INSTRUCTOR BIO

SABRINA ZAMORA

Sabrina has been with Nathan's Driving School, Inc. for over fifteen years. She is an experienced instructor and has worked with all types of students and in all types of situations. She is patient, compassionate, knowledgeable and knows how to work with teenagers. She is originally from New York. She is also a mother to a teenager so she understands this process both from an instructor's point of view and also a parent. She is a third-party tester and a defensive driving instructor as well. We are lucky to have her as part of our Nathan's team and she is looking forward to working with North Atlanta High School.
