March 4, 1974

Firstly, I am deeply honored to have the opportunity to actively make plans for and participate in the 50th Anniversary Activities. This is a significant occasion, for the celebration of the Golden Anniversary is a rare privilege. I want to express my appreciation to the Booker T. Washington High School Parents' Advisory Committee for its demonstrated concern. A commendation is in order for the Teachers that go the extra mile in making for the best academic, physical, and emotional experiences for the students they teach. To a very special group, the students of the Big "W" - thanks you for your receptiveness, your willingness and your introspection.

The Legacy of Booker T. Washington High School makes it clear that from the very beginning it was able to withstand the vigorous educational turbulence through the years, for it had goals and objectives of unimbued concrete, and a faculty of solid impenetrable block and a curriculum of steel with immeasurably flexible resilience. The more than 18,000 graduates have visibly made their contributions, North, East, South, and West.

It is my hope that the next fifty years will be years of pride, productivity, respect, character, integrity, and academic excellence, for there is no failure like the failure in the presence of great opportunity - the opportunity is ours.

Sincerely,

R. L. Collins, Jr.

— IN MEMORIAM —

The Area I Staff of the Atlanta Public Schools proudly remembers, deeply appreciates and reverently cherishes —

- The legacy of scholarly excellence bequeated by pioneer administrators.
- The role call of distinguished and visionary teachers whose influence is indeed "affecting eternity."
- The memory of the many students whose courage and stamina prevailed and without whom there would be no legacy.

It is to all of these that we dedicate the following:

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it. . . who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benedic-

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH OF BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

By

Mrs. L. D. Shivery

History is a record of the achievements which have contributed to the march or retardation of civilization. It is more frequently than otherwise that the greatest factors in this world's progress are great men and institutions. In the record of the Booker T. Washington High School, history repeats itself, for both the school and its leader, Mr. C. L. Harper, Principal, have indelibly stamped themselves on the civic life of Atlanta, and made a definite contribution to its cultural and economic progress.

In 1924, Booker T. Washington High School, a civic institution, provided by the Board of Education, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, Superintendent, opened its doors with about 2,000 and a faculty of 70. Here under the leadership of Principal C. L. Harper, this school began its task of training students for the active duties of citizenship, and has reached an enrollment of 4,000 pupils and a faculty of one hundred teachers.

By 1925 a $25,000 monument of Booker T. Washington in bronze and marble graced the campus. The grounds were given attention, and thousands of dollars expended on lawn and flowering shrubbery made the campus one of the most beautiful in the South.

Each year following has been marked by milestones of achievement. Musical artists of national importance, including Florence Tolbert, Abbie Mitchell, Marian Anderson, Etta Moten and The Southernaires have been presented to Atlanta audiences.

In its first decade, a school paper, The Washingtonian, had been founded, an Annual had been published, and the school had gained national importance and recognition by winning National $1,000 Prizes for Magazine stories, Elks Orotional Contests, Silver Loving Cups, cash prizes and medals in Essay Contests from The Atlanta Journal, Sororities, Fraternities and such other organizations as the American Legion, and the Red Cross. In this period, also a School Government was founded. Booker T. Washington High School took the initiative in creating a real situation for the election of its Presidents and Vice Presidents and annually the students cast their votes in the actual wards and precincts in the city of Atlanta, after heated campaigns which included WATL and WGST Broadcasting Stations.

Within the past decade, fourteen Educational Honor Trips, from Tennessee to Michigan, including visits to historical places and leading colleges have been given to the children. Sensing the need for recreation in character building, in 1927, the school gave to Atlanta a $175,000 Athletic Plant with a Base Ball Ground, Foot Ball Gridiron, and Track. The school has a modern program in Athletics, and to date has played in games and tournaments in South Carolina, Alabama, Tennessee, and Kentucky, from which contests they have brought many trophies for the school museum. The National Girl Track Winner is a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. In 1938 the School installed a $7,500 cafeteria where the cultural, social, and health life of its citizens might be improved. This period saw the expansion of the School Band, with $1,000 worth of instruments.

1939 finds time marching and the school keeping step. One hundred girls with instruments costing $1,000 form a Drum and Bugle Corps made possible by the efforts of the school in a "Tag Day" Drive and other funds, have contributed to the glamour of this memorable day.

