- ii. School Strategic Plan

1. Principal White presented our BPA Strategic Plan. It is focused on our 4 SMART Goals. The SMART Goals are the drivers of our Strategic Plan.

- a. Strategic Priorities:

- i. Structured Literacy to improve Outcomes in Readin/ELA at all levels
- ii. Increased focus on conceptual understanding to improve outcomes in math at all levels
- iii. Continue improving our IB PYP program
- iv. Focus on the Whole Child via SEL, Counseling, and Social Work Services
- v. Improve teacher efficacy in Reading, Math, and IB
- vi. Inform and engage with the BPA Community
- vii. Foster a positive, informed, and engaged school culture

- iii. SMART Goals

1. The percentage of students in grades 3,4,5 scoring at lesa proficient on the GMAS ELA test will increase from 50% tp 75% by Spring 2025.
2. The percentage of students in grades 3,4,5 scoring at lesa proficient on the GMAS math test will increase from 50% tp 75% by Spring 2025.

3. Increase the BPA School Climate Star Rating from 4 Stars to 5 stars by 2025.
 4. BPA Will be re-authorized as an IB PYP World School by 2025 with 100% Standards and Practices met.
- iv. GMAS Results
1. We took the GMAS state assessment for the first time in 3 years (pre-COVID)
 2. BPA scored 7th among all APS elementary schools in ELA (Gr. 3-5). Our students performed better in ELA than their expected performance based on the challenge index.
 3. BPA scored 7th among all APS Elementary schools in Math (Gr. 3-5). We did better than expected in math based on our challenge index.
 4. POINT OF PRIDE! BPA is tied for 3rd for 3rd grade ELA students scoring at DISTINGUISHED. It's a testament to our early literacy structured literacy program.
 5. BPA has a gap between the performance of students who are Black in comparison to students who are white. Our achievement gap is half the gap that APS has as a district, meaning BPA students who are Black perform better than other Black students in APS schools. We will have a focus on closing the gap at BPA further.
 - a. A. Beale Smith inquired about how to close the gap. D. White discussed our challenges and the new district equity office as a new resource.
