ATLANTA CITY COUNCIL

In Recognition of Miles POWer Robotics Team

WHEREAS, The Atlanta City Council is pleased to recognize the Miles POWer Robotics Team and congratulate its members for winning the 2020 100 Scholars Robotics Alliance Georgia Regional FIRST LEGO League Tournament "Robot Design" Award and advancing to the Georgia State FIRST LEGO League Tournament; and

WHEREAS, In 2019, more than 100 girls attended a Moore Girls in STEM EXPOSure event sponsored by Atlanta City Council President Felicia Moore; and

WHEREAS, Several students kept the momentum going and formed a co-ed team, the Miles POWer Robotics Team including Paige Carnes (Cleveland Ave. ES), Karina Cruz, Kimora Porter (Young MS), Josephb Porter III, Danielle Hendrix, Symphony Fenter-Hogue, Edward Smith III, Ewon Parks, Jade Binion, Joey R. James, Jr. and Jeremiab Smith; and

WHEREAS, The Miles POWer Robotics Team is the only team to go from participating in the Moore Girls in STEM EXPOSure event to becoming an official FIRST LEGO League team, coached and mentored by Pamela-Faith Jackson and Shilda Seary, and supported by Young Middle School students Benjamin Adkinson, Axel and Ali Galeana, and KeMya Crumbley, the team persisted despite the coronavirus pandemic; and

WHEREAS, We join you in celebrating your successes and resiliency this past year. In the face of many challenges and being a novice team, you found innovative ways to continue working both virtually and in person, even at night and on weekends; and

WHEREAS, Together, the Miles POWer Robotics Team is leading the next generation of engineers, scientists, and inventors. To us, you are all MVPs and a force to change the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT WE, the members of the Atlanta City Council, on behalf of the citizens of Atlanta, do hereby recognize the Miles POWer Robotics Team for its accomplishments and wish you continued success as you grow and lead others into the wonderful world of STEAM. Presented March 19, 2021
