What is ASAS?

After-School All Stars Atlanta is a comprehensive out-of-school program dedicated to keeping children safe and helping them achieve in school life. The program is offered between the hours of 3pm-6pm Monday thru Friday which is considered the “danger zone” time frame for youth. This time is considered to be a time where youth are easily influenced to get involved with the wrong crowd; which causes them to make bad choices. After-School All Stars Atlanta provides a safe haven for at-risk youth where they are provided enrichment activities, life skills, academic support, sports and technical training.

All-Stars attend the Atlanta Falcons game at HBCU Day on Sunday, October 16th. ASAS students prepare for the ASAS Chess Tournament scheduled for January 2023 with other All-Stars Middle Schools.