If it is true that we are measured by our achievement not by the college from which we have graduated, our ancestry, or degrees, then this day nobly places the "Ivy Crown" upon the brow of Charles Lincoln Harper, Leader and Builder of a New Civilization in the History of Atlanta.

DOROTHY GEER SIMS, ALUMNUS, AUTHOR -- OLD TIME PRAYER MEETING HYMN BOOK

SOROR DOROTHY SIMS PUBLISHES
"PRAYER MEETING SONG BOOK"

The arrangements of songs in Old Time Prayer Meeting are to preserve this aspect of culture for historical purposes. The hymns evolved during slavery and were passed from generation to generation by oral tradition. Many of the hymns have words from the Baptist Hymns books because slaves were permitted to attend the white churches and sit in the balcony. When the slaves organized their church, many of them could not read therefore, words which were not memorized from the white church were created. The new words reflected their hope for a better life after death. For example, "When All God's Children Get Together." The songs were sung A cappella because there was no musical instrument and when the churches were given a piano, many times there were no musicians who could play the instrument.

Therefore, the songs were performed with sustaining notes, and before each hymn a person who could read, or who memorized the song from another source, or who just created words of his own would give the audience one line of the hymn. One line was given and sung because the whole song could not be memorized all at once. When that line was sung, then another line would be given until the hymn was completed.

From this method of singing, a unique arrangement of melody was created peculiar only to the Black race. This arrangement is what I have tried to capture. The hymns are to be remembered as a method by which emotional frustrations were released. Finally, they were sung in the Civil Rights movement to solidify the marchers.

ABOUT THE ARRANGER:

Instructor at Morris Brown College, Atlanta, Georgia; Married and has two children. Interviewed on WAGA-T.V. about book; Hymns performed at Atlanta University Negro Workshop; Hymns performed in AKA - Kappa Omega concert. Note - Books may be purchased. *This splendid school for men, this pleasant place
This home of wisdom, this abode of truth,
This other Athens, shrine of Academe,
This mecca, planned by Freedom for her use
Against oppression and the threat of force;
This noble tribe of youth, this mighty band,
This shining beacon on a Georgia hill,
Which keeps before mankind such lofty aims
And lights the pathway to a better world
Against the social ills that cause decay;
This favored seat, this place, this school, this Morehouse,
This Alma Mater of a noble breed
Known for their faith and honored for their truth,
Far-famed for courage and for manly deeds,
For deep devotion both to God and state,
For Christian service to their fellow men,
For firm commitment to democracy;
This school of such rare souls, this dear, dear school
Known for her worthy sons throughout the world.*

WASHINGTON EXPANDS SCHOOL SPIRIT

Old U.S.O. Building was used as B.T.W. Snack Bar.

School Spirit is boosted and enhanced by the 1950 cheerleaders and majorettes.

B.T.W. eighth graders moved to Davis Street School when portable classrooms burned.

All City Team

B. T. Washington High's fast-breaking Bulldogs won the 1944-45 Basketball City Championship and placed six members out of the ten picked by sports writers and coaches on the All City Team.

SUPT. VISITS B.T.W.

Jan Ira Jurell, superintendent of Atlanta Public Schools, visits at the famed Washington monument in front of the school during one of her visits early in the school year. Miss Jurell has the interest of children at heart. Teachers are illiar with her remarks which indicate that the teacher sees second, and the child first. It is for the child that we add to first concerned.

YOUTH THEATRE GROUP

B.T.W. BAND

The Washington High School Band is under the direction of Mr. E.A. Harting. It has added much to the spirit of the school.

WINNERS

Ella Roy Jefferson, William Ellison and Charlotte were winners in Junior Chapter of Commerce Club. Book for Democracy.

School spirit displayed in extracurricular activities.

The first Davis Street School faculty.

Faculty Quips

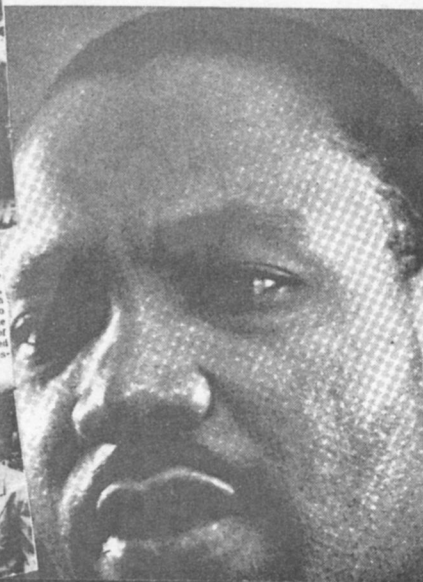

CAN YOU RECOGNIZE?

