It was a dew filled morning with the sun not yet in full bloom. The day was Monday, August 14, 2000, the first day of school in Bulldog Country and it proved to be one of many surprises. Teachers were faced with new students; the students were faced with new teachers, and we were all faced with a new class schedule. The implementation of Project G.R.A.D. elevated the reputation of the renowned Booker T. Washington High School along with the freshmen enrollment.

When the sound of the 8:30 bell roared through the halls from classroom to classroom, no one knew what to anticipate. As the students stepped into their classrooms for the first time for the 2000-01 school year, their hopes, dreams, and aspirations became homogeneous with their instructor's invitations to success. However, the days that followed became rigorous with the installation of a seventh period, and each teacher's raised expectations of his or her students. Once again, the citizens of Bulldog Country proved that they were one family with one destiny, and stepped up to the plate. Step on Bulldogs; step on!!

When the boom from the beat of the drums vibrated the sound waves, and the air carried the melodies of various horns from ear to ear, the citizens of Bulldog Country found that the band was stepping under the instruction of Mr. William Ervin. Although the band had decreased numerically, Mr. Ervin proved that the Marching 100 could continue the rich legacy of superior rhythms and movements. Stomp on Marching 100; stomp on!!

Project G.R.A.D. is an acronym for Graduation Really Achieves Dreams. This new program that ensures success, brought in a plethora of freshmen seeking a post secondary degree. Project G.R.A.D. guarantees the class of 2004 (and those to follow) a scholarship upon graduating if they meet certain requirements. With the inclusion of this program, Washington's students will not only have the tools to dream big but also the means to succeed big. The rest of the Bulldog family looks forward to witnessing these "scholastic scholars" stride into college. Stride on freshmen; stride on!!

As we continue to step, stomp, and stride into the future, we at Booker Talaiferro Washington Comprehensive High School confidently carry on the dreams and aspirations of the Bulldogs before us.

Later that evening, the Bulldogs trampled South Atlanta High School at Lakewood Stadium. The score was forty-six to twelve. "WHO LET DEM DOGS OUT?!!!"

Homecoming Parade 2001 was quite an event. This year, the Bulldog family shared the spotlight with Morehouse College. Both instructional institutions celebrated homecoming during the same week; therefore, we both flaunted our school's chosen majesties during the parade on Saturday, October 21, 2000. The college, business, and residential community came out to witness this all-inclusive motorcade. March on Bulldogs; march on!!!

First and Second Attendants greet the onlookers.

The trumbone section proves that they are keeping in step with their talented predecessors.

We work hard. We play hard. We JAM HARD!

S h o w O f f s !

(1) The drum majors lead the way. You go boys! (2) The trumpet section stops for a rest. (3) Marching 100 gets ready to shock the crowd. (4) Kristal "holds it down" for the flag corp. (5) Ms. Moore and Ms. Wynn make sure the girls are in step to the very end. (6) The Marching 100 just "won't quit."

Homecoming Game 2000

Coach Cofield "dishes out the bomb" plays.

"I got it!"

Freddie Jackson and Rodrick Brown are working together to upset St. Pius X. Hey, do what you "gotta" do.

Rodrick makes the catch. You go boy!

Whenever a student thinks of homecoming, they automatically know that it is time to "get crunk." This year, there were a number of events that lead up to "THE BIG GAME." Anticipation and excitement intensified as the days grew near. The Bulldog family participated in various homecoming, spirit-filled activities, such as: twin day, executive day, and spirit day. The culminating activity, THE BIG GAME, was considered one of the "crunkiest" games of the season. The amazing, dynamic Bulldogs over-powered St. Pius X by 22 points, leaving them with a mere O. The students and the alumni were overjoyed by the win.

Rodney Brown strides across the goal line. Talented? No doubt!

Freddie prepares to pass the ball.

Homecoming Game 2000's halftime show was spectacular. It proved to be a showcase for Washington's queens, and a memorable experience for them also. The crowd gleamed with glee when Miss Senior, Takeisha Person, Miss Junior, Jeanette Gustave, Miss Sophomore, Shannon Hancock, and Miss Freshmen, Courtney Radford, stepped on the field. The audience gave second attendant, Tamika Bell, and first attendant, Oritsegbubemi Orugboh, much love as they strolled down the aisle with their handsome escorts (provided by the obliging ROTC department). The members of the Bulldog family were bursting with pride as Ashley Midds, Miss Washington, Walter Stith, Mr. Washington, and Miss Blue and White, Tikarra Berry, stepped on the football field.

On homecoming day, Washington High School had the opportunity to show off the beauty that lies within the halls of the magnificent brick building located at Forty-five White House Drive. These queens and king work hard every day to prove that Washington High School requires nothing less than excellence — inside and out.

Mrs. Nichols new that the field of education was for her every since she was a child. She realized that teachers had the power of mold minds, the strength to build characters and the magic to touch souls. Yes, she truly understood the powers all teachers possess. Her biggest influence was her mother. She was an extraordinary and inspirational teacher who could take diamonds in the rough and make them shine.

Mrs. Nichols loves to work with children of all ages. Her main objective is to make a positive difference in all of her students lives. When students display positive attitudes, confidence, and a determination to achieve, that is when she feels a sense of accomplishment.

A BRIEF OVERVIEW

SECME was established in 1975 by the deans of seven southeastern universities. Today, SECME is the largest pre-college alliance in the country linking 41 universities, 70 industry/government agencies, 107 school systems, 19,199 students, and 900 K-12 schools in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, the District of Columbia and the Bahamas.

SECME's goal is to increase the pool of under-represented students who are prepared to enter and complete post secondary studies in science, mathematics, engineering and technology (SMET). SECME is an inclusive organization that encourages pre-college students of all ethnicities to participate. The program is delivered within the existing educational structure at the elementary middle and high school levels. At each member school, a SECME Team is formed to plan and initiate the program. A model team includes the principals, counselors, media specialists, and mathematics, science, language arts, technology and other teachers.

Saber Day is, by tradition, the day on which Cadet officers of the Atlanta Public Schools' Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) Units are commissioned, or become an officer.

Although the exact origin of the term "Saber Day" is not known, it is generally believed that the custom began in the days of ancient Sparta, before Christ. The day marked the young Spartan's entry into military service, and it carried with it the assumption of the duties of adulthood.

Hamid Allah receives saber by his mother, Latifah Allah.

Andre Bridges receives his saber.

Objectives of ROTC:

- Good citizenship and patriotism
- Self-reliance, leadership, and responsiveness to constituted authority
- Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing
- Appreciation of the importance of physical fitness
- Appreciation of the role of the US Army in support of national objectives
- Knowledge of basic military skills

Zanetta Jackson receives her saber by her father, Detective Jackson.

LTC Baskett oversees the entire operation.

Future Business Leaders Of America

FBLA-PBL Creed

I believe education is the right of every person.
I believe the future depends on mutual understanding and cooperation among business, industry, labor, religious, family, and educational institutions, as well as people around the world. I agree to do my utmost to bring about understanding and cooperation among all of these groups.
I believe every person should prepare for a useful occupation and carry on that occupation in a manner that brings the greatest good to the greatest number.
I believe every person should actively work toward improving social, political, community, and family life.
I believe every person has the right to earn a living at a useful occupation and that this right should not be denied because of race, color, creed, sex, or handicap.
I believe every person should take responsibility for carrying out assigned tasks in a manner that brings credit to self, associates, school, and community.
I believe I have the responsibility to work efficiently and to think clearly. I promise to use my abilities to make the world a better place for everyone.
