Dear Sutton Families:

I hope that each of you were able to enjoy a safe and relaxing Thanksgiving Break. Please take note that for the remainder of the first semester, EVERY Wednesday will consist of asynchronous work for students. This means that though students are expected to complete tasks for each of their classes, they will not need to log online for live instruction on Wednesdays. All teachers will have work posted on their google classroom that will align to the standards for the class and allow students to participate and practice independently.

If you have questions regarding the work for a class, please reach out to the classroom teacher first. For broader based questions regarding asynchronous Wednesdays for the remainder of the semester, please do not hesitate to reach out to the grade level administrator or myself at gail.johnson@atlanta.k12.ga.us. As a reminder, our web site contains all information regarding virtual learning and Sutton Middle School. Please do not hesitate to reach out regarding the many resources we have to assist you.

Sincerely,

Gail Johnson