Mr. R. H. Jefferson—"Take your pencils in hand, begin!"
 Miss H. E. Buchanan—"Stay after school until June 4th."
 Mrs. L. D. Shivers—"Isn't that right, children?"
 Mr. W. L. Calloway—"Awright, whatsa matter with you people?"
 Mr. C. C. Green—"Even so, that's the reason for it."
 Mr. Geo. Williams—"I swear, that's enough of you."
 Mr. F. W. Sullivan—"It's that way, so to speak."
 Mrs. E. M. Girvan—"Get quiet, I'm not going to strain my 'vawee!"
 Mr. M. J. Davies—"Why don't you keep them big ol' ole still!"
 Miss N. M. Cunningham—"Now, you know me better than that! What do you have to say for yourself?"
 Miss A. L. Ware—"Little girl, why don't you shut up?"
 Mrs. A. B. Hatcher—"You oughta be like my little girl."
 Mr. J. W. Hill—"Will you stop yapping?"
 Mr. V. P. Holliday—"Big... big!"
 Miss H. M. Young—"Shut up, wuh'cha!"
 Mr. E. K. Carson—"Now, that, to me, is very funny."
 Prof. C. L. Hayer—"Keep these people in their classes!"

J. Robinson

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodgers' first baseman, chats with Shirley Scott, a tenth grade reporter. In keeping with the policy of the community school to bring nationally known celebrities to the campus, thus far this year a number of outstanding personalities have visited the school and have made great impressions upon the student body.

The Art and Crafts Club at work. Mrs. V. H. Alridge is the instructor and sponsor.

Olympic Star Visits

Alice Croftman, center, Olympic star, was a visitor on the Washington school. She is shortly after her return from England to the states. This high jump star, a teammate of one of Washington's teachers, Mrs. L.P. Glover, received a great reception from the eager student body as she and her party rode off the field. Miss Croftman played basketball on the same team with Mrs. Glover when both were girls at Tuskegee Institute.

MINISTER

Martin Luther King, Sr.

We, the class of 29, loved W. H. S. so well
 Here, there and everywhere we still dwell.
 Many have departed to that land of rest
 Our Dear Professor Harper is among the blest
 Many of our classmates have made history
 None of us have ever created great mystery
 We are all normal people doing our best
 To one day earn a home in the great land of rest.

FROM THIS '39 SEED CAME SOME SPECIAL "PIPS"

