Information Items:

A: Update on Band Mrs. Searcy happily share the band is back! All six elementary schools in the Jackson Cluster will be able to share a band teacher. Scheduling and other details/ logistics are still being worked out. We need to locate as many instruments as possible.

B: Homework Help Resources Also shared, the homework help lab has begun. The new science lab teacher, Sasha Mills, is meeting with students Mon-Thurs from 2:30-3:30. (We weren't sure if she met with students on Friday.) Students and parents are able to contact her at help@burgesspeterson.com for homework help/questions and/or reserve a spot for students to stay after school for assistance. Discussion was held about extending the homework lab to 4:30 so that students in scouts and other possible clubs could participate before going home. Mary Santanello asked about early morning homework help hours to help accommodate working parents.

The project room is developing as well. Jeanne Fore, shared that she and Dr. Resler were working on a space in the art room to house project supplies so that student and parents could visit the 'store' and pick up needed materials for home projects.
