Think

Think of the deepest emotions you have – the feelings that make you explode.

Well, each of the children you have in your class carries that same mother load.

What is the role that you play in their lives?

The feelings you daily inspire?

Do you nurture ambition and make their eyes wide?

Do the things you teach build their desire?

Yours is the power to nurture bond fires

that fuel great ambitions and goals

So endeavor to do all you can to inspire your students to be great and bold.

There will soon come a day when you'll look up with pride and know that you did all you could

when you see them on wings way up high in the sky

'cause you taught them and they understood!!

Dear Faculty and Staff:

We want to welcome each of you back for a new and exciting year at Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School. This includes a special welcome to our new faculty members. We are honored to be associated with such a talented group of faculty, staff, and students. We are very fortunate to work in a profession that allows us the opportunity to inspire, and be inspired, on a daily basis. Educating D.M. Therrell High School students is a wonderful privilege and responsibility.

Our students have accepted our challenge to them to be cooperative yet competitive learners. We are preparing our Panthers to contend with the rigorous, high standards set across the nation. As Panther teachers, you have accepted the challenge to raise the expectations for our students as well as improving on the methods of teaching and assessing the individual accomplishments of the young people entrusted to our care.

Our administrators have accepted the challenge of dealing with each student fairly and making available to them the courses and choices necessary for becoming successful and productive citizens in this global, technological society.

This faculty handbook has been prepared for the purpose of keeping faculty and staff members informed concerning administrative procedures and assignments at D.M. Therrell High School. Realizing that there are unique and unpredictable situations associated with life in a public school, we encourage you to contact our office staff for answers that may not be addressed within these pages.

We wish you the very best for a successful school year.

Your attendance is mandatory for all staff meetings. If a staff member misses a meeting, a plan to makeup the time must be submitted to the Assistant Principal and implemented within one week. Meetings may be called at other times, and in those cases, every attempt will be made to provide 24-hour notice. The Assistant Principal must approve absences from a regularly scheduled faculty or departmental meeting.

2.4 Food Services Hours of Operation

No student should use them when they should be in class.

2.5 Bell Schedule

Our school operates on a 4x8 period bell schedule. Throughout the school year the bell schedule will be adjusted to accommodate the needs of the school and students. When this occurs, a bell schedule will be posted in the Main Office and copies of the schedule will be available for staff.

2.6 Advisory Period

Every student will be assigned an advisory period that will meet every school day. School attendance for students will be reported at the end of this period.

2.7 Announcements

All announcements will be made at designated times during the school day. Most announcements will be made when teachers report students' attendance to school. When requesting permission for announcements to be read, staff members must sign the announcement before it is presented to the front office designee. Only school related announcements will be made. In order to keep faculty and staff informed and to enable them to plan effectively, bulletins, memorandums, or reminders are issued regularly via paper copy or e-mail. It is advisable to keep a notebook or an electronic log of all administrative correspondences. Also, the Principal will send weekly Instructional Reminders. Teachers and staff are responsible for the information therein.

2.9 Checklists: End of Semester, Year, Employment

There are a number of routine matters that must be accomplished at the end of each semester and school term. The administration will provide the appropriate checklists for these. They are to be completed and returned to the Principal's designee as instructed.

2.10 First Day Checklist

Advisory Teacher

1. Call roll and record attendance.
2. Distribute student packets. Tell students that the following items must be returned signed by a parent or guardian: Atlanta Public Schools Student Code of Conduct, and the emergency green card. Every student should return these items and it is the Advisory teacher's responsibility to ensure they are returned.
3. Give students generalized directions (hall passes, restroom, lunch, dismissal, bell schedule, etc.).
4. Instruct students about procedures for school lockers.
5. Begin review of the student handbook.

Classroom Teacher

1. Call roll and record attendance.
2. Identify the class to the students and make sure that all students are in the class for which they are registered.
3. Check Infinite Campus for any updates to the class roster. If a student is in your class, but is not on your class roll, check his or her schedule to make sure the student is assigned to you. If not, send the student with his or her schedule to the correct classroom or to see his or her grade-level counselor.
4. Students with schedule errors should be sent to their grade level counselors. Students who need a schedule change should remain in your class until the schedule change process has been completed.
5. Check the student count for each class to be sure that there are enough books available for each student. All books should have a number, the teacher's name, and the student's name before they are issued. Use the textbook form when distributing books.
6. Enter students' attendance in the computer to indicate they reported to class.

7. Provide students with a copy of a course syllabus. Review academic and behavioral expectations, grading method, and general course content.

Sample First and Second Day of School Plan

1. Introduce yourself. Give the appropriate title and your last name. Students should not call staff members by their first name.
2. Call roll, pronounce each student's name carefully, and avoid nicknames.
3. Make eye contact with each student.
4. Distribute and review the course syllabus. Give students a general understanding of your expectations for the semester by discussing the following:
 - a. A description of the course
 - b. The major objectives of the course
 - c. A brief overview of the course content
 - d. Introduce texts and materials
 - e. Discuss planned reports
 - f. Discuss specific grading procedures
5. Give an overview of your plans for the remainder of the week.
6. Give students an opportunity to ask questions and offer suggestions about the course content and classroom procedures, respectively.
7. Establish and publicize firm, fair, consistent expectations for student behavior. All rules should be enforceable and consequences for violations should be clear.
8. Know your subject and be prepared.
9. Be patient. Be kind, but firm. Be consistent. Be organized.
10. Start INSTRUCTIONAL DELIVERY on Day 1

2.11 End of Day Checklist

Additional information will be given during pre-planning and post-planning.

2.12 Textbooks

Each teacher is to keep an accurate accounting of all textbooks issued to him/her. Lost textbook reports are to be submitted to the department chairpersons.

Occasionally teachers will be asked to conduct a textbook audit and to enter information into an electronic database. Teachers must complete the audit in a timely manner according to the requestor's guideline.

Each teacher is asked to write the student's name in his/her book. Each student should receive a textbook. Each book should contain a book number. As textbooks are issued, students will sign a book receipt form, giving the number and condition of the book. For lost textbooks, teachers will complete a Lost Property form, which is available electronically, and will give to the registrar at the end of the semester or when the student withdraws.

Periodically and on exam day, conduct a book check in class. If a student loses a book, he or she should pay for the book and take his payment receipt, which is obtained from the Principal's secretary, to his/her classroom teacher. The teacher should issue another textbook to the student, following the same procedure as stated above regardless of whether the student pays for the lost book. Fees for lost school property must be before the student's official records are released.