Mrs. Margaret M. Guest-Poole

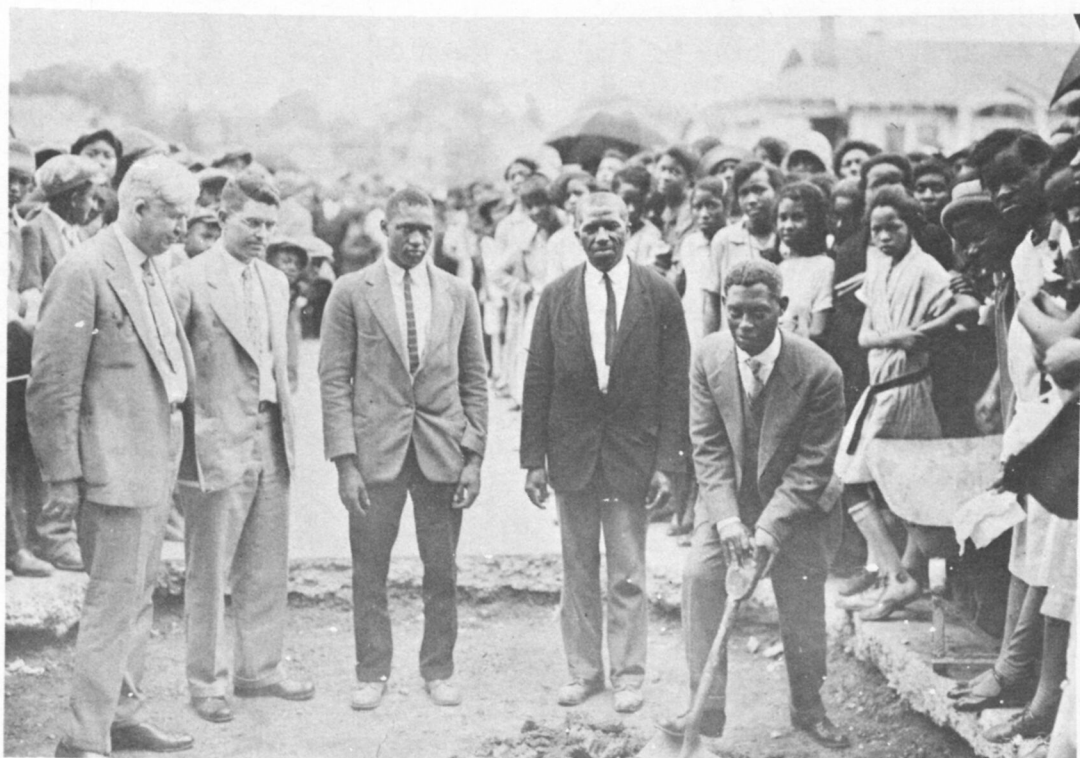

MARGARET M. GUEST-POOLE, the daughter of the late Matilda O. Maxwell and Ezekiel Mitchell and the wife of the late John F. Guest, Sr. is an Alumna Seed of the Booker T. Washington High School, 45 Whitehouse Drive, SW, Atlanta, Georgia 30314 who shall never be forgotten. She is known throughout the city, state and nation-wide as "Mama Guest" or Miss Guest," because she has a special CARE not just for her family but all families.

Mrs. Guest has served as a volunteer civic worker in various capacities for the city and Fulton Co. County Voters Registration and Deputy Registrar programs. She was the achiever for Bronze Woman of 1965 "In Citizenship," and her words of acceptance were: To Reverend Creecy; My Church family; The Sorority Members of the Delta Chapter of Iota Phi Lambda, Inc.; Fellow Citizens of Atlanta, Georgia; New York; Connecticut; Nebraska; Sponsor, Mrs. Cora K. Lovelace and to the anonymous panel of Judges: I can never fully express my gratitude for the honors I received in the month of February 1966, but first I will tell you the secret, "God has had all there was of me." There have been women with greater brain than I, women with greater opportunities, but God will you strength to do the task that lies ahead if you let Him come first in your life. To do well is to be able to do better, and good enough is small praise for anybody. So I am praying that this type of work will become contagious, especially with the younger women of our city and throughout America.

Mrs. Guest is presently employed at the Mount Moriah Baptist Church as Secretary-Clerk and sings in the No.2 Choir, but never too busy to lend a helping hand to the needy of the community, city or state, with chores of the home with children and grand children in the home weekly.

Think seriously about the heading of this article, as you define SEED because when a seed is well fertilized, little pips starts multiplying and that shows the great productions that we've found that came from this great institution as follows: John F. Guest, Jr., son, a instructor of Welding and Realtor in Groton Conn.; Ernest Leon Guest '48, son, USA Postman and Real Estate Salesman, Atlanta, Ga.; Walter Guest, nephew, Agency CDC Administrated Officer in Bureau of Laboritories, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Hanes Walton, Jr., nephew, Associate Professor of Political Science at Savannah State College, Savannah, Ga., and Author of The Political Philosophy of Martin Luther King, Jr.; Eleanor O. Guest, '58, daughter, presently employed at the Hyatt Regency Atlanta for 6½ years in the Comptroller Accountants Department, one of the Original Singers of Gladys Knight and the Pips, when they were first known by the tune recorded, "Whistle My Love," but a drastic change was made in 1959 and Eleanor composed and recorded with the Mount Moriah Young Adult Choir, "I Choose Jesus," where she presently sings in the promoted choir by the name of The Mount Moriah's Gospel Chorus, where the dynamic preacher, Rev. Howard W. Creecy, Sr. is the pastor and she works in many other departments of the church, and from this seed comes a granddaughter, Tanya LaNiecia Perry, who reigned as "Miss Sub Freshman at B.T. W., 1972-1973. Eleanor is praised for the time spent in letting her daughter and little sister, Andretta S. Poole continue working in wholesome activities of this great Institution which has served America for the past half of a century; William F. Guest '59, son, a Singer with the famous and fablous Gladys Knight and the Pips, who will be celebrating their 22nd year of "togetherness," as a group in the month of September. Mrs. Guest-Poole says as the sacred song writer wrote, "Who Could Ask For Anything More."
