

One Fair FAQ – Morningside Elementary School

Question	Answer
What is the purpose of the One Fair?	Through the fair, students will be able to ask questions and identify real world problems. They can also solve the problems through research and exploration.
What is the date of the DISTRICT Fair?	STEAM Fair: January 28 th , 2026 @ TAG Elementary School Social Studies District Fair: January 16 th , 2026
What is the date of the school (Morningside Elementary's) Fair?	November 18 th , 2025 Morningside's One Fair will be held in the Auditorium.
What projects will be included in One Fair?	Science, Engineering, Technology, Social Studies (Social Science)
Will parents have a forum to ask questions?	Yes! There will be a parent meeting on October 1 st , 2025 @ 8:15 a.m. The meeting will be held on Google Meet so that parents can join virtually. It will be recorded in the event parents can't make it. Google Meet Link
What is the deadline for students to enter the fair?	The deadline for students to enter the fair is 10/8. They should have all project ideas submitted by then.
Who can enter a project in the "school based" fair?	Any students in grades K-5 can enter the fair. However, only students in grades 3 rd -5 th will be able to compete in the district and the state fair.
If my student doesn't enter the fair, will he/she be able to see the projects/presentations?	Yes! Students that don't participate in the fair will have the opportunity to view projects the day after the student presentations. Parents will have a special viewing as well. **

Where will the state fair be held?	If your student places in the district fair, the state fair will be held in Milledgeville at Georgia College and State University. The date is March 28 th , 2026.
What do I need to do as a parent?	If you have a student that is interested in presenting a project, please work with him/her to determine a topic. All presentations must be approved before the student begins.
What types of projects must have approval from APS (District Content Leads?)	Specialty Projects are projects that involve human tissue, fossils, microorganisms, algae, etc.
What is the difference between science projects and engineering projects?	Science- Seeks Discovery Engineering- Solves Problems (How to improve or make something better)
Will students have assistance at school?	The students will primarily work on the projects at home. However, staff working with One Fair will be available on Thursdays (after school) for help with project design, assembly, etc.
What materials do I need?	Display boards, glue, composition books for findings, etc.
What is needed in the log/composition book?	Notes, thoughts, findings, ideas, trials, raw data, copies of graphs/charts, photos, dated entries
Are there any prohibited items?	Yes! Glass, batteries, promotional products, self-promotion, URL's, and food are not permitted.
Can students present in groups?	Yes, students can present in groups of no more than 3.
Who will accompany the students to the district fair?	Morningside Staff will accompany the students to the fair.
Who are the judges?	The judges are professionals that work in the areas of Science, Technology, etc.
Is there a link that I can visit for examples of projects?	Science Link Social Studies Link