If a student withdraws from school and fails to return his/her textbooks, this should be noted on his/her withdrawal form. The transfer of all student records will be withheld until the books are returned or the charge is paid. In case a pupil transfers from one class to another, the teacher who releases him/her should collect his/her textbook and indicate the date the student returned the textbook on the Textbook Distribution form.

2.13 Interruption of Regular School Schedule

In the event the regular school schedule must be interrupted, an administrator will give notification to each staff member via the intercom or a schedule sent through e-mail or print.

2.14 Procedures for Assemblies

1. Prior to each assembly discuss with students expected decorum and behavior.
2. Inform students to sit only in the areas identified for their grade level section or floor.
3. A designee will announce over the PA system which grade levels or floors should move to the assembly. Students and teachers should remain in their classrooms until the announcement.
4. When going to the assembly, students should leave their books in the classroom/Advisory and cannot bring book-bags to the auditorium unless otherwise specified.
5. Teachers must escort their students to the assembly. Teachers should bring their rosters to each assembly and check attendance. Note that some students may be participating in the program or have checked out early; report missing/absent students to the administration.
6. Teachers should sit with their students in a location where they can easily monitor the students.
7. Teachers without students should also attend the assembly and assist in monitoring students.
8. All monitors should closely watch students and urge students to remain quiet and attentive.
9. Refer students with discipline problems to an administrator.
10. When leaving the assembly, all students and teachers should quickly return to their designated classroom and remain in place until further notice. Students should not go to their lockers. Once students are released from class, they may go to their lockers and move quickly to their next class.

School Security System and False Alarms

To aid in the security of the campus, there is an alarm system that is activated after school activities have ended and students and faculty have exited the buildings. All Therrell visitors will be expected to follow the visitor's protocol. ALL GUESTS MUST BE ESCORTED BY AN EMPLOYEE THROUGHOUT THE BUILDING!! If you see a visitor that is unescorted and/or does not have a visitor's pass, please engage and redirect them to the main office.

1. All visitors must enter through the front of the building during school hours. All minors must be accompanied by a parent/guardian.
2. Visitors must first report to the Main Office.

2.17 Bomb or Weapons Alert Procedure

Evacuation

The safety and well-being of students and staff is critical. In the event of an emergency situation, all staff members are to take an active part in the supervision of students. For example, in the event of evacuation of classrooms or the entire building, teachers who are on planning periods are also responsible for the supervision of students and carrying out required tasks.

In the event of an evacuation follow these general guidelines:

1. Teachers should maintain direct supervision of students and follow them outside, unless instructed otherwise by school administrators.

2. Do not touch any item that may appear out of place or suspicious; report such items to a school administrator.
3. Proceed to the designated safety area with class rolls. Keep the class together and call roll immediately upon evacuation.
4. Do not dismiss any students from under your supervision unless directly instructed to do so by administrators.
5. When given the “all clear” to reoccupy areas after evacuation, classroom teachers and students must report to class. Classroom teachers should call roll a second time. All teachers on planning periods should go to the office for duty assignments.

Civil Disturbance

If a staff member encounters a situation in which a weapon may be involved, hostages taken or any other acts of violence, notify a school administrator immediately. Only adults should handle such notifications; do not entrust a message of this nature with students.

Most acts of violence/terrorism/civil disturbance call for a general lockdown of the campus. The following Intruder Alert Procedure will be used when unauthorized persons gain access to the building and threaten the safety of school personnel and/or students.

Signal - Threat

“Staff, please secure your rooms.” will be stated over the PA system.

Procedure

1. Clear the halls of students by bringing them quickly into a classroom.
2. Ensure that all doors to the classrooms are locked from outside.
3. Do not issue hall passes.
4. Remain calm.
5. Place the appropriately colored folder outside the classroom door to signal classroom status.
6. Open classroom doors for law enforcement personnel or school administrators only.
7. Evacuate only at the announcement of an administrator or law enforcement personnel; disregard all other announcements.

All Clear Signal

“Staff, please unlock your doors.” will be announced over the PA system.

Procedure

1. Unlock classroom doors.
2. Resume normal activities.

If a situation has occurred in the building of a severe or exceptional nature, an explanation to the faculty and/or student body will be issued by the administrators. In some cases, the announcement may be over the PA, and other cases it may be via an e-mail or letter.

2.18 Fire Drill Information

Fire drills will be conducted monthly. The Safety Committee will provide staff members more information.

1. At the sound of the fire alarm, everyone will stop talking, leave their books, and move in a single-file from the room to the designated area. THE NO-TALKING RULE WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED DURING THE DRILLS.
2. Fire drill routes to be followed are posted in each room.
3. Students will evacuate to their designated area with their teachers, line up and answer roll call.
4. At the sound of the bell, which represents “all clear”, students and staff will move quietly back into the building and return directly to their classroom.
5. Check roll once the class has arrived at its destination.

Duties for Fire Monitors

Teachers are to assign one student and one student alternate as Fire Monitors for each class to:

1. Close all doors.
2. Check the room to make sure it is clear of students.
3. Be the last person in line to the designated area.

2.19 Tornado Drill Procedure

Tornado drills will be conducted throughout the school year. The Safety Committee will provide staff members with more information.

Tornado Watch

When weather conditions favor the development of a tornado in the area, review tornado plans and be prepared to respond to a warning. At the sound of the tornado alarm, everyone will stop talking, leave their books, and listen to instructions. THE NO-TALKING RULE WILL BE STRICTLY ENFORCED DURING THE DRILLS.

Tornado Warning

When a tornado has been sighted in the area, the following emergency plans will go into effect immediately.

1. Tornado warning alarm will sound.
2. The teacher should escort the students into the halls as far as possible from those corridors that contain glass and take attendance to account for all students.
3. If doors leading to tornado resistant areas contain glass, doors should be opened against the adjacent wall.
4. Students should be given the command “assume the protective position.” They are to drop to their knees and elbows while covering the backs of their necks and heads with their hands. (Teachers who are designated as monitors will help supervise students.)
5. If students have coats or jackets with them, those should be used as blankets to provide additional protection for their heads, necks, and bodies.
6. If there is not time to move students, have them assume the protective position under their desks or other heavy furniture.
7. No one should leave the shelter area until the “all clear” is sounded. This is important because a storm may spawn more than one tornado funnel, and a single funnel may behave erratically.

