The assessment for both of these texts will be a multiple-choice test as well as an IB Paper 2 exam written diagnostic. This assessment will take place during the second week of school. During our first week together, you will take a multiple choice reading check, which will focus on your comprehension. Below are the instructions and rubric for a Paper 2 comparative essay.

The Paper 2 diagnostic will pose a question of a general literary nature, which requires students to write a comparative essay referring to the two summer reading novels. Students will not be allowed to use their books as they write the essay. They must make detailed reference to the works in their answer, but will not be expected to include quotations from them.
