Greetings, Hope-Hill families! I'm Nicole Fluker, your Instructional Coach of Literacy Arts, and I'm proud to be soaring into my 25th year at our amazing school. When I'm not helping teachers and students spread their wings as readers and writers, you can usually find me traveling and exploring new beaches. My goal this year is to inspire every young Eagle to take flight with a lifelong love of literacy!

Greetings! My name is Dr. Colese Brown, and I am Hope-Hill Elementary's Readers are Leaders Instructional Coach! I've been a part of the Hope-Hill Family for 12 years, with 16 years in education overall. I received my Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from Georgia State University, and my Master's and Doctoral degrees in Early Childhood Education from Walden University. I genuinely believe that teaching a child to read is like receiving a gift that never stops giving!

LatTrice Green
Instructional Coach of Math & Science

Hello Hope Hill Families,
I'm excited to introduce myself as your new Math Instructional Coach! I'm here to support our students and teachers as we make math an exciting part of every school day.
I have a couple of challenges for our students this month. First, I challenge every student at Hope Hill to master their addition and subtraction facts up to 20. This is a foundational skill that will help them with all future math concepts. I also have an important safety challenge:

I want every student to learn their legal guardian's first and last name, their home address, and their phone number. Parents, you can help us with this by checking out our "Learning Our Safety Info" data bulletin board to see our progress.

Finally, I need your help in transforming our school into a math print-rich environment! This involves putting up math-related signage and visuals all around the school. I also need volunteers to help organize our math literature so it's more accessible for our students. Please let me know if you can help us with this fun project!
That's all for now. Have a great month