All Clear Signal

“All clear.” will be announced over the PA system.

Procedure

1. Return to the classroom.
2. Unlock classroom doors.
3. Resume normal activities.
4. Review what happened and discuss needed improvements.

2.20 Calendars and Facilities Request

Facilities Request

All school activities must be included on the master calendar, which will be maintained by the Assistant Principal over facilities. Before an activity is placed on the calendar, a request form must be filled and submitted to the designee. Requests for use of the school’s facilities must be completed at least 3 weeks in advance.

Calendars

Staff members should submit announcements of activities to the calendar designee at least 3 weeks before the events. If the deadline for submission is missed, the Principal must approve the activity prior to the event. At the beginning of each month, all school activities posted on the school calendar will be distributed to the staff via e-mail. Staff is requested to pay attention to upcoming events, announce them in class, and post the calendar in classrooms or work areas.

2.21 Classroom Care

The custodial staff makes every effort to keep your classroom clean. Teachers and students share the responsibility for cleanliness. Teachers should see to it that their students clean up and straighten up after each activity. Teachers should have their students clean up their areas at the end of the period.

2.22 Communication to Parents and Others

Teachers are required to communicate regularly, especially with parents. When a student falls behind in homework, is excessively tardy or absent, or when he is achieving at a level beneath his ability, that child's parent MUST be called by the teacher. A positive teacher-parent relationship is essential in order to achieve excellence. A parent contact log must be maintained in Infinite Campus.

Parent Conferences

You are encouraged to enlist the support of parents in providing the education of their child by scheduling parent conferences. Conferences by phone or in person are effective means by which this aim is accomplished. Parental requests for conferences may be scheduled through the counseling office or with teachers.

Whenever a conference is scheduled, the members of the staff involved are expected to arrive at the designated place on time and should be prepared to answer questions related to the student's academic and behavioral progress. It is important for you to offer your best professional recommendation in writing regarding what the student and parents can do to promote and to help the student achieve academic success. A computer-generated grade report (progress report) MUST be given to the parent.

If an unavoidable conflict arises on the day of the conference, the teacher must call the parent and reschedule the conference within two days of the originally scheduled conference. The counselor and/or administrator who requested the conference must be notified. If an emergency arises and a conference cannot be rescheduled, the teacher must prepare and give the required documentation for the conference as requested to the counselor and/or administrator.

Phone Calls

Staff members, especially teachers, are expected to return all phone calls within 24 hours of receiving a request to return a phone call. Phone calls must be documented on the call log in Infinite Campus.

The school is not responsible for paying postage for personal mail. Stamped mail should be placed in the basket designated “Stamped”.

Inter-Office Mail

If a staff member needs to send information to another school or department within the system, he/she must use a brown mailer envelope (found in the Main Office). The mailer is addressed and placed in the basket designated “Interoffice”. If a staff member receives an item in a county mailer envelope, he or she should return the envelope to the Main Office for re-circulation.

2.25 Telephone Use

Cell phones for students should not be visible and turned off. Students have access to school phones before and after school. Students may not be excused from class to use the phones unless there is a bona fide emergency. If so, send the student to the Assistant Principal. Staff members should not use cell phones in students’ presence unless they are calling the students’ parents or guardians.

School phones are for school business. Teachers are not able to make long distance calls without administrative approval.

A variety of A/V materials and equipment is available from the Principal's designee. Teachers are encouraged to make use of the available technology in the delivery of instruction. Teachers will be held responsible for equipment and materials in their possession. The teacher must pay replacement cost for lost or damaged equipment and material before the end of the school year.

Laptops

All classroom teachers are given a laptop computer by the Atlanta Public Schools Board of Education. The teacher is responsible for his or her laptop and its peripherals. Replacement of the computer or any part of the computer due to negligence is the teacher's responsibility. If the teacher transfers, the teacher must complete a transfer request form this is found in the Media Center. If the teacher leaves Atlanta Public Schools, the teacher must return the computer and its peripherals to the Media Center.

Laptop Carts

Laptop carts are available for student use. Staff members checking out carts must complete a request form. Teachers who are assigned a laptop from Atlanta Public Schools are not allowed to checkout or to use individual student laptops for personal or school use.

Photocopying and Printing

Staff members may use the copier in the teacher workrooms. Teacher must inform the front desk office if the copier is broken. Printing is very limited because each office and classroom has a printer from which printing can be done.

Usage

The Media Center should be used throughout the school day. It will open at 8:00 AM and will close at 4:15 PM. Students are allowed to work in the Media Center before and after school providing a classroom teacher or media specialist gives them a Media Center pass. Students may also go to the Media Center during their lunch period; however, the student must obtain a pass from a media specialist.

Teachers who take classes to the Media Center must complete a Media Center Usage Form five (5) days prior to bringing the class to the library; otherwise, the teacher and class will not be allowed entry. If students are to use computers, the teacher must provide a written document that outlines what students should know and be able to do. If students are to visit websites, the sites must be included in the document. The assignment must be given to a media specialist the day the teacher reports to the Media Center.

Staff members are to leave the library clean, neat and organized after use. Staff members are not allowed to use library computers when students are using them. Students have first priority to all library resources.

Videos

Any use of a video requires prior approval from the department chair and must be written into the weekly lesson plan. A copy of the listening guide must accompany the lesson plan. The title and rating of the video must be stated in the lesson plan. Any video with a rating higher than “PG” must have the approval of the Principal Refer to information copyright laws available in the media center.

Turning lights off during the showing of videotape is not permissible. Teachers must move among students to ensure students are attentive and alert. The showing of videos is not allowed during the last two weeks of each semester or the Friday before a break.

Students

Students should not bring personal property to school unless needed for a specific approved activity (e.g. for a class project). Students should have a signed note from the teacher indicating how the equipment is to be used. Administrators and teachers will confiscate such property until the students’ parents/guardians come to the school for a conference and to pick up the confiscated item. The school cannot be held responsible for stolen items.

All students' records will be withheld until debts are paid.

2.31 Staff Parking

3.0 Curriculum/Academic Policies

3.1 The Syllabus

Each teacher will provide a syllabus for each course to be taught. Copies of all syllabi are to be submitted to the respective assistant principal for approval prior to the end of the first week of the semester. Syllabi are to contain the following as minimum requirements, which will be discussed and defined more clearly in departmental meetings.

