

COORDINATOR OF CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Kim Wiles

Kimberly.Wiles@apsk12.org

Kimberly joins Atlanta Public Schools as our new Coordinator for the Office of Continuous Improvement, within the Department of Innovation, Improvement & Redesign. Kimberly believes that every student can learn and that is why she is devoted to assisting educators. She has done this by collaborating with educators on creating student lessons inspired by student data to ensure that the needs of every learner are met. Her motto is: "You must plan with intentionality for every exceptionality". Prior to joining APS, Kimberly was a Secondary Assistant Principal in Region 1 of DeKalb County School District. She also served as a Secondary Mathematics Teacher, District Academic Specialist, and Turnaround Instructional Coach for Savannah-Chatham and Gwinnett County Public Schools.

She has devoted 18 years of service to ensure that all students have the tools they need to be successful. Her goal is to make certain that all the stakeholders that she supports have the resources they need to guarantee increased student achievement rates while closing learning gaps.

Kimberly obtained her Bachelor of Science Degree from Savannah State University in the areas of Mathematics and Mechanical Engineering. She also obtained her Master's and Specialist degrees from Nova Southeastern University in the areas of Secondary Education and Curriculum & Instruction, respectively.

In her free time, Kimberly enjoys cycling, traveling with family & friends, and trying new restaurants and cuisines both locally and through her travels.
