Attendance

Students, unfortunately, miss multiple days of school each year for a wide variety of reasons. According to multiple studies, missing several days of school significantly reduces the likelihood that students will graduate from high school. Research shows students who miss 10 percent of school, or two days per month, show negative academic progress. In some schools, that adds up to 18 days a school year and is considered chronic absence.

Let's work together to make sure your child attends school every day and on time.