1. Course name
2. Teacher's name, school phone number, work email address, room number, and link to teacher website, tutorial days & times
3. Course description
4. Academic and behavioral expectations
5. Methods of Instruction
6. Materials
7. Content weights
7. Instructional unit outline (to include major content/assignments, projects, etc. with due dates)
8. Course standards
9. Specific, comprehensive grading procedures, including extra credit and bonus points
10. Assessment information
11. Make-up policy
12. Academic integrity policy

Teachers must have parents and students sign the syllabus receipt form and return a copy to the teacher. Any amendments to the syllabus during the course of the semester must have the assistant principal's approval and be published for the class and parents. In the case of a grade appeal or administrative parent conference, the Principal will request a copy of the syllabus and the signed receipt form.

3.2 Lesson Plan Policy

It is the policy of the Atlanta Public Schools that all teachers develop instructional plans on a long term and daily basis. All teachers are required to print and post a copy of the weekly lesson plan in their classrooms no later than 8:00 AM of the first day of each workweek. All teachers must use the designated lesson plan format.

Daily agendas should be exhibited on the classroom board. Included in the agendas are the daily student objective, the Common Core Georgia Professional Standards (CCGPS), and daily assignments.

Lesson plans must reflect curriculum requirements specified by the Atlanta Public Schools' Board of Education Course Guides (Core Curriculum, Scope and Sequence, etc...). Teachers should see their department chair for the appropriate course guide for all courses they are assigned to teach.

- All teachers using the district's Core Curriculum are expected to use the supplied lesson planning materials in accordance to the prescribed scope and sequence. All other teachers in non-Core Curriculum courses are expected to develop written daily lesson plans for each course assigned. Within the lesson plans, all non-traditional activities must be highlighted.
- All teachers are expected to maintain a current observation folder/notebook in a readily accessible place in the classroom. This folder will contain the course syllabus for each course taught with the current week's lesson plan and any tests, quizzes, handouts, worksheets, and other materials being used that week.
- Instructional coaches will review each department member's lesson plans weekly and make recommendations when necessary. Copies of the lesson plan evaluations must be made available to the teacher and the Principal. Any serious problem should be reported to the Principal immediately.

Lesson plans, which should be posted in the classroom, on the back of the classroom door must contain the following items.

1. Instructional objectives stated in behavioral terms
2. Lesson content
3. Instructional methods
4. Instructional materials and /or equipment
5. Methods of evaluation (formative and summative)
6. Homework

A daily agenda should be on the board in every classroom. It should include your standards, essential questions, warm up activities, instructional method, homework assignments and assessment methods.

A behavioral objective is a goal for, or a desired outcome of, learning that is expressed in terms of observable behavior or performance of the learner. Behavioral objectives should reflect low levels to high levels of learning (Depth of Understanding).

Test or evaluation items must be easily matched to the objectives they measure. These items should consist of a variety of questions: essay, multiple-choice, short answer, etc. Items should vary in levels of difficulty.

3.3 Extra Help Days

Teachers are required to remain after school at least one day per week until at least 4:30 PM to provide extra help for those students in need of extra assistance. The day to remain will be decided within each department, and the day will be published on the school's website and the main school calendar.

Teachers who for any reason are not able to attend the scheduled tutorial day should rearrange the date and time and inform the students and parents to ensure students have access to help after school. The respective assistant principal should be aware of the change of day.

3.4 Instructional Time on Task

Teachers should pay systemic attention to the way time is used in the classroom. Consider the following information from the research literature on this subject. Teachers are expected to participate in staff/professional development activities that will hone their instructional methodology skills.

Summary of research on effective classroom characteristics and practices indicates:

1. Instruction is guided by a pre-planned curriculum.
2. There are high expectations for student learning.
3. The focus for the lesson is clearly established.
4. Instruction is clear and focused on achievement of lesson objectives.
5. The learning process is monitored closely.
6. Feedback is immediate, meaningful, and constant.
7. When students do not understand, they are re-taught. Results of formative and summative evaluations indicate the students' level of mastery.
8. The entire class time is used for learning.
9. There are smooth and efficient class routines and transitions between activities.
10. Instructional groups formed in the classroom fit instructional needs.

11. Standards for classroom behavior are explicit.
12. Personal interactions between teachers and students are positive.
13. Incentives and rewards for students are used to promote excellence.
14. Differentiated instructional strategies aligned with UDL (Universal Design for Learning) principles.

Use the recommendations below to improve the use of instructional time-on task:

1. Start the lesson on time.
2. Do not finish the lesson before the dismissal bell rings.
3. Vary the method used to present the lesson within the class periods.
4. Encourage student-to-students interaction with clear purpose and instructions.
5. Use seatwork activity with care.
6. Gauge the level of assigned tasks. A task that is too easy wastes time; too difficult a task can frustrate.

3.5 Grade Books

All mid-semester and end-of-semester grades should be calculated in accordance with the procedures published in the syllabi and the Atlanta Public Schools grading policy. Only scores recorded in the grade book should be included in the calculations. Individual students are not to be awarded “additional” or “compensatory” points without reason. In order to document grades appropriately, roll books must be maintained in a uniform manner. The grade book, electronically maintained via Infinite Campus, must include the following components. A minimum of two grades weekly is a non-negotiable at DMTHS)

1. The teacher’s name, period, semester, course name, and course number.
2. Students’ name, contact information, and book number (if possible).
3. Each grade recorded should be clearly labeled, stating the possible number of points and the name of the assignment. Separate categories for daily grades/ classwork grade, homework, quizzes, tests, and projects should be distinguishable. Grades must be recorded as numbers rather than letters and marks. Numerical averages, not letter grades, are used are grade reporting periods.
4. Each student’s absence should be recorded under the corresponding day with an indication whether the absence is excused or unexcused. Class periods missed due to school activities and/or alternative instructional activities are not counted as absences; however, do note that the student was not in class. Arrangements to make-up assignments may be made in advance for school-sponsored activities.
5. At the end of each semester, print the summary of grades for each class and bind the pages. Turn in the summaries, textbook distribution forms, and parent contact logs to the Principal’s designee.

3.6 Evaluating and Grading Students

A progress report will be prepared for each student nine times during the academic year. Parents and students have access to individual students’ grades via the internet; therefore, all grades must be maintained electronically and updated weekly so that the grades are kept current.

