

August 25, 2016

Dear Inman Middle School Community,

This letter is written to inform you of a recent change within the Grady Cluster that will directly impact Inman Middle School. Tim Guiney, principal at Grady High School, is being recommended for a promotion in a neighboring school district. Their board will make a formal offer on Monday, August 29, 2016.

In order to ensure a smooth transition for students, staff and the community, Dr. Betsy Bockman, current Inman principal, has been selected to serve as the interim principal for Grady High School. Ms. Emily Boatright, current Inman assistant principal, has been selected to serve as the Interim Principal for Inman Middle School. An interim assistant principal will be placed at Inman Middle School as well.

Ms. Boatright has served in various leadership roles at Inman and Coan Middle Schools. She possesses deep knowledge of middle school programming and has been a part of the success at Inman. I am confident that Ms. Boatright is the right fit for the interim position.

Dr. Bockman and Ms. Boatright will transition into their interim roles on September 12, 2016. The search for a permanent principal for Inman will commence during the Spring of 2017. You will be notified of the district's selection process and opportunities to provide input.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation during this transitional period.

Sincerely,

Yolonda Brown
Associate Superintendent
