District Reopening Plan Updates

APS Plans As of 10-16-2020

- Virtual Learning will continue until at least January 19, 2020.
- No change to current school schedules or delivery models.
- Will reconsider in January based on health data from the DPH.

Young MS Updates

What does this mean for Young MS?

- Student attendance in 6 periods per day 5 days a week is CRITICAL!
- Will see an increase in engagement efforts to include home visits, escalation of serious truancy cases, and attendance incentives.
- May see small groups of students invited into the school building beginning mid November to receive additional support based on student learning and attendance data.

End of Quarter 1

Grades and Report Cards

- This quarter ends Friday!
- If students have missing work, the last day to submit for credit is Friday!
- Students should attend office hours if they need to work with the teacher.
- Report Cards will be posted to Parent Portal/Infinite Campus 10/30.
- If you want a paper copy of the report card, you may come to the school to receive one.

APTT

APTT Info

- Opportunity to hear directly from your child's teachers and directly from your child on his/her progress from 1st quarter and goals for 2nd quarter.
- Opportunity to receive updates on your child's beginning of year academic data.
- Opportunity to receive ideas for how to continue to motivate your child to stay engaged in virtual learning.
- Next Tuesday at 5:30. Zoom links will be posted on the website www.atlantapublicschools.us/young and in teachers' Google Classrooms on Monday.
- Your student and you attend together!