Since any grading system is dependent upon sufficient and adequate sample student work to aid in establishing the validity of the grade, the semester grade is to be based on an average of about two grades per week. Teachers MUST provide students a minimum of two grades per week. This is a non-negotiable.

Though it is recognized that the number of grades may not alter the grade for most students, it does help to establish that the grade for the student is based on a very comprehensive sample of the semester’s work.

Since corrective feedback is vitally important to students' academic progress, all graded assignments should provide students with an assessment of how to improve or to enhance their performance in the class. Use rubrics wherever possible. These should be made available to students with the assignment instructions. Also, students are to receive feedback on their tests, papers, project, and etcetera before a new assignment is given. For example, a test must be graded and returned before another test is given. Teachers must consider giving students an opportunity to redo their work allowing for them to make the suggested corrections or to retake their tests (before or after school only) for an improved grade.

Differentiating Instruction by Ability and Learning Style

When students of more than one intellectual or ability level are enrolled in a class, lesson plans should reflect an adjustment of the workload and a modification of the grading and instructional procedures to meet the students' needs and abilities. Furthermore, the learning styles of students should be determined early in the school year and that information should be recorded and used when planning. Lesson plan modifications should be evident for the varying learning styles.

3.7 Grades for Late Entry Students

When students enter from another school after a semester has begun, each of the student's teachers will receive an electronic copy of the students' current transfer grades from the counselor or registrar. The notification will indicate the time period covered by the grades. The inclusion of student's transfer grades should be made in such a manner that it is fair and equitable.

If a student transfers within to the school during an exam period, the student must take the teacher's exam. The weight of the exam should not exceed 10% unless it is an end-of-course test.

3.8 Extra Credit and Bonus Points

All assignments that are truly worthwhile should be part of the course requirements rather than extra credit. However, there may be occasions when extra credit assignments are appropriate. This will be left to each department/teacher. If a teacher/department does elect to offer extra credit assignments, the offer must be made to all students. At no time should students have to purchase items or donate money to receive extra credit.

3.9 Conduct Grades

At each grading period, the teacher will award each student the academic grade and the conduct grade he/she has earned. The conduct grade is a measure of how well the student conformed to the published rules of the classroom and does not influence the student's academic grade.

3.10 Grading Scale and Quality Points

Grading Scale

A = 90 - 100	Excellent achievement
B = 80 - 89	Above average achievement
C = 70 - 79	Average achievement
F = 0 - 69	Failure to achieve (Parents must have been called and letter mailed home)

Georgia Milestones Assessments

Students enrolled in 9th and 11th Grade Literature, Algebra 1, Geometry, US History, Economics, Physical Science and Biology must take the associated Georgia Milestones Assessment when they are eligible to receive 1.0 (0.5 credit first semester and 0.5 credit second semester) credit for the courses.

Advanced Placement

College freshmen level courses designed by the College Board are offered in several areas. They are a part of the regular curriculum and are counted with other courses toward graduation requirements.

Students desiring to enroll in the Advanced Placement (AP) program should talk to the AP teacher and his or her counselor. Students enrolled in AP courses are expected to take the AP exams.

Students who earn a “C” or above in an AP class earn one additional quality point for computing their grade point average. Students whose final semester averages are 70 or above are awarded an additional 10 points to their final grade. Students who earn a grade below 70 during first semester may be moved out of the AP course for second semester.

For additional information about AP courses, visit www.collegeboard.org. Teachers who want to teach AP course should tell his or her department chair or the Principal.

Grade Book Requirements:

The descriptors in the grade-book must identify the standard or the unit that will be evaluated and or assessed.

3.11 Due Dates and Deadlines

It is important that teachers meet all due dates. Failure to meet established due dates and deadlines may result in an unsatisfactory evaluation.

3.12 Monitoring Progress/Informing Parents

Data Wall

Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School teachers are required to monitor student progress and to report that progress to the appropriate people, the student, and his or her parent. To keep students abreast of their progress, teachers are expected to discuss the progress with each student in their class. Teachers may post progress charts or graphs, however, without making a direct reference to the student or his/her social security number.

Parent Notification

Any time a student is not performing up to his or her ability, the teacher is to telephone the parent and log the phone call on the parent contact log sheet and in Infinite Campus. Early intervention is always preferable to late explanations.

3.13 Daily Assignments and Make-Up

Students who miss daily assignments due to excused absences, which are supported by written documentation, are allowed to make the work up within three class periods upon his/her return to school. All inquiries and arrangements for making up tests, class work, and other assignments after absences are the responsibility of the student, not the teacher. Students who fail to inquire about or arrange for make-up will receive no credit, zeros, for missed assignments.

3.14 Grade Appeals

Occasionally, a student will believe that he or she was not fairly awarded the grade that he or she earned in a class. In such instances, the student should follow the grade appeal process. The appeal should proceed as follows in a timely manner:

1. Discuss the grade appeal with the teacher.
2. The student will complete the grade appeal form and will write an explanation for the request of a change and submit it to the teacher.
3. If the teacher does not approve of the appeal, he or she must provide a short written explanation explaining why the appeal is denied. The form is signed by the teacher, assistant principal and then forwarded to the Principal.
4. If the teacher approves of the grade change request, he or she will complete the grade change form, secure the signatures of the assistant principal and principal, and then submit it to the student's counselor. The counselor will process the grade change.
5. If a grade change is needed because the teacher did not properly notify the parent and student that the student was failing or was in jeopardy of failing, then the following procedures are followed. The teacher and student will enter into a contract that outlines how the student can earn at least a grade of 70. The student will complete the assignments and will give the work to the teacher to evaluate. The teacher will evaluate the student's work and will include the new grades to determine the student's final grade for the course. The new grade is the grade that is reported on the grade change form, which is obtained from the counselors. The teacher will complete the request for grade change form and will follow step 4 outlined above.

3.15 Homework

Students are to be given homework in accordance to the policy. The homework assignments may be written and/or reading assignments. Homework is to be factored into the student's final grade as described in Section 3.6. Teachers are to assign and grade homework on a regular basis. If a student is inconsistent with homework or if the student is doing poorly on homework assignments, the parent should be notified immediately in order to be able to monitor the student's homework at home.

If students need assistance, they may use the homework hotline. This is a useful technological tool to help students complete their homework. Teachers should familiarize students and themselves with the procedures involved in using the homework hotline system. [Availability of Homework Hotline is dependent upon the school district.]

