked."

"'THANK YOU' are still the best two words known to express gratitude and appreciation."
