

Race & Place Program Recruitment

CENTER FOR STUDIES ON AFRICA &
ITS DIASPORA

This program is a STEAM program that focuses on financial literacy building, culturally relevant STEAM education, and college and career readiness.

Eligibility:

Students and Families who receive free and/or reduced lunch

Benefits of Participation

- parental education about financial investing
- education about wealth building and college and career readiness preparation
- tools and education to improve personal financial stability and improve outlooks for future financial stability of the family

Contact Information For Participation

Students and/or families who are eligible should take a picture of the QR code below with your phone to complete a short application:

You can also type this link into a web browser to complete the application:

<https://forms.office.com/r/CW39qQpQiQ>

Sponsored by the American Family Insurance Company