3.16 Plagiarism/Cheating

Cheating and plagiarism are considered very serious academic offenses. Any student who plagiarizes or cheats is to be referred to the administration along with the supporting evidence. The teacher must contact the parent for a conference and refer the student to the grade level administrator. The student will be given a "0" for that assignment, and a parent conference with the teacher must be held. The student may also be suspended from school.

3.17 Report Cards

Atlanta Public Schools progress report and report cards are issued throughout the school year. See the district's grade reporting calendar.

All teachers use Infinite Campus to maintain students' grades. When grades are electronically maintained on Infinite Campus, grades are automatically uploaded to the Student Information Management System.

Teacher must weekly update grades to inform parents and students of students' performance.

Teachers are required to verify that students who will receive a grade of 'F' have been given proper notification and parents have been contacted via mail or phone calls. Teachers with numerous grading errors or failures to follow proper procedures related to students' grades will be placed on a Professional Development Plan (PDP).

Each progress report and report card should reflect an accurate accounting of student attendance, conduct, and academic performance. Except for the final report card, these reports will be distributed through Advisory. Advisory teachers should obtain student signatures indicating that these reports have been received by students.

Teachers are also reminded to distribute individual student progress reports every fourth Friday.

When students are earning a grade of 'C' or below, teachers must contact parents. Evidence of parent contact must take place within ten days of a student falling between 73% - 70%. The parent contact must take place by way of the following methods:

1. Telephone Contact
2. Email- You must copy your department chair, and the counselor
3. Parent Conference

3.18 Mid-term and Final Exams

Cumulative exams are required at mid-semester and end of semester for all students. A special exam schedule will be posted for these exams. Furthermore, Core Curriculum Benchmark assessments will be administered; however, the results ARE NOT included in the students' overall average.

3.19 Field Trips

Update will be provided to the faculty.

3.20 Guest Speakers/Lecturers

Teachers are encouraged to invite experts into the classroom for guest lectures, seminars, etc. These events should be relevant to the unit currently being taught and should be part of the lesson plan for that week. All teachers must have prior approval of the Principal before inviting a guest speaker to campus.

3.21 Permanent Records

Permanent records for all students are housed in the Counseling and Guidance Department's office. Teachers are encouraged to make use of these in planning course work, assessing progress, and assisting individual students. Teachers may not remove these records from the office. Students may not handle permanent record cards for any reason.

3.22 Promotion Requirements

In order for students to be promoted to the next grade level, students must have the following minimum hours. A one-semester course that is passed with a grade of 'C' or above is equivalent to 7.5 hours or one-half unit.

4.0 Student Attendance and Accounting

4.1 Attendance Reporting

Checking Students' Attendance

School begins for students at 8:45 AM. Attendance is to be taken daily in each class within the first fifteen minutes of class using Infinite Campus. All teachers are required to check attendance daily. State policy prohibits allowing any student to take the roll. It is the sole responsibility of the teacher. Advisory and classroom teachers are also to verify absence excuses of students returning to school after an absence, and to code the absence.

1. Take attendance daily. Accuracy is essential.
2. Follow the procedures described in Infinite Campus for marking students absent.
3. Attendance must be completed by 9:00 AM by the students' Advisory teacher.
4. The attendance clerk will create an attendance bulletin with the names of all students marked absent or tardy. This bulletin will be distributed electronically when it is completed. Read your e-mail. At least one copy will be housed in the Attendance Office.
5. Report to the attendance clerk the names of any students who have been seen on campus yet their names appear on the absentee roster.
6. Infinite Campus will be used to contact parents of absent students. Even though computer technology will be used to phone parents, teachers still should contact parents when students are absent three or more days during the school semester.
7. The attendance office, Advisory teacher, and classroom teacher must attempt to contact the home of each absent student on a daily basis. This still does not excuse the student from bringing an absentee note.
8. A written excuse must be presented to the attendance clerk the day the student returns to school, the excuse must be placed in the student's file. The clerk will give students an absentee form to circulate among teachers. Teachers should ask for the note and sign it. Encourage students to keep the notes on file. Excusable reasons for absence are:
 - a. Illness
 - b. Medical, dental, legal appointments
 - c. Religious absences
 - d. Death in family
9. If a student is absent or tardy three or more days in a semester, the Advisory teacher and classroom teacher must contact the parent. The contact must be documented on the Parent Call Log and in Infinite Campus.
10. If the student continues to be absent or tardy to Advisory or class, after the third occurrence, the attendance clerk must send a letter home to the parent. A copy of the letter is enclosed in the teachers' attendance information packet. If a student is absent or tardy five or more days in a semester, the attendance clerk sends letters home and conducts an attendance hearing with the parent and student. When it has been determined the student has five unexcused absences, the teacher should complete and submit a referral form to the student's grade level counselor. If a student accumulates 10 or more days of unexcused absences, his or her driver's licenses are revoked or, the student becomes ineligible to receive an attendance certificate to get driver's licenses or his or her permit.

Absentee Verification

When students submit written notification for an absence these notifications should be submitted to the attendance office. Each teacher is responsible for maintaining up-to-date student attendance records, which includes dates of absence and reasons for the absences.

For absences of any reason, a note signed by the parent or guardian stating dates and reasons must be presented to the attendance clerk. The attendance clerk must file the excuse in the student's folder. The attendance clerk will give the student an absentee note for circulation. If the student does not present a written note from the attendance office or the original documentation, the absence is recorded as unexcused. If a student presents the documentation for his or her absentee to the teacher, collect the documentation, write the absentee note, give the note to the student, and give the original documentation to the attendance clerk.

It is desirable to contact the parents as soon as a student is absent and the reason is not known for the same. It is expected that definite contact will be established after the third consecutive day of absence.

4.2 Late Arrival to Class

Punctuality is a key component to the operational structure at Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School. Excessive tardiness to class will not be tolerated. All teachers will be standing at their classroom door during student transition ushering students to class. At the ringing of the tardy bell, all students must be in class—no excuses). Teachers will follow the tardy policy listed below:

D.M. THERRELL HIGH SCHOOL

Tardy To Class Policy

2021-2022

Any student arriving to class after ten (10) minutes is considered skipping. A skipping referral will be written and submitted to the appropriate administrator for disciplinary actions.

