

Welcome to the Garden Hills Elementary Parent Center

What is a parent Liaison?

The Parent Liaison work to establish communication, relationships and maintain mutual understanding among school, community and home, Provide support to Atlanta Public Schools Title I, Part A schools by implementing policies & coordinating programs to build capacity for parental involvement and ensure compliance with federal Title I, Part A regulatory guides. The role of the Parent Liaison is part of a comprehensive system effort to increase the Academic Achievement of students and to encourage families to support schools and to lower existing barriers to parental/family participation.

Parent Liaison role

- ✓ Parent Outreach:
 - Assist parents with understanding Title I Part A. ESEA, report cards, learning compacts, assessments, progress reports, Parent Rights & Responsibilities.
 - Create opportunities to involve all parents in the education of their child.
 - Plan and coordinate academic parent workshop
 - Provide information to parents that include educational opportunities and resources in their areas.
- ✓ Communication:
 - Advertise all Title I Parent Involvement activities through a variety of media
 - Strengthen home-school relationships by facilitating positive proactive communication between families and educators.

What is the Parent Center?

The parent center is staffed by the Parent Liaison, Ms. Lopez from 8:00 a.m. to 2:30 each day. It is located in the Media Center. 404 80210