1st tardy: Teacher warning

2nd tardy: Teacher and contacts parent

3rd tardy: Teacher issues detention and contacts parent

4th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned one day after-school detention Wednesday or Thursday (3:45pm – 4:30pm)

5th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned two days after-school detention Wednesday or Thursday (3:45pm – 4:30pm)

Students who arrive to school 5 minutes late (8:45 – 8:55) of class will report to class and the teacher will adhere to the progressive tardy policy.

Students who arrive to school after 9:15 am will report to the administrative office to be processed through the Tardy System. A tardy slip will be given to the student who will then be sent to class; the teacher will collect the tardy slip and make sure the student has arrived within six (6) minutes of the time printed on the slip. The teacher will adhere to the progressive tardy policy for unexcused tardies.

1st tardy: Teacher warning

2nd tardy: Teacher and contacts parent

3rd tardy: Teacher issues detention and contacts parent

4th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned one day after-school detention Wednesday or Thursday (3:45pm – 4:30pm)

5th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned two days after-school detention Wednesday or Thursday (3:45pm – 4:30pm)

6th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned one (1) day Saturday detention/work detail (8:30am – 10:30am)

8th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned two (2) days In School Suspension (ISS).

9th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned Three (3) days In School Suspension (ISS).

10th tardy: Student receives office referral, assigned one (1) day Out of School Suspension (OSS).

Note: There will be no hall passes during the first 20 and the last 20 minutes of every class. At the beginning of each class students will be engaged in a warm up learning activity and not in the corridors. At the end of each class, students will be engaged in a culminating learning activity and not in the corridors. No excuses!

All students are expected to report to each class on time. No teacher is to delay a student after class, thus making the student tardy to his or her next class. Classroom teachers are to record all tardies in the roll book as either excused or unexcused.

Tardiness to class will be monitored and controlled by the respective teacher. A student is tardy if he/she is not in the classroom before the ending of the tardy bell. Continuous tardiness will result in referral to the social worker and grade level administrator. The conduct grade the student earns will also reflect the student's promptness to class.

Doors should NOT BE LOCKED at any time as a means of keeping students in or out of the classroom. The teacher should take the following measures in dealing with a tardy student:

1. Begin class with a bell ringer activity that may count as credit. The assignment is due at the end of the tardy bell.
2. Tell seniors they will not be eligible for exam exemption (second semester) if they are tardy.
3. Monitor the hall and strongly encourage your students to enter into the classroom and begin working.
4. Enforce the aforementioned policy.

4.3 Tardy to School/Tardy Slip

Class begins at 8:30 a.m. All students are expected to be physically inside their classroom before the ringing of the bell. No exceptions. At the ringing of the tardy bell, all teachers will close and commence Advisory activities. Tardy students must report to the designated person on the hallway to be processed. No tardies will be excused unless a student is signed-in by a parent in the administrative office. No students will be allowed to check-in at the attendance office after 9:00 a.m. without being accompanied by a parent listed on the parent information screen or emergency contact card. Parents will only be permitted five opportunities to excuse tardies over the course of the school year. Consequences for excessive tardies to school are as listed above.

4.4 Early Dismissal

Any student checking out of school must present a note from his or her parent or guardian to the attendance clerk. Early dismissal notes must be brought to the attendance office between 8:00 AM and 9:00 A.M. All requests to leave school must include the student's name, reason for leaving, departure time, return time, and parent/guardian contact information. Students will not be allowed to leave campus if the clerk cannot verify the request.

Once the student has been approved to leave school, the student will sign-out in the attendance office. The clerk will complete the check-in/check-out form for the student to present to his or her teachers when he or she returns to school.

4.5 Enrolling Students in Class

The only way a student can enroll in class is for the student to present an official schedule, which is prepared by the counselor, to the teacher. At that time, the student is officially enrolled in class. By the time a student enters class his or her name should appear in Infinite Campus. Check Infinite Campus daily for updates.

The teacher at no time can deny students access to his or her class if the student presents a schedule. If the class is overcrowded or overloaded, inform the counselor. Do not insult or offend the student by sending the student out of class.

4.6 Withdrawal from Class Once Enrolled

After a student enrolls in class, that teacher is responsible for the student until he or she officially withdraws from that class. If a student is absent from class five consecutive days, check with the Registrar to determine if the student has withdrawn from class and follow attendance reporting procedures. Check Infinite Campus for updates. There are only two ways a student can officially withdraw from class:

1. The student may have his or her schedule officially changed. Check to see the student's new schedule to determine if the student is enrolled in the class. Also, check Infinite Campus to see if the student's name has been added or deleted.
2. The student withdraws from school: a withdrawal form will be circulated and teachers are notified via e-mail. Teachers are to complete the form, collect the textbook, and indicate the withdrawal date on the textbook distribution form. If the student does not return textbooks or school property, complete and submit a lost property/debt obligation form. Attach the form to the withdrawal form.

5.0 Student Discipline Procedures

5.1 Classroom Discipline

Each teacher is responsible for the discipline of his or her students. Teachers who have well-planned and engaging lessons rarely experience discipline problems. Teachers who have class rules clearly posted, and who have an orderly learning environment characterized by fairness and consistency generally have well-disciplined students and well-managed classrooms. Occasionally, teachers have students who fail to respond to the most brilliant lesson plan and most nurturing environment, and elect to act out in ways that disrupt the instruction. It is expected that each teacher will deal with these behaviors before they get out of hand. Teachers may keep students after school or assign other appropriate penalties for acting out. Experience and research show that telephoning the parent and holding mandatory conferences with the parent are the most effective strategy in correcting student misbehavior. Should these efforts fail, the administrator and counselor are able to recommend other strategies that the teacher may find effective.

Once the teacher has contacted the parent, conferred with the parent, and exhausted other strategies for behavior modification and the problem persists, the student should be referred to the grade level administrator for official sanctions. The teacher should send a referral form and the supporting documentation to the administrator stating the problem, steps that have been taken to correct the problem, and other pertinent information. TEACHERS ARE NOT TO PUT STUDENTS OUT OF CLASS!

5.2 Bus Regulations

Buses will leave five (5) minutes after the end of the school day (3:45 P.M.)

Students on school buses are under the jurisdiction of the school. Any misconduct on buses will be considered a major infraction. Misbehavior on buses is subject to indefinite suspension from riding the buses. If warranted, criminal charges will be filed.

5.3 Dress Code

Students are expected to be in uniform designed for their particular grade level. No exceptions! Teachers must encourage students to follow the school dress code.

5.4 Detention

Teachers may detain students after school either as punishment or to make up work missed. A teacher must hold his or her own detention. In assigning teacher detention, students must be given a 24-hour notice. The teacher must notify the student's parent(s). A record of attendance must be kept, along with the reason the student was detained. This record is helpful when holding parent conferences or referring the student to the counselors, social worker, administrator and Student Support Team.

If the detention assigned by the teacher is not served, contact the parent and reschedule the detention. If it not served after contacting the parent and rescheduling the detention, refer the student to the appropriate administrator.

5.5 Disciplinary Referrals

If it becomes necessary to refer a student to the administrator for serious misconduct, the teacher should complete a disciplinary referral form on the student indicating the behavior and any pertinent circumstances surrounding the conduct and all previous actions taken. The referral forms, which are housed in the Main Office, should be used judiciously and given to the appropriate administrator. Use the following guideline to determine when to refer a student to an administrator. Daniel McLaughlin Therrell

High School tracks all referrals by staff member and department. This data is used to help craft the school discipline plan and to measure the effectiveness of the staff and the plan.

The school resource officer (SRO) is not to be contacted in the referral process. If an administrator includes the SRO, then the staff member may contact him.

5.6 Return from Suspension

When a student's infraction warrants out-of-school suspension (OSS), the student will be sent home for the required number of days. The student's suspension status will be updated in Infinite Campus.

5.7 Hall Passes

Any student on the hall during class time must have a hall pass. No hall passes should be issued, unless there is an emergency or extenuating circumstances. Talk to the student without the pass to ascertain why he or she is illegally on the hall and then send the student to class. If the student is skipping or truant, refer the student to his or her counselor. Teachers must not give students permission to leave class unless it is absolutely unavoidable. Some acceptable reasons to release students from class are: emergency restroom use, student is visibly upset and needs to see a counselor or an administrator, student is summoned by administrators or their designee, or the student is to checkout from school. If the teacher does send the student into the hall, the student must be given a hall pass with the teacher's name. Teachers should monitor the time students leave and return to class. Teachers should follow the 20-20 rule at all times. Students should not be issued hall passes during the first and last 20 minutes of class (No Exceptions). Teachers may encourage students to refrain from asking to leave by awarding incentives for those who do not request to leave class.

5.8 Transition Policy

Punctuality is a key component to the operational structure at Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School. All teachers will be standing at their classroom door during student transition ushering students to class. At the ringing of the tardy bell, all students must be in class—no excuses.

5.9 Lockers

Lockers are distributed and accounted for by the assistant principal. Locker distribution begins the fourth day of school. Lockers are free and will be assigned based on Advisory location. Students are not allowed to use their own pad/combination locks or share lockers. Students who do not follow the rules for using lockers will have a school issued lock placed on the locker until further notice. Teachers are not to send students to their lockers for any reason once the students are in class.

Locker Rental Procedures for Advisory Teachers

1. The Principal designee will issue a locker list to each Advisory teacher indicating the lockers allocated to that Advisory. In most cases, these lockers will be located close to the Advisory.
2. Prior to issuing lockers, open each assigned locker to make sure that the listed combination for that locker is correct. If the locker does not function properly, write the number down and a description of the problem and give it to the assistant principal.
3. After the third (3rd) day of school, begin issuing to eligible students lockers.
4. Record the student's name on the locker list when it is rented.

5. Stress to the students proper locker usage and the danger of sharing lockers. Tell students their lockers may be searched.

5.10 Student Use of Alcohol, Tobacco and Drugs

Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School is a drug-free school zone. Teachers should immediately report to the administration any student who is suspected to be under the influence or have in his or her possession or attempting to sell use or distribute any tobacco product, alcoholic beverage or drugs on the school grounds, school bus, or at any school activity.

5.11 Weapons

Teachers should report to the administrator any student or teacher who is suspected of possessing a weapon or supplying a dangerous instrument on school property or at a school event.

5.12 School Dances and Social Functions

Dance Regulations for Sponsors

1. Submit a written request (Fund-Raising Form) to hold a dance, and discuss plans with the Principal at least four weeks prior to the proposed date of the dance.
2. Arrange for advanced tickets, signed letters from school officials for guests, coat check, etc. D.M. Therrell High students must have a picture ID and admission tickets in order to enter the dance.
3. Have approval for the dance, and get it cleared on the calendar at least two weeks before the dance takes place. The principal reserves the option to cancel any function.
4. Submit one week prior to the dance the names of at least seven adult chaperones and at least one administrator. Encourage parent chaperones to attend.
5. Arrange for police coverage one (1) officer for every 50 students and assume the cost.
6. No Outside guest(s) will be allowed.
7. Assume the responsibility for custodial costs incurred by the dance. One custodian must be present to open and secure the building. If necessary, custodial overtime will be charged to the sponsoring organization.
8. Select a DJ who is sensitive to certain songs that may be offensive or demeaning to certain groups.
9. Confirm all arrangements at least three (3) school days before the affair.
10. Ensure that all chaperones remain at the dance for the entire time, beginning to end.
11. Remain at the school until all students have left the school grounds.

Every student who attends the dance will be required to show an I.D. card. Guests are not allowed to attend school-site dances. Tickets for the dance will not be sold three days before the dance or at the door on the day of the dance.

Hours

All dances must end by 10:00 PM. Parents should make arrangements to pick up their children by 10:30 PM. All students must leave the campus by 10:45 PM to ensure they meet the teenage curfew requirement. Once a person has left any dance, he or she will not be re-admitted. No one will be admitted after 9:30 PM.

Conduct

Students and guests who do not conduct themselves in a satisfactory manner will be requested to leave the dance. Students who bring eligible guests to social functions at Daniel McLaughlin Therrell High School will be held accountable for the actions of their guests.

Dress

Dress for all dances and social functions shall be that which is appropriate to the occasion. Students and guests who are inappropriately dressed will not be admitted into the function and they will not receive a refund.

5.13 Student Parking

Student parking is available in designated areas. All students wishing to park on school property must complete a vehicle registration form, display a parking decal, and park in their assigned place. There is no parking on the streets near the school. Cars improperly parked will be subject to ticketing and/or towing.

Do not send students to their automobiles to retrieve items for themselves or for you